Famous Firearms of the Old West Hal Herring, 2011-09-01 From Buffalo Bill to Wild Bill and from Chief Joseph to Geronimo, the most famous guns in the West and the history behind them. More than a few of the actual guns once in the hands of the heroes and villains of America's Old West still exist, housed in a dozen museums across the country. From the Model 1866 .44-40 that Chief Joseph famously surrendered to General Miles to Wild Bill Hickok's Colt Model 1851 revolvers from Buffalo Bill's .50 caliber breechloading needlegun, nicknamed Lucrezia Borgia, to John Wesley Hardin's 1860 model .44 S&W revolvers. Famous Firearms of the Old West follows the life stories of a dozen actual pistols, rifles, and shotguns instrumental in shaping America's history, using them as entries into the lives of the shooters themselves. This is a vivid portrait of famous Western characters paired with the guns they used to make themselves famous, or as the case may be, infamous. It is a must for anyone interested in the history and lore of the Wild West, gun hobbyists, and tourists seeking a museum experience with a difference.

The Texas Gun Trade Chris Hirsch, 2008 This new book from Mowbray Publishers is the result of the author's almost 20 years of research. It attempts to shed light on the extent of the gun trade in Texas during its early times. Though the military connection is touched upon in this book, the civilian gun trade is the main objective. Many of the old established gun dealers in Texas became quite successful, while others came and went. Each major city seemed to have one gun dealer that stood above all others. Included in this extensive directory of over 1,200 dealers and makers are the Dance Brothers of Anderson, the Erichson family of Houston, E. A. Worden of Dallas, Charles Hummel of San Antonio, J. C. Petmecky of Austin, A. J. Anderson of Fort Worth, and countless other dealers and tradesmen, many of whom could have books dedicated to them alone. More than
