The Hidden History of Housing Cooperatives Allan David Heskin, Jacqueline Leavitt, 1995 Reconstructing Public Housing Matthew Thompson, 2020 Reconstructing Public Housing tells the story of Liverpool's cooperative revolution in municipal housing development in the 1970s how this laid the foundations for the first ever architectural or urban regeneration project to win the artworld's coveted Turner Prize and what this says about how we might renew public housing collectively The Community Development Reader James DeFilippis, Susan Saegert, 2013-03-05 The Community Development Reader is the first comprehensive reader in the past thirty years that brings together practice theory and critique concerning communities as sites of social change With chapters written by some of the leading scholars and practitioners in the field the book presents a diverse set of perspectives on community development These selections inform the reader about established and emerging community development institutions and practices as well as the main debates in the field The second edition is significantly updated and expanded to include a section on globalization as well as new chapters on the foreclosure crisis and emerging forms of community The Mutual Housing Experiment Kristin M Szylvian, 2015-06-12 In the series Urban Life Landscape and Policy edited by Zane L Miller David Stradling and Larry Bennett A Right to Housing Rachel Bratt, Michael Stone, Chester Hartman, 2006-02-15 How can we explain the persistent inability of the United States to meet the housing needs of a large portion of its people What can we do about the problem In this important new work leading progressive housing activists and thinkers examine the state of housing the housed and housing policy in the United States and then provide a comprehensive and detailed program for solving the problem under the goal of a Right to Housing Encyclopedia of the City Roger W. Caves, 2005 A first class work of reference that will be both an essential resource for independent study as well as a useful aid in teaching a solid but also provocative starting point for wider exploration of the city Carving Out the Commons Amanda Huron, 2018-03-13 An investigation of the practice of commoning in urban housing and its necessity for challenging economic injustice in our rapidly gentrifying cities Provoked by mass evictions and the onset of gentrification in the 1970s tenants in Washington D C began forming cooperative organizations to collectively purchase and manage their apartment buildings These tenants were creating a commons taking a resource housing that had been used to extract profit from them and reshaping it as a resource that was collectively owned by them In Carving Out the Commons Amanda Huron theorizes the practice of urban commoning through a close investigation of the city's limited equity housing cooperatives Drawing on feminist and anticapitalist perspectives Huron asks whether a commons can work in a city where land and other resources are scarce and how strangers who may not share a past or future come together to create and maintain commonly held spaces in the midst of capitalism Arguing against the romanticization of the commons she instead positions the urban commons as a pragmatic practice Through the practice of commoning she contends we can learn to build communities to challenge capitalism's totalizing claims over life Seeking
