Voices from the Lower Deck Monique Layton,2019-12-10 Voices from the Lower Deck examines the role of folklore as the instrument of integration and bonding for the ordinary seafarer during the Age of Sail Mainly based on contemporary sailors narratives and historical and folkloric texts the book evokes common themes the harsh environment the cruel discipline the brutal way of life and the release of onshore carousing and whoring but also the coordinated work and effort of daily tasks and the tremendous pride of seeing themselves as unique men against a background of landlubbers The psychological and physical survival of these disparate men from many origins depended on their rapid integration into the common culture the folklore and the folkways of what historians have called the wooden world The Sailor's Home: The Girdle of Truth A. L. O. E., You seem to be weary my friend said Mr Curtis the vicar of Colme stopping courteously to speak to a sailor who was seated on the stump of a tree at the side of the pathway It was a glowing day in August the air was hot and sultry and dust lay thick on the road Ned Franks the sailor rose on being addressed and touched his glazed hat on which appeared the badge of the anchor surmounted by a crown which showed that he had belonged to the Royal Navy He was a fine stalwart looking young man scarcely thirty years of age with sunburnt cheek and thick curling hair and as Mr Curtis met the glance of his clear blue eye the clergyman thought that he had never looked upon a face more manly or pleasant I ve walked twenty miles sir since sunrise said Franks glancing at the bundle which he had been carrying on a stick across his shoulder and which was now resting against the stump from which he had risen But I m nigh port now I take it if yonder s the village of Colme Are you going to visit it asked the vicar I m going to drop anchor there for good sir answered the tar I ve a sister a step sister I should say living yonder she and I are all that are left of the family now and I ll make my home with her please God Surely you are too young to give up the navy my friend Idleness would be no blessing to a fine strong lad such as you seem to be you may have many years before you yet of good service to the Queen I shall never serve the Queen again bless her replied the young sailor with a touch of sadness And Mr Curtis then for the first time remarked that the left sleeve of Ned s blue jacket hung empty But I don t look to be idle sir continued Franks in a tone more cheerful Bessy will have my bit of a pension for the mess and the berth and I ll see if I can t make myself useful in some way or other go errands or maybe try the teaching tack anything would be better than lying like a log on the shore The Commercialized Crafts of Thailand Erik Cohen,2000-07-01 This volume brings together two decades of research into the process of commercialization of the folk crafts of Thailand the conditions of its emergence the parties involved in its development the changes in the processes and organization of production which accompany it the channels through which commercialized craft products are marketed the nature of the audiences which they reach and the transformations in appearance and meaning which the products undergo as a result of their commercialization Each chapter deals with a specific issue in a particular context but virtually all of them relate to one or another of these principal aspects of the process of commercialization Part I explores the commercialization of hill tribe textiles particularly those of the Hmong refugees from Laos Part II presents a series of case studies of the various ways in which the products of lowland Thai craft villages became commercialized fishing fleet old weather lore sailors chanties and sea language taboos and talismans precautions taken at keel laying or launching all these are recorded and interpreted here For everyone who enjoys strange stories and the chilly fascination of the unconquered sea or thrills to watch man pitting himself against merciless elements this book is a delight and a mine of information Margaret Baker is unrivalled at collecting traditions of the past and showing the part they have played for generations of men in their daily lives With brand new illustrations by Philip Harris The Story of Craft Edward Lucie-Smith,1984 Bibliography of Nautical Books ,1993 Mystic Apprentice Master Volume Ken Ludden,2012-02-25 The complete Mystic Apprentice textbook series in one volume The Traveller's Manual of Conversation in Four Languages: English, French, German, Italian Karl Baedeker (Firm),1887 Our Blue Planet: An Introduction to Maritime and Underwater Archaeology Ben Ford,Jessi J.
