The Haunted Screen Lee Kovacs, 2005-11-21 While ghosts often inhabit films and literature devoted to the horror genre a group of literature based films from the 1930s and 1940s presents more human and romantic apparitions These films provide the underpinnings for many of the gentle supernatural films of the 1990s Tracing the links between specters as diverse as Rex Harrison's Captain Gregg and Patrick Swazye's Sam Wheat the text presents the evolution of the cinematic literary ghost from classic Gothic to the psychological sociological and political ideologies of today Included are analyses of the literary and film versions of classic ghost stories

Wuthering Heights The Ghost and Mrs Muir Portrait of Jennie Letter from an Unknown Woman The Uninvited Liliom and Our Town as well as interpretations of modern films not based on literary works that show the influence of these predecessors Ghost and Truly Madly Deeply The text includes stills a bibliography and an index Portrait Stories Michal Peled Ginsburg, 2014-12-15 What makes stories about portraits so gripping and unsettling Portrait Stories argues that it is the ways they problematize the relation between subjectivity and representation Through close readings of short stories and novellas by Poe James Hoffmann Gautier Nerval Balzac Kleist Hardy Wilde Storm Sand and Gogol the author shows how the subjectivities of sitter painter and viewer are produced in relation to representations shaped by particular interests and power relations often determined by gender as well as by class She focuses on the power that can accrue to the painter from the act of representation often at the expense of the portrait s subject while also exploring how and why this act may threaten the portrait painter s sense of self Analyzing the viewer s relation to the portrait she demonstrates how portrait stories problematize the very act of seeing and with it the way subjectivity is constructed in the field of vision A Geography of Victorian Gothic Fiction Robert Mighall, 2003 This is the first major full length study of Victorian Gothic fiction Combining original readings of familiar texts with a rich store of historical sources A Geography of Victorian Gothic Fiction is an historicist survey of nineteenth century Gothic writing from Dickens to Stoker Wilkie Collins to Conan Doyle through European travelogues sexological textbooks ecclesiastic histories and pamphlets on the perils of self abuse Critics have thus far tended to concentrate on specific angles of Gothic writing gender or race or the belief that the Gothic returned at the so called fin de si cle Robert Mighall by contrast demonstrates how the Gothic mode was active throughout the Victorian period and provides historical explanations for its development from late eighteenth century through the Urban Gothic fictions of the mid Victorian period the Suburban Gothic of the Sensation vogue through to the somatic horrors of Stevenson Machen Stoker and Doyle at the century s close Mighall challenges the psychological approach to Gothic fiction which currently prevails demonstrating the importance of geographical historical and discursive factors that have been largely neglected by critics and employing a variety of original sources to demonstrate the contexts of Gothic fiction and explain its development in the Victorian period Portrait of the Artist and His Mother in Twentieth-Century Italian Culture Daniela Bini, 2020-11-05 The power exercised by the mother on the son in Mediterranean cultures has been amply studied Italy is a special case in the Modern Era and the phenomenon of Mammismo italiano is indeed well known Scholars have traced this obsession with the mother figure to the Catholic cult of the Virgin Mary but in fact it is more ancient What has not been adequately addressed however is how Mammismo italiano has been manifested in complex ways in various modern artistic forms Portrait of the Artist and His Mother in Twentieth Century Italian Culture focuses on case studies of five prominent creative personalities representing different sometimes overlapping artistic genres Luigi Pirandello Pier Paolo Pasolini Dino Buzzati Carlo Levi Federico Fellini The author examines how the mother son relationship not only affected but actually shaped their work

Although the analysis uses mainly a psychological and psychoanalytical critical approach the belief of the author substantiated by historians anthropologists and sociologists is that historical and cultural conditions contributed to and reinforced the Italian character This book concludes with an analysis of some examples of Italian film comedies such as Fellini s and Monicelli s where mammismo vitellonismo is treated with a lighter tone and a pointed self irony

English Drama Emanuel Stelzer,2019-05-14 Portraits in Early Modern English Drama studies the complex web of interconnections that grows out of the presentation of portraits as props in early modern English drama Emanuel Stelzer considers this theory from the Elizabethan age up to the closing of the theatres This book examines how the dramatic text and the subjectivities of the dramatis personae are shaped and changed through the process of observation and interpretation of pictures in the dramatic actions and dialogues Unlike any previous study it confronts when a portrait is clearly meant not to be a miniature This also has bearings on the effect of the picture on the audience and in terms of genre expectation Two important questions are interrogated in the book What were the price and value of these portraits and What were the strategies deployed by the playing companies to show women s portraits in a theatre without actresses This book will be of interest to different areas of research dealing with the history of drama and literature material and visual culture studies art history gender studies and performance studies Art in the Cinematic Imagination Susan
