Smiler With The Knife:

The Smiler with the Knife Nicholas Blake,1978 The Smiler with the Knife Nicholas Blake,1981 Orson Welles and the Unfinished RKO Projects Marguerite H Rippy,2009-04-21 Orson Welles and the Unfinished RKO Projects A Postmodern Perspective traces the impact of legendary director Orson Welles on contemporary mass media entertainment and suggests that ironically we can see Welles s performance genealogy most clearly in his unfinished RKO projects Author Marguerite H Rippy provides the first in depth examination of early film and radio projects shelved by RKO or by Welles himself While previous studies of Welles largely fall into the categories of biography or modernist film studies this book extends the understanding of Welles via postmodern narrative theory and performance analysis weaving his work into the cultural and commercial background of its production By identifying the RKO years as a critical moment in performance history Rippy synthesizes scholarship that until now has been scattered among film studies narrative theory feminist critique American studies and biography Building a bridge between auteur and postmodern theories Orson Welles and the Unfinished RKO Projects offers a fresh look at Welles in his full complexity Rippy trains a postmodern lens on Welles s early projects and reveals four emerging narrative modes that came to define his work deconstructions of the first person singular adaptations of classic texts for mass media explorations of the self via primitivism and examinations of the line between reality and fiction These four narrative styles would greatly influence the development of modern mass media entertainment Rippy finds Welles s legacy alive and well in today s mockumentaries and reality television It was in early unfinished projects where Welles first toyed with fact and fiction and the pleasure of this interplay still resonates with contemporary culture As Rippy suggests the logical conclusion of Welles s career long exploration of truthiness lies in the laughs of fake news shows Offering an exciting glimpse of a master early in his career Orson Welles and the Unfinished RKO Projects documents Welles s development as a storyteller who would shape culture for decades to come In the Beginning Mary Jean DeMarr,1995 Others concentrate more on analysis of the subject novel itself indicating more briefly how that book relates to those which follow it Some discuss such questions as what exactly is the first novel in some rather complex series and in several cases more than one initiating book is discussed No attempt has been made to include consideration of a representative sample of the various types of detective series but a variety of authors is covered ranging from such classics as Agatha Christie Rex Stout and Dorothy L Sayers to more recent authors like James McClure Joseph Hansen and Colin Dexter The smiler with the knife Frank Wright,1954 The Smiler with the Knife, by Nicholas Blake ,1939 At the End of the Street in the Shadow Matthew Asprey Gear,2016-02-16 The films of Orson Welles inhabit the spaces of cities from America s industrializing midland to its noirish borderlands from Europe s medieval fortresses to its Kafkaesque labyrinths and postwar rubblescapes His movies take us through dark streets to confront nightmarish struggles for power the carnivalesque and bizarre and the shadows and light of human character This ambitious new study explores Welles s vision of cities by following recurring themes across his work including urban transformation race relations and fascism the utopian promise of cosmopolitanism and romantic nostalgia for archaic forms of urban culture It focuses on the personal and political foundation of Welles's cinematic cities the way he invents urban spaces on film to serve his dramatic thematic and ideological purposes The book's critical scope draws on extensive research in international archives and builds on the work of previous scholars Viewing Welles as a radical filmmaker whose innovative methods were only occasionally compatible with the commercial film industry this volume examines the filmmaker's original vision for butchered films such as The Magnificent Ambersons 1942 and Mr Arkadin 1955 and considers many projects the filmmaker never completed an immense shadow oeuvre ranging from unfinished and unreleased films to unrealized treatments and screenplays

Queer Times, Black Futures Kara Keeling, 2019-04-16 Finalist 2019 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies A profound intellectual engagement with Afrofuturism and the philosophical questions of space and time Queer Times Black Futures considers the promises and pitfalls of imagination technology futurity and liberation as they have persisted in and through racial capitalism Kara Keeling explores how the speculative fictions of cinema music and literature that center black existence provide scenarios wherein we might imagine alternative worlds queer and otherwise In doing so Keeling offers a sustained meditation on contemporary investments in futurity speculation and technology paying particular attention to their significance to queer and black freedom Keeling reads selected works such as Sun Ra's 1972 film Space is the Place and the 2005 film The Aggressives to juxtapose the Afrofuturist tradition of speculative imagination with the similar speculations of corporate and financial institutions In connecting a queer cinematic reordering of time with the new possibilities technology offers Keeling thinks with and through a vibrant conception of the imagination as a gateway to queer times and black futures and the previously unimagined spaces that they can conjure
