Dorothy Parker: Complete Broadway, 1918-1923 Dorothy Parker, 2014-05-01 Dorothy Parker holds a place in history as one of New York's most beloved writers Now for the first time in nearly a century the public is invited to enjoy Mrs Parker's sharp wit and biting commentary on the Jazz Age hits and flops in this first ever published collection of her groundbreaking Broadway reviews Starting when she was twenty four at Vanity Fair as New York's only female theatre critic Mrs Parker reviewed some of the biggest names of the era the Barrymores George M Cohan W C Fields Helen Hayes Al Jolson Eugene O'Neil Will Rogers and the Ziegfeld Follies Her words of praise and contempt for the dramas comedies musicals and revues are just as fresh and funny today as they were in the age of speakeasies and bathtub gin Annotated with a notes section by Kevin C Fitzpatrick president of the Dorothy Parker Society the volume shares Parker's outspoken opinions of a great era of live theatre in America from a time before radio talking pictures and television decimated attendance Dorothy Parker Complete Broadway 1918-1923 provides a fascinating glimpse of Broadway in its Golden Era and literary life in New York through the eyes of a renowned theatre critic      Coming Soon!!! John Barth, 2001 In this novelistic romp that is by turns hilarious and brilliant John Barth spoofs his own place in the pantheon of contemporary fiction and the generation of writers who have followed his literary trailblazing Coming Soon is the tale of two writers an older retiring novelist setting out to write his last work and a young aspiring writer of hypertext intent on toppling his master In the heat of their rivalry the writers navigate and sometimes stumble over the cultural fault lines between print and electronic fiction mentor and mentee postmodernism and modernism The Complete Films of Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy Philip Castanza,1990 Brief biographies stills and film synopses and credits help chronicle the careers of the Hollywood stars who became America's Singing Sweethearts

Hollywood Diva Edward Baron Turk,1998 Based in large part on the author's exclusive access to MacDonald's private papers including her unpublished memoir this vivid often touching biography details the actress's fearless efforts to break down the distinctions between high art and mass consumed entertainment 60 illustrations The Decline of Sentiment Lea Jacobs,2008-04-02 The Decline of Sentiment seeks to characterize the radical shifts in taste that transformed American film in the jazz age Based upon extensive reading of trade papers and the popular press of the day Lea Jacobs documents the films and film genres that were considered old fashioned as well as those dubbed innovative and up to date and looks closely at the works of filmmakers such as Erich von Stroheim Charlie Chaplin Ernst Lubitsch and Monta Bell among many others Her analysis focusing on the influence of literary naturalism on the cinema the emergence of sophisticated comedy and the progressive alteration of the male adventure story and the seduction plot is a comprehensive account of the modernization of classical Hollywood film style and narrative form American Cinema of the 1930s Ina Rae Hark,2007-06-21 Probably no decade saw as many changes in the Hollywood film industry and its product as the 1930s did At the beginning of the decade the industry was still struggling with the transition to talking pictures Gangster films and naughty comedies starring Mae West were popular in urban areas but aroused threats of censorship in the heartland Whether the film business could survive the economic effects of the Crash was up in the air By 1939 popularly called Hollywood's Greatest Year films like Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz used both color and sound to spectacular effect and remain American icons today The mature oligopoly that was the studio system had not only weathered the Depression and become part of mainstream culture through the establishment and enforcement of the Production Code it was a well oiled vertically integrated industrial powerhouse The ten original essays in American Cinema of the 1930s focus on sixty diverse films of the decade including Dracula The Public Enemy Trouble in Paradise 42nd Street King Kong Imitation of Life The Adventures of Robin Hood Swing Time Angels with Dirty Faces Nothing Sacred Jezebel Mr Smith Goes to Washington and Stagecoach Love in the Afterlife Richard Striner,2016-04-29 This is a definitive study of films that have been built around the themes of love death and the afterlife films about lovers who meet again and love again in heaven via reincarnation or through other kinds of after death encounters Far more than books about mere ghosts in the movies or religion in movies Love in the Afterlife presents a complex but highly distinctive and unique pattern the love death afterlife pattern as it was handed down by the ancient

Egyptians and Greeks in the Isis and Orpheus myths for example developed by Freud and his followers in the duality of Eros and Thanatos and then featured in popular movies from the 1920s to the recent past Among its other qualities Love in the Afterlife may encourage readers to look at movies differently and reflect upon the possibility that other patterns in cinema may have gone undetected for years Furthermore this book will show how the love death afterlife theme found its way into all sorts of different film types melodramas comedies war films horror films film noir and other genres The book will be well illustrated and quotations from film reviews will enliven its pages A long appendix gives production data on almost sixty individual films

Silent Stars Jeanine Basinger, 2000-11 An eminent film historian illuminates the stars of silent film

Movie Mavens Richard Abel, 2021-10-19 During the early era of cinema moviegoers turned to women editors and writers for the latest on everyone's favorite stars films and filmmakers Richard Abel returns these women to film history with an anthology of reviews articles and other works Drawn from newspapers of the time the selections show how columnists like Kitty Kelly Mae Tinee Louella Parsons and Genevieve Harris wrote directly to female readers They also profiled women working in jobs like scenario writer and film editor and noted the industry's willingness to hire women Sharp wit and frank opinions entertained and informed a wide readership hungry for news about the movies but also about women on both sides of the camera Abel supplements the texts with hard to find biographical information and provides context on the newspapers and silent era movie industry as well as on the professionals and films highlighted by these writers An invaluable collection of rare archival sources Movie Mavens reveals women's essential contribution to the creation of American film culture

The Great War in Hollywood Memory, 1918-1939 Michael Hammond, 2019-12-01 Assesses how America's film industry remembered World War I during the interwar period This is the definitive account of how America's film industry remembered and reimagined World War I from the Armistice in 1918 to the outbreak of World War II in 1939 Based on detailed archival research Michael Hammond shows how the war and the sociocultural changes it brought made their way into cinematic stories and images He traces the development of the war's memory in films dealing with combat on the ground and in the air the role of women behind the lines returning veterans and through the social problem and horror genres Hammond first examines movies that dealt directly with the war and the men and women who experienced it He then turns to the consequences of the war as they played out across a range of films some only tangentially related to the conflict itself Hammond finds that the Great War acted as a storehouse of motifs and tropes drawn upon in the service of an industry actively seeking to deliver clearly told entertaining stories to paying audiences Films analyzed include The Big Parade Grand Hotel Hell's Angels The Black Cat and Wings Drawing on production records set designs personal accounts and the advertising and reception of key films the book offers unique insight into a cinematic remembering that was a product of the studio system as it emerged as a global entertainment industry Hammond's intelligent and insightful account of the formation of cinematic treatments of the Great War in America constitutes a major addition to the critical literature on film It acts as a prism through which to see refracted multiple themes central to the social and cultural history of the interwar years
