Telling Our Stories Omushkego Legends And Histories From Hudson Bay:

Telling Our Stories Louis Bird,2005-08-01 Since the 1970s Louis Bird a distinguished Aboriginal storyteller and historian has been recording the stories and memories of Omushkego Swampy Cree communities along western Hudson and James Bays In nine chapters he presents some of the most vivid legends and historical stories from his collection casting new light on his people s history culture and values Working with the editors and other contributors to provide background and context for the stories he illuminates their many levels of meaning and brings forward the value system and world view that underlie their teachings Students of Aboriginal culture history and literature will find that this is no ordinary book of stories compiled from a remote disconnected voice but rather a project in which the teller deeply engaged in preserving his people s history language and values is committed to bringing his listeners and readers as far along the road to understanding as he possibly can

An Ethnohistorian in Rupert's Land Jennifer S. H. Brown,2017-08-10 In 1670 the ancient homeland of the Cree and Ojibwe people of Hudson Bay became known to the English entrepreneurs of the Hudson s Bay Company as Rupert s Land after the founder and absentee landlord Prince Rupert For four decades Jennifer S H Brown has examined the complex relationships that developed among the newcomers and the Algonquian communities who hosted and tolerated the fur traders and later the missionaries anthropologists and others who found their way into Indigenous lives and territories The eighteen essays gathered in this book explore Brown s investigations into the surprising range of interactions among Indigenous people and newcomers as they met or observed one another from a distance and as they competed compromised and rejected or adapted to change While diverse in their subject matter the essays have thematic unity in their focus on the old HBC territory and its peoples from the 1600s to the present More than an anthology the chapters of An Ethnohistorian in Rupert s Land provide examples of Brown s exceptional skill in the close study of texts including oral documents images artifacts and other cultural expressions The volume as a whole represents the scholarly evolution of one of the leading ethnohistorians in Canada and the United States

Spirit Lives in the Mind Louis Bird,Susan Elaine Gray,2007-02-09 Cree spiritual beliefs revolve around the sacred places and rich landscape of the Hudson Bay lowlands The beautiful narratives in The Spirit Lives in the Mind illuminate the meaning and value of spiritual maturity and power the parallels between Omushkego morality and Roman Catholic teachings and the importance of maintaining the traditional stories Bird also offers explanations of shamanism and demonstrates how Catholicism affected Cree tradition

Rough and Plenty Raymond A. Rogers,2020-02-15 As a commercial fisher in Nova Scotia in the early 1990s Raymond Rogers experienced the collapse of Canada s East Coast fishery first hand Afterward while preparing to leave the province to find work elsewhere Rogers noticed a lone gravestone across the road from his home in Shelburne County that commemorates the life of Donald McDonald a crofter from the Isle of Lewis in Scotland who departed this life in 1881 Rogers wondered if there might be a connection between the necessity of his own departure and McDonald s lonely presence on the nearby Atlantic shore linking them as members of local communities that were displaced in the name of economic progress In Rough and Plenty A Memorial Rogers explores the parallel processes of dispossession suffered by nineteenth century Scottish crofters expelled from their ancestral lands during the Highland Clearances and by the marginalization of coastal fishing communities in Nova Scotia The book aims to memorialize local ways of life that were destroyed by the forces of industrial production as well as to convey the experience of dislocation using first hand narratives recent and historical The author makes the case that in a world where capital abhors all communities but itself remembering becomes a form of advocacy that can challenge dominant structures

Algonquian Spirit Brian Swann, 2005-01-01 When Europeans first arrived on this continent Algonquian languages were spoken from the northeastern seaboard through the Great Lakes region across much of Canada and even in scattered communities of the American West The rich and varied oral tradition of this Native language family one of the farthest flung in North America comes brilliantly to life in this remarkably broad sampling of Algonquian songs and stories from across the centuries Ranging from the speech of an early unknown Algonquian to the famous Walam Olum hoax from retranslations of classic stories to texts appearing here for the first time these are tales written or told by Native storytellers today as in the past as well as oratory oral history and songs sung to this day An essential introduction and captivating guide to Native literary traditions still thriving in many parts of North America Algonquian Spirit contains vital background information and new translations of songs and stories reaching back to the seventeenth century Drawing from Arapaho Blackfoot Cheyenne Cree Delaware Maliseet Menominee Meskwaki Miami Illinois Mi kmaq Naskapi Ojibwe Passamaquoddy Potawatomi and Shawnee the collection gathers a host of respected and talented singers storytellers historians anthropologists linguists and tribal educators both Native and non Native from the United States and Canada all working together to orchestrate a single complex performance of the Algonquian languages Together We Survive John S.

Long, Jennifer S.H. Brown, 2016-01-01 Essays exemplifying collaborative research respectful advocacy and a deep appreciation of continuity within changing Aboriginal identity and expression Corporate Citizen Oonagh E. Fitzgerald, 2020-10-06 The contributors to Corporate Citizen explore the legal frameworks and standards of conduct for multinational corporations In a globalized world governed by domestic and international law these corporations can be everywhere and nowhere at once reaping financial benefits and enjoying the protections of investor state arbitration but rarely being held accountable for the economic environmental and human rights harms they may have caused Given the far reaching power and success of the transnational corporation and the many legal tools allowing these companies to avoid liability how can governments protect their citizens Broad ranging in perspective colourful and thought provoking the chapters in Corporate Citizen make the case that because the success of corporate global citizenship risks undermining national and international democratic governance the multinational corporation must be more closely scrutinized and controlled in the service of humanity and the protection of the natural environment A Companion to American Literature and Culture Paul Lauter, 2020-09-21 This expansive Companion offers a set of fresh perspectives on the wealth of texts produced in and around what is now the United States Highlights the diverse voices that constitute American literature embracing oral traditions slave narratives regional writing literature of the environment and more Demonstrates that American literature was multicultural before Europeans arrived on the continent and even more so thereafter Offers three distinct paradigms for thinking about American literature focusing on genealogies of American literary study writers and issues and contemporary theories and practices Enables students and researchers to generate richer more varied and more comprehensive readings of American literature The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole Tourism and Change in Polar Regions C. Michael Hall, Jarkko Saarinen, 2010-07-15 Explores the relationship between tourism and climate change in both Arctic and Antarctic polar regions by considering the associated environmental economic social and political factors This book draws on both Arctic and Antarctic Polar region case studies to help illustrate these climate change issues
