Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1967 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December Staging the End of the World Brian Kulick, 2022-12-29 This book is a brief history of the end of the world as seen through the eyes of theatre Since its inception theatre has staged the fall of empires floods doomsdays shipwrecks earthquakes plagues environmental degradations warfare nuclear annihilation and the catastrophic effects of climate change Using a wide range of plays alongside contemporary thinkers this study helps guide and galvanize the reader in grappling with the climate crisis Kulick divides this litany of theatrical cataclysms into four distinct historical phases the Ancients including Euripides and Bhasa the legendary Sanskrit dramatist the Age of Belief with the anonymous authors of the medieval mystery cycles Shakespeare and Pushkin the Moderns with Ibsen Chekhov Brecht Beckett and Bond and finally the way the world might end now encompassing Caryl Churchill Tony Kushner and Anne Washburn In tandem with the insights gleaned from these playwrights the book draws upon the work of contemporary scientists ecologists and ethicists to further tease out the philosophical implications of such plays and their relevance to our own troubled times In the end Kulick shows how each of these ages and their respective authors have something essential to say not only about humanity's potential end but more importantly about the possibility for our collective continuance The Publisher , 1902 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1904 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974

Intuition, Imagination, and Philosophical Methodology Tamar Szabó Gendler, 2013-07-18 Tamar Gendler draws together in this book a series of essays in which she investigates philosophical methodology which is now emerging as a central topic of philosophical discussions Three intertwined themes run through the volume imagination intuition and philosophical methodology Each of the chapters focuses in one way or another on how we engage with subject matter that we take to be imaginary This theme is explored in a wide range of cases including scientific thought experiments early childhood pretense thought experiments concerning personal identity fictional emotions self deception Gettier cases and the general relation of conceivability to possibility Each of the chapters explores in one way or another the implications of this for how thought experiments and appeals to intuition can serve as mechanisms for supporting or refuting scientific or philosophical claims And each of the chapters self consciously exhibits a particular philosophical methodology that of drawing both on empirical findings from contemporary psychology and on classic texts in the philosophical tradition particularly the work of Aristotle and Hume By exploring and exhibiting the fruitfulness of these interactions Gendler promotes the value of engaging in such cross disciplinary conversations in illuminating philosophical issues Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1891 2003 Lectures , 2004 Cassell's illustrated Shakespeare. The plays of Shakespeare, ed. and annotated by C. and M.C. Clarke, illustr. by H.C. Selous William Shakespeare, 1864 Digital Humanities and the Lost Drama of Early Modern England Matthew Steggle, 2016-04-22 This book establishes new information about the likely content of ten lost plays from the period 1580-1642. These plays' authors include Nashe, Heywood and Dekker, and the plays themselves connect in direct ways to some of the most canonical dramas of English literature, including Hamlet, King Lear, The Changeling, and The Duchess of Malfi. The lost plays in question are Terminus (Richard the Confessor, 1593), Cutlack (1594), Bellendon (1594), Truth's Supplication to Candlelight (1600), Albere Galles (1602), Henry the Una (c. 1619), The Angel King (1624), The Duchess of Fernandina (c. 1630-42), and The Cardinal's Conspiracy (bef. 1639). From this list of bare titles, it is argued, can be reconstructed comedies, tragedies, and histories whose leading characters included a saint, a robber, a Medici duchess, an impotent king, at least one pope, and an angel. In each case, newly available digital research resources make it possible to interrogate the title and to identify the play's subject matter, analogues, and likely genre. But these concrete examples raise wider theoretical problems: What is a lost play? What can and cannot be said about objects in this problematic category? Known lost plays from the early modern commercial theatre outnumber extant plays from that theatre, but how, in practice, can one investigate them? This book offers an innovative theoretical and practical frame for such work, putting digital humanities into action in the emerging field of lost play studies.
