Tenement Immigrant Life On The Lower East Side:

Tenement Raymond Bial, 2002-08-26 Life on the Lower East Side was bustling Immigrants from many European countries had come to make a better life for themselves and their families in the United States But the wages they earned were so low that they could afford only the most basic accommodations tenements Unfortunately there were few laws protecting the residents of tenements and landlords took advantage of this by allowing the buildings to become cramped and squalid There was little the tenants could do their only other choice was the street Though most immigrants struggled in these buildings many overcame a difficult start and saw generations after them move on to better apartments homes and lives Raymond Bial reveals the first challenging step in this process as he leads us on a tour of the sights and sounds of the Lower East Side guiding us through the dark hallways staircases and rooms of the tenements Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States. Congress. House, 2004 Some vols include supplemental journals of such proceedings of the sessions as during the time they were depending were ordered to be kept secret and respecting which the injunction of secrecy was afterwards taken off by the order of the House Teaching with Text Sets Cappiello, Mary Ann, Dawes, Erika Thulin, 2017-03-01 Looking for a way to increase engagement differentiate instruction and incorporate more informational text and student writing into your curriculum Teaching with Text Sets is your answer This must have resource walks you through the steps to create and use multi genre multimodal text sets for content area and language arts study It provides detailed information to support you as you choose topics locate and evaluate texts organize texts for instruction and assess student learning This guide is an excellent resource to help you meet the College and Career Readiness and other state standards Laws Relating to the National Park Service United States, United States. National Park Service, 1995 Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2011-01-26 Now in its fourth edition this popular text offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The central assumption is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and data analysis examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts In each chapter the authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory thus providing specific examples of successful activities and placing them in a theoretical context that allows teachers to adapt and apply them in a wide variety of settings New in the Fourth Edition Expanded coverage of world history in two new chapters Integration of new technologies to support history instruction Updated classroom examples bibliographies and references The Educator's Handbook for Teaching With Primary Sources Scott M. Waring, 2023 Educators across subject areas are striving to integrate primary sources into their pedagogy and teaching Yet despite their importance to authentic disciplined inquiry the implementation of primary source activities in the pre K 12 classroom has been limited This lack of utilization can largely be attributed to the perception that these activities are too complex to design implement and grade Many teachers also feel that primary source analysis and the construction of evidence based narratives is too difficult for students to complete in the traditional classroom Waring argues that this is not the case and with this handbook provides teacher candidates and inservice teachers with detailed and specific perspectives activities approaches and resources to help them effectively and authentically use primary sources in their classrooms Book Features Introduces teaching with primary sources including detailed examples of authentic and tested instructional ideas and approaches Designed to meet the needs of classroom teachers and teacher candidates in social studies English and language arts mathematics science and other fields Offers dozens of primary sources and links to resources throughout the book Aligns to national standards frameworks and the C3 framework for social studies Can be used to meet the needs of emerging English learners and students with special needs Focuses on ways in which educators are utilizing a variety of emerging technologies to engage students in deeper and more authentic ways of learning Contributors include Peter DeCraene Lisa Fink Eric J Pyle Stefanie R Wager Sarah Westbrook and Trena L Wilkerson
