

What had you been thinking about the face studiously bloodied heaven blotted region I go on loving you like water but there is a terrible breath in the way all of this You were not elected president, yet won the race All the way through fog and drizzle When you read it was sincere the coasts stammered with unintentional villages the horse strains fatigued I guess . . . the calls . . .
I worry

the water beetle head why of course reflecting all then you redid you were breathing I thought going down to mail this of the kettle you jabbered as easily in the yard you come through but are incomparable the lovely tent mystery you don't want surrounded the real you dance in the spring there was clouds

The mulatress approached in the hall—the lettering easily visible along the edge of the Times in a moment the bell would ring but there was time for the carnation laughed here are a couple of "other" to one in yon house

The doctor and Philip had come over the road Turning in toward the corner of the wall his hat on reading it carelessly as if to tell you your fears were justified the blood shifted you know those walls wind off the earth had made him shrink undeniably an oboe now the young were there there was candy to decide the sharp edge of the garment like a particular cry not intervening called the dog "he's coming! he's coming" with an emotion felt it sink into peace

Tennis Court Oath A Of Poems:

The Tennis Court Oath ; a Book of Poems John Ashbery,1962 The Tennis Court Oath John Ashbery,1962 John Ashbery and American Poetry David Herd,2024-07-30 David Herd sets out to provide readers with a new critical language through which they can appreciate the beauty and complexity of Ashbery s writing Presenting the poet in all his forms avant garde nostalgic sublime and camp the book argues that the perpetual inventiveness of Ashbery s work has always been underpinned by the poets desire to write the poem fit to cope with its occasion Tracing Ashbery s development in the light of this idea and from its origins in the dazzling artistic environment of 1950 s New York the book evaluates his poetry against the aesthetic literary and historical backgrounds that have informed it The story of a brilliant career and a history of the period in which that career has taken shape John Ashbery and American Poetry provides a compelling account of Ashbery s importance to Twentieth Century Literature The Tennis Court Oath ,1962 Poetry, Architecture, and the New York School Mae Losasso,2023-12-20 Poetry Architecture and the New York School Something Like a Liveable Space examines the relationship between poetics and architecture in the work of the first generation New York School poets Frank O Hara John Ashbery Barbara Guest and James Schuyler Reappraising the much debated New York School label Mae Losasso shows how these writers constructed poetic spaces structures surfaces and apertures and sought to figure themselves and their readers in relation to these architextual sites In doing so Losasso reveals how the built environment shapes the poetic imagination and how in turn poetry alters the way we read and inhabit architectural space Animated by archival research and architectural photographs Poetry Architecture and the New York School marks a decisive interdisciplinary turn in New York School studies and offers new frameworks for thinking about postmodern American poetry in the twenty first century

Poetry and the Sense of Panic ,2021-09-20 For all the disciplined artifice of Elizabeth Bishop and John Ashbery the essays in this collection show that panic plays a crucial role in their work giving substance to Bishop s claim that an element of mortal panic and fear underlines all art Panic emerges as a condition of creative anxiety and the self imposed demands of originality in response to the poetic traditions Bishop and Ashbery inherited These concerns are explored in essays addressed to Bishop and Ashbery s engagement with European Surrealism as an alternative to the dominant poetics of Modernism and its aftermath in the middle years of the twentieth century Other essays debate the philosophical religious and political orientation of their work in relation to Romantic orthodoxies and Postmodern ironies in terms of cultural history ideology and poetic practice This collection provides original commentaries on the work of two poets widely regarded as amongst the most significant American poets of the second half of the twentieth century with essays by notable scholars from the United States and Britain known for their special interests in modern poetry including Joanne Feit Diehl Mark Ford Edward Larissy Peter Nicholls Peter Robinson Thomas Travisano Cheryl Walker and Geoff Ward The New York School Poets and the Neo-avant-garde Mark Silverberg,2010 In the first monograph to examine all five New York School Poets Mark Silverberg analyzes the work of John Ashbery Barbara Guest Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler in terms of the neo avant garde Silverberg examines the aesthetic concerns and ideological assumptions these poets shared with one another and with artists from the visual and performing arts A unique feature is Silverberg s annotated catalogue of collaborative works by the five poets and other artists The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen,1999 Donald Allen s prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto Its republication today complete with poems statements on poetics and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960 Jerome Rothenberg editor of Poems for the Millennium The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment Alan Golding author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry Invisible Terrain Stephen Joseph Ross,2017 Stephen J Ross examines the concept of nature in the work of John Ashbery Through close readings of Ashbery s poetry and critical prose he reveals Ashbery s work to be a case study of the dramatic transformation of nature in art and literature since World War II John Ashbery and English Poetry Ben Hickman,2012-03-07 A study of how we should read one of America s most important poets
