Tentacled Mother Piscatorially Perverse Sonnets:

A Tentacled Mother : Piscatorially Perverse Sonnets Joe Rosenblatt,1995 100 Love Sonnets Pablo Neruda,2007
Celebrating the works of a great Chilean poet this collection offers a vibrant translation of Neruda's sensual and erotic poetry. Famous for his politically engaged lyrics the Nobel Laureate also wrote bold and sexual sonnets and this compilation captures the spirit and verbal dexterity of the lesser known genre. These sonnets from one of the most influential and beloved 20th century poets accompany questions for discussion and lists of recommended readings and related websites.

Asterisks David Wevill,2007 Poems written with clarity and craftsmanship this collection contemplates what is real and observable versus what is not. The verses are like asterisks that refer to somewhere else and they strike with meditative depth and spiritual strength. Drawn from experiences in Burma, England, Spain and the United States these words depict moments in time and step back into silence. Green Marilyn Bowering,2007 Echos of Federico Garcia Lorca. Yiannis Ritsos and Rumi add exoticism to this poet's deceptively simple style. Combining confession with analytical rigor most of these poems are variations on classic themes but they are driven by the particulars of politics, love and family life. As the poems progress repeated symbols such as cars, coats, cups, rooms, bees and roses begin to hint that the poet has a secret recipe for contentment: home and hearth, travel, warm weather and a belief in human growth. The German Prisoner James Hanley,2006 Brilliant in its stark depiction of trench warfare in World War I this lost classic was privately printed in a limited edition in 1930. British censors initially suppressed the short novel because of its tough antiwar views and sympathetic portrayals of German soldiers and even today's readers may be unprepared for its scenes of horrific battlefield carnage and men driven to madness by relentless psychological stress. Providing a new view of an underappreciated Canadian author the book also stands as a fascinating addition to the comparatively small shelf of literature by writers who fought in the Great War. Ontological Necessities Priscilla Uppal,2006 Written with the verve of the uninhibited artist but with a clarity of thought and expression more akin to the scientist or scholar these poems investigate the emotional and philosophical struggles of contemporary life. Often sparked by the horrors depicted in today's news the poems combine surrealist images with spare and lyrical language to grapple with an increasingly absurd world. The most ambitious piece in the collection is a radical post 9/11 translation of the Anglo-Saxon elegy The Wanderer and other poems include Don Quixote, You Sure Can Take One Helluva Beating, Film Version of My Hatred, Never Held a Gun and The Romantic Impulse Hits the Schoolyard.

Begging Questions Seán Virgo,2006 Focusing on the universe of beauty and dreams with an intensity that delves into self-recognition these stories written over the last 15 years engage the reader with questions about our public and private lives. The stories touch on questions of identity and belief, the phantoms of memory and the oppositions of beauty to experiences. Told in a language of brilliant power these tales enable the reader with their enigmatic and dreamlike quality. Lanzmann and Other Stories Damian Tarnopolsky,2007-05 Ranging widely in subject matter from a musician's destructive narcissism to the strange effects a persistent Norwegian has on a bachelor's love life the stories in this collection also vary in style Both elegantly insightful and highly adventurous these tales are inventive deeply comic sometimes very unsettling and completely engaging That Summer in Paris Morley Callaghan, 2006 It was the fabulous summer of 1929 when the literary capital of North America moved to La Rive Gauche the Left Bank of the Seine River in Paris Ernest Hemingway was reading proofs of A Farewell to Arms and a few blocks away F Scott Fitzgerald was struggling with Tender Is the Night As his first published book rose to fame in New York Morley Callaghan arrived in Paris to share the felicities of literary life not just with his two friends Hemingway and Fitzgerald but also with fellow writers James Joyce Ford Madox Ford and Robert McAlmon Amidst these tangled relations some friendships flourished while others failed This tragic and unforgettable story comes to vivid life in Callaghan's lucid compassionate prose Midnight Stroll Janice Kulyk Keefer, Nataalka Husar, Claire Weissman Wilks, Goran Petkovsky, 2006 A unique collaboration that explores themes of love and family this collection features poems that are based on works of art placed alongside the very works that inspired them It includes paintings by Nataalka Husar drawings monotypes and lithographs by Claire Weissman Wilks and photographs by Goran Petkovsky
