Smith,1979 War and Nationalism in China: 1925-1945 Hans van de Ven,2003-09-02 In 1937 the Nationalists under Chiang Kaishek were leading the Chinese war effort against Japan and were lauded in the West for their efforts to transform China into an independent and modern nation yet this image was quickly tarnished The Nationalists were soon denounced as militarily incompetent corrupt and antidemocratic and Chiang Kaishek the same In this book van de Ven investigates the myths and truths of Nationalist resistance including issues such as the role of the US in East Asia during the Second World War the achievements of Chiang Kaishek as Nationalist leader the respective contributions of the Nationalists and the Communists to the defeat of Japan the consequences of the Europe First strategy for Asia War and Nationalism in China offers a major new interpretation of the Chinese Nationalists placing their war of resistance against Japan in the context of their prolonged efforts to establish control over their own country and providing a critical reassessment of Allied Warfare in the region This groundbreaking volume will interest students and researchers of Chinese History and Warfare Clash of the Gods of War William Westerman,Nicholas Floyd,2020-03-01 The Great War confronted Australia s fledgling field and garrison artillery forces with a seemingly insurmountable challenge to rapidly raise prepare deploy and engage in history s most lethal war to date By 1915 the Australian artillery entered into a bloody contest of learning and adaptation against resourceful and resolute opponents where the stakes would be measured in thousands of soldiers lives Far from popularly held views of the Great War as one of stalemate and stagnation Clash of the Gods of War Australian Artillery and the Firepower Lessons of the Great War reveals a dynamic and rapidly evolving battle scape as artillery planners on each side sought to combine innovative concepts technology and tactics into victory The book draws on an unparalleled array of perspectives on artillery and firepower presented by Australian and international experts and practitioners over four years during the Firepower Lessons from the Great War seminar series commemorating the Centenary of Anzac From Anzac Cove to the Hindenburg Line Clash of the Gods of War tells a gripping Australian story of the Great War through the lens of artillery the most lethal and influential arm of the war and considers the legacy that its evolutionary journey holds for warfare today The Penguin Encyclopedia of Weapons and Military Technology Kenneth Macksey,1993 Traces the history of warfare focusing on weapons and weapons systems significant battles and campaigns and influential figures The Changing Face Of Battle Bryan Perrett,2012-10-11 A fascinating study of the changing face of the art of warfare over the past 2000 years by one of today s most readable historians Mankind has always been in conflict Without war there would be no peace no stability no safety Men go to war to defend or acquire territory that they see as rightly theirs to defend or impose beliefs that they hold as fundamental truths In 2 000 years while the causes of battle have hardly changed the conduct of battle has changed and developed apace Technology advances weaponry becomes ever more powerful military thinking shifts again and again In THE CHANGING FACE OF BATTLE historian Bryan Perrett reviews that continuous process of change from AD 9 through to the Gulf War By analysis of some 30 significant battle confrontations he shows in clear detail just how advanced we now are in the art of warfare An Emotional Gauntlet Stuart J Wright,2011-04-21 Stuart J Wright tells the gripping story of a World War II American aircrew flying missions from Old Buckenham England in a B 24 Liberator bomber they nicknamed Corky This is a true account based on years of research and correspondence with crew members and their families Wright adds a dimension rarely explored in other World War II memoirs and narratives beginning the chronicle during peacetime when the men of the aircrew are introduced as civilians kids during the 1920s As they mature through the years of the Great Depression to face a world at war questions are raised about just and unjust wars imperialism and patriotism Jingoistic sentimentality is resisted in favour of objectivity as the feelings and motivations of the crew members are explored the Chinese American air gunner had hoped to serve in the U S Army Air Force to fight against the Japanese invaders of his homeland the Jewish navigator felt compelled to join the battle against Nazi Germany In recounting the harrowing conditions and horrors of bombing missions over Europe An Emotional Gauntlet emphasizes the interpersonal relationships within the crew and the spirit these men shared As pilot Jack Nortridge regularly assured his crew If you fly with me I m going to bring you home This book is a testament to their strength and determination A compelling story Wright establishes the strong spirit these men shared based on their pilot s pledge that he would bring them back back from each mission and back to resume their peacetime lives An Emotional Gauntlet stands out for its integration of pre war civilian life with wartime experiences To me this is the essence of America s story in the war and I am glad to find a book that comprehends this and tells the story from this perspective Jerome Klinkowitz author of Yanks Over Europe American Flyers in World War II International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics

Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Collision of Empires A. D. Harvey, 1993-07-01

The only previous war to match the world wars of the twentieth century in scale and impact was the French War of 1793-1815 This book is the first book to compare these conflicts which together shaped the history of the modern world A D Harvey relates the causes conduct and outcome of these wars to the fundamental nature of the societies which fought them Political decisions economic power and social attitudes interfaced with the demands of military technology to determine the outcome of each case Britain is the centre of focus but is seen against a background of the other combatants Harvey's ability to make large scale generalisations is backed up by a wealth of fascinating and carefully documented detail making this outstanding and exceptionally well written book a pleasure to read The author has tackled a huge subject and has not been afraid to face up to either its complexities or its implications By asking new questions and using a range of unfamiliar sources this book provides an unusually profound analysis not only of these wars but also of the nature of modern society and of our understanding of the past
