The Phantom World: The History and Philosophy of Spirits, Apparitions Augustine Calmet, 2017-11-08 Many people today are entranced by the idea of speaking with the dead or else immersing themselves in vampire tales and wonder. What most people don't realize is how old and revered these stories really are. Within this work Calmet attempts to show where the idea of spirits and apparitions comes from and then within the second part of the main work where the idea and history of the vampire itself comes from. This work simply is not just a history text of ancient religious beliefs but also explains the thinking and beliefs that surrounded the spirits and vampires in the day and age when Calmet wrote this work.

Magnalia Christi Americana, Or, The Ecclesiastical History of New-England Cotton Mather, 1702      Antiquities. The First Book Of The New-English History Cotton Mather, 1702      Colin Gunton's Trinitarian Theology of Culture Andrew Picard, 2024-06-27 Whilst upholding some of the criticisms of Colin Gunton's work, this incisive book argues that there is a Hauptbriefe in Gunton's reception that assumes his early classic works The One, the Three, and the Many and The Promise of Trinitarian Theology 1st ed. are definitive of his project and fail to engage adequately with the progressions in Gunton's later thought. Instead, this book offers a fresh reading of Gunton by giving greater prominence to his later writings which are centred in the mediation of the Son and the Spirit in creation. Andrew Picard argues that Gunton's trinitarian theology of culture emerges from his later trinitarian theology of mediation, creation, Christology, pneumatology, and ecclesiology. Exploring these doctrinal foci enables an understanding of Gunton's account of faithful human culture as embodied worship, a living sacrifice of praise which contributes to the divine redemption and perfection of creation. It is the church's particular calling to embody such praise through its visible life in community. The study concludes by intersecting Gunton's theology with the social sciences to critique ableism and consider the politics of the church's belonging in community.

Magnalia Christi Americana; or the Ecclesiastical History of New-England, from its first planting in the year 1620 unto the year ... 1698. In seven books Cotton MATHER (D.D., F.R.S.), 1820      The History of the World, in Five Books Walter Raleigh, 1736      The Tao of Islam Sachiko Murata, 1992-03-23 The Tao of Islam is a rich and diverse anthology of Islamic teachings on the nature of the relationships between God and the world, the world and the human being, and the human being and God. Focusing on gender symbolism, Sachiko Murata shows that Muslim authors frequently analyze the divine reality and its connections with the cosmic and human domains with a view toward a complementarity or polarity of principles that is analogous to the Chinese idea of yin yang. Murata believes that the unity of Islamic thought is found not so much in the ideas discussed as in the types of relationships that are set up among realities. She pays particular attention to the views of various figures commonly known as Sufis and philosophers since they approach these topics with a flexibility and subtlety not found in other schools of thought. She translates several hundred pages, most for the first time, from more than thirty important Muslims including the Ikhwan al Safa, Avicenna, and Ibn al Arabi.      The
