The Idea Of European Community In History Conference Prodeedings Vols 1:

Plutarch's Cities Lucia Athanassaki, Frances Titchener, 2022 Plutarch's Cities is the first comprehensive attempt to assess the significance of the polis in Plutarch's works from several perspectives namely the polis as a physical entity a lived experience and a source of inspiration the polis as a historical and sociopolitical unit the polis as a theoretical construct and paradigm to think with The book's multifocal and multi-perspectival examination of Plutarch's cities past and present real and ideal yields some remarkable corrections of his conventional image Plutarch was neither an antiquarian nor a philosopher of the desk He was not oblivious to his surroundings but had a keen interest in painting sculpture monuments and inscriptions about which he acquired impressive knowledge in order to help him understand and reconstruct the past Cult and ritual proved equally fertile for Plutarch's visual imagination Whereas historiography was the backbone of his reconstruction of the past and evaluation of the present material culture cult and ritual were also sources of inspiration to enliven past and present alike Plato's descriptions of Athenian houses and the Attic landscape were also a source of inspiration but Plutarch clearly did his own research based on autopsy and on oral and written sources Plutarch Plato's disciple and Apollo's priest was on balance a pragmatist He did not resist the temptation to contemplate the ideal city but he wrote much more about real cities as he experienced or imagined them Freedom of Speech Uladzislau

Belavusau, 2013-10-08 This book considers the issue of free speech in transitional democracies focusing on the socio-legal developments in the Czech Republic Hungary and Poland In showing how these Central and Eastern European countries have engaged with free speech models imported from the Council of Europe EU and the USA the book offers valuable insights into the ways States have responded to challenges associated with transformation from communism to Western democracy The book first explores freedom of expression in European and American law looking particularly at hate speech historical revisionism and pornography It subsequently enquires into the role and perspectives of those European mandatory and US American persuasive models for the constitutional debate in Central and Eastern Europe The study offers an original interpretation of the European model of freedom of expression beyond the mechanisms of the Council of Europe It encompasses the relevant aspects of EU law judgments of the Court of Justice and the harmonised EU instruments as mandatory standards for courts and legislators including those in transitional countries of Central and Eastern Europe The book argues for the decriminalisation of historical revisionism and pornography and illuminates topics such as genocide denial the rise of Prague and Budapest as Europe's porno capitals anti-Semitism and anti-Gypsyism religious obscurantism and homophobia virulent Islamophobia and the glorification of terrorism The research methodology in this study combines a descriptive case-law assessment comparative constitutional public international and EU law with a normative critique stemming from post-structuralist scrutiny rhetoric postmodern legal movements legal history history of ideas and art criticism This book will be of interest to students and scholars of comparative constitutional law law and society human rights and European law as well as political philosophers A Companion to Byzantium and the West, 900-1204 ,2021-12-06

The eighteen chapters of this book explore the complex history of exchange between Byzantium and the Latin West over a period of more than three hundred years with a focus on the political ecclesiastical and cultural spheres Besides outlining the history of competition and collaboration between two empires in medieval Europe a range of regional approaches stretching from England to the Crusader kingdoms offer insights into the many aspects of Byzantine Latin contact and exchange Further sections explore patterns of mutual perception linguistic and material dimensions of the contacts as well as the role played by various groups of cultural brokers such as ambassadors merchants monks and Jewish communities Contributors are Axel Bayer Saskia D nitz Nicolas Drocourt Leonie Exarchos Daniel F ller Christian Gastgeber Hans Werner Goetz Dominik Heher Klaus Herbers Christopher Hobbs David Jacoby Sebastian Kolditz Savvas Neocleous Johannes Pahlitzsch Annick Peters Custot Miriam Salzmann Jonathan Shepard Juan Signes Codo er and Eleni Tounta EU Anti-Discrimination Law Beyond Gender Uladzislau Belavusau,Kristin Henrard,2018-11-15 The EU has slowly but surely developed a solid body of equality law that prohibits different facets of discrimination While the Union had initially developed anti discrimination norms that served only the commercial rationale of the common market focusing on nationality of a Member State and gender as protected grounds the Treaty of Amsterdam 1997 supplied five additional prohibited grounds of discrimination to the EU legislative palette in line with a much broader egalitarian rationale In 2000 two EU Equality Directives followed one focusing on race and ethnic origin the other covering the remaining four grounds introduced by the Treaty of Amsterdam namely religion sexual orientation disabilities and age Eighteen years after the adoption of the watershed Equality Directives it seems timely to dedicate a book to their limits and prospects to look at the progress made and to revisit the rise of EU anti discrimination law beyond gender This volume sets out to capture the striking developments and shortcomings that have taken place in the interpretation of relevant EU secondary law Firstly the book unfolds an up to date systematic reappraisal of the five newer grounds of discrimination which have so far received mostly fragmented coverage Secondly and more generally the volume captures how and to what extent the Equality Directives have enabled or at times prevented the Court of Justice of the European Union from developing even broader and more refined anti discrimination jurisprudence Thus the book offers a glimpse into the past present and it is hoped future of EU anti discrimination law as despite all the flaws in the Union s Garden of Earthly Delights it offers one of the highest standards of protection in comparative anti discrimination law

Donati Graeci Federica Ciccolella, 2008 The starting point generally acknowledged for the revival of Greek studies in the West is 1397 when the Byzantine Manuel Chrysoloras began to teach Greek in Florence With his Erotemata Chrysoloras gave Westerners a tool to learn Greek the search for the ideal Greek textbook however continued even after the publication of the best Byzantine humanist grammars The four Greek Donati edited in this book Latinate Greek grammars based on the Latin schoolbook entitled Ianua or Donatus belong to the many pedagogical experiments documented in manuscripts They attest to a tradition of Greek studies that probably originated in Venice and or Crete a tradition certainly inferior to the Florentine scholarship in quality and circulation but still important in the cultural history of the Renaissance
