Mathias Sajovitz

The Ideology Of Racism:

The Ideology of Racism Samuel Kennedy Yeboah, 1988 A comprehensive and well researched study which highlights the contributions made by peoples of African descent to the treasure house of global civilisation whilst critically examining the attempts to conceal and undermine these works Now in its second edition The Ideology of Religious Studies Timothy Fitzgerald, 2003-10-16 In recent years there has been an intensifying debate within the religious studies community about the validity of religion as an analytical category In this book Fitzgerald sides with those who argue that the concept of religion itself should be abandoned On the basis of his own research in India and Japan and through a detailed analysis of the use of religion in a wide range of scholarly texts the author maintains that the comparative study of religion is really a form of liberal ecumenical theology By pretending to be a science religion significantly distorts socio cultural analysis He suggests however that religious studies can be re represented in a way which opens up new and productive theoretical connections with anthropology and cultural and literary studies Race and Racism in the United States Charles A.

Gallagher, Cameron D. Lippard, 2014-06-24 How is race defined and perceived in America today and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago This four volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States In the 21st century it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past in reality old wounds have yet to heal and new forms of racism are taking shape Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation in spite of the words all men are created equal within the Declaration of Independence This set is the largest and most complete of its kind covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user friendly format that allows easy cross referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds relevant examples from primary documents and first hand accounts Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research

The Ideological Foundations of Qing Taxation Taisu Zhang, 2023-02-09 How states develop the capacity to tax is a question of fundamental importance to political science legal theory economics sociology and history Increasingly scholars believe that China's relative economic decline in the 18th and 19th centuries was related to its weak fiscal institutions and limited revenue This book argues that this fiscal weakness was fundamentally ideological in nature Belief systems created through a confluence of traditional political ethics and the trauma of dynastic change imposed unusually deep and powerful constraints on fiscal policymaking and institutions throughout the final 250 years of China's imperial history Through the Qing example this book combs through several interaction dynamics between state institutions and ideologies The latter shapes the former but the former can also significantly reinforce the political durability of the latter In addition to its historical analysis of ideological politics this book makes a major contribution to the longstanding debate on Sino European divergence The Encyclopedia of Peace Psychology, 2011-12-12 The Encyclopedia of Peace Psychology available online through Wiley Online Library or as a three volume print set is a state of the art resource featuring almost 300 entries contributed by leading international scholars that examine the psychological dimensions of peace and conflict studies First reference work to focus exclusively on psychological analyses and perspectives on peace and conflict Cross disciplinary linking psychology to other social science disciplines Includes nearly 300 entries written and edited by leading scholars in the field from around the world Examines key concepts theories methods issues and practices that are defining this growing field in the 21st century Includes timely topics such as genocide hate crimes torture terrorism racism child abuse and more A valuable reference for psychologists and scholars students and practitioners in peace and conflict studies An ALA 2013 Outstanding Reference Source The Ideological Origins of Nazi Imperialism Woodruff D. Smith, 1986

The author argues that the imperialist ideology and policies adopted by the Nazis must be seen as the result of a complex evolution of imperialist thinking in Germany which had its roots in the nineteenth century The African Diaspora in the Austrian Political Economy: A Marxist Analysis Mathias Sajovitz, 2008-10-12 More than 25 000 people of African descent are living in Austria one of the richest political economies in the world that is part and parcel of one of the strongest neo imperialist blocks in the form of the European Union Migration of Africans to Austria thus must be seen in the context of global capitalism which has harmfully impacted on the global South by means of neo imperialism and thus has led to migration to the global North Byreferring to Marxist theory more particularly world systems theory and Marxist migration theory the book at hand examines the African Diasporain Austria from a twofold perspective First it illustrates the role of Austria in the global economy after World War II and during the emergence of global turbo capitalism Second the narrative illustrates how people deprived of their livelihoods on the African continent become subjects of exploitation and discrimination in Austria via the asylum route Understanding Bonhoeffer Peter Frick, 2017-05-23 How are we to understand Bonhoeffer In these essays Peter Frick attempts to answer this question by examining different aspects of Bonhoeffer s thought thus illuminating the hermeneutical philosophical theological and social dimensions of his writings All sixteen essays collected here were written between 2007 and 2014 some of them address the question of methodology others contribute to Bonhoeffer s intellectual formation and still others seek to connect with contemporary questions The aim of the volume is to present Bonhoeffer s key theological and philosophical ideas and to emphasize their contemporary relevance

Marx and Other Four-Letter Words Georgina Blakeley, Valerie Bryson, 2005-04-20 Karl Marx s classic definitions of class and society under capitalism are still widely used today Ideas such as class revolution production and oppression are employed across a broad range of academic subjects reaching beyond politics economics and sociology Yet these concepts within a specifically Marxist framework are not always easy to understand This book is an ideal student introduction that explains in clear and concise chapters the precise meaning and implications of each of Marx's key concepts Furthermore the contributors show how these ideas continue to be relevant and how they relate to modern society The contributors include leading academics in the field of political science Outlining clearly what each concept means they move on to situate it within cutting edge contemporary political theory Concepts include historical materialism capitalism class the state imperialism the division of labour oppression production and reproduction revolution working class internationalism equality and democracy

Philosophy Reborn Part II: Social Humanities Shawn Alli, Looking at social problems through the intellect will never lead to viable solutions Do you think that racism is unconscious or subliminal Do you think that the feminist movement is helping to end sexism Do you think that today's Christians live genuine lives Do you think that private media is better than state media Do you think that keeping violent prisoners alive is the right thing to do If you answered yes to any of these questions then you're in for a rude awakening Can we end racism Can we end sexism How do we rehabilitate prisoners What does the institution of marriage mean Can academic philosophy play a meaningful role Can private media outlets keep their integrity You'll find the answers to all of these questions in Part II
