The Image And The Word Confrontations In Judaism Christianity And Islam:

The Image and the Word Joseph Gutmann, 1977 Seven studies of iconoclasm Between the Image and the Word Trevor Hart, 2016-04-15 The central contention of Christian faith is that in the incarnation the eternal Word or Logos of God himself has taken flesh so becoming for us the image of the invisible God Our humanity itself is lived out in a constant toing and froing between materiality and immateriality Imagination language and literature each have a vital part to play in brokering this hypostatic union of matter and meaning within the human creature Approaching different aspects of two distinct movements between the image and the word in the incarnation and in the dynamics of human existence itself Trevor Hart presents a clearer understanding of each and explores the juxtapositions with the other Hart concludes that within the Trinitarian economy of creation and redemption these two occasions of flesh taking are inseparable and indivisible The Medieval Haggadah Marc Michael Epstein, 2011-06-07 Discusses four illuminated haggadot manuscripts created for use at home services on Passover all created in the early twelfth century Eusebius, Christianity and Judaism Gohei Hata, Harold W. Attridge, 2022-10-04 Eusebius of Caesarea lived at a crucial turning point in the history of the Christian church He was an important witness to the polemical and apologetic attitudes that characterized much early Christian literature The most voluminous writer of the early fourth century he was also the first comprehensive historian of his community seeking a philosophy to explain the whole course of history from the beginning to his own time This volume places Eusebius work in proper perspective The contributors all recognized specialists in early Christianity shed light on the person and circumstances of Eusebius himself This collection of essays focuses on elements of the story that Eusebius tells the story of the early church its relationship to Judaism or its confrontation with the Roman Empire and explores gaps left by Eusebius The writers offer a cross section of current scholarly methods in the study of early Christianity and Judaism The Controversy of Renaissance Art Alexander Nagel, 2011-09 Sansovino successively dismantled and reconstituted the categories of art making Hardly capable of sustaining a program of reform the experimental art of this period was succeeded by a new era of cultural codification in the second half of the sixteenth century Christianity, Art and Transformation John W. de Gruchy, 2001-01-29 Christianity Art and Transformation explores the historical and contemporary relationship between the arts and Christianity with reference to the transformation of society Several major themes are discussed among them the power of images the relationship between aesthetics and ethics the nature of beauty and its redemptive capacity aesthetic existence and Christian discipleship and the role of art in the public square and in the life of the Church The book is a contribution to the study of theological aesthetics from both an ecumenical and Reformed perspective global in its scope yet rooted in the author's South African context The Visual Dimension Clare Moore, 2019-07-11 This book looks at art historical explorations matters of archival legitimacy the survival of fakes and forgeries and many other aspects of Jewish art It commemorates the life and work of Isaiah Shachar through the medium of papers given at the first international conference on Jewish art Bones, Stones, and Buddhist Monks Gregory Schopen, 2021-05-25 The present volume provides an essential foundation for a social history of Indian Buddhist monasticism Challenging the popular stereotype that represented the accumulation of merit as the domain of the layperson while monks concerned themselves with more sophisticated realms of doctrine and meditation Professor Schopen problematizes many assumptions about the lay monastic distinction by demonstrating that monks and nuns both the scholastic elites and the less learned participated actively in a wide range of ritual practices and institutions that have heretofore been judged popular from the accumulation and transfer of merit to the care of deceased relatives to serving as sponsors and donors rather than always the recipients of gifts to possibly the coining of counterfeit currency Taken together the studies contained in this volume represent the basis for a new historiography of Buddhism not only for their critique of many the id es re ues of Buddhist Studies but for the compelling connections they draw between apparently disparate details Synagogues of Europe Carol Herselle Krinsky, 1996-01-01 Superbly illustrated views from antiquity to modern times accompany concise profiles of synagogues across the continent including Cracow s Old Synagogue the Great Synagogue of Vilnius and Vienna s Tempelgasse 253 illustrations Estudios masoréticos Emilia Fernández Tejero, 1983
