

The Imaginary Industry

The Imaginary Industry Australian Film In The Late 80s:

The Imaginary Industry Susan Dermody, Elizabeth Jacka, 1988-01-01 Contemporary Australian cinema Jonathan Rayner, 2017-06-01 Provides an introduction to the products and context of the new Australian film industry which arose toward the end of the 1960s Traces the development of Australian film in terms of prominent directors and stars consistent themes styles and evolving genres The evolution of the film genres peculiar to Australia and the adaptation of conventional Hollywood forms such as the musical and the road movie are examined in detail through textual readings of landmark films Films and trends discussed include the period film and Picnic at Hanging Rock the Gothic film and the Mad Max trilogy camp and kitsch comedy and the Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert The key issue of the revival the definition representation and propagation of a national image is woven through analysis of the new Australian cinema Australian Cinema in the 1990s Ian Craven, 2012-10-12 This study is a collection of critical and scholarly analyses of the organisation of the Australian Film Industry since 1990 Particular emphasis is put on globalisation authorship national narrative and film aesthetics

The Films of Peter Weir Jonathan Rayner, 2006-09-01 This fully revised and updated edition of Jonathan Rayner's acclaimed study takes an in depth look at the career of a filmmaker who has over the course of 30 years put together a substantial and much loved body of work The Road Movie Book Steven Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2002-01-04 The Road Movie Book is the first comprehensive study of an enduring but ever changing Hollywood genre its place in American culture and its legacy to world cinema The road and the cinema both flourished in the twentieth century as technological advances brought motion pictures to a mass audience and the mass produced automobile opened up the road to the ordinary American When Jean Baudrillard equated modern American culture with space speed cinema technology he could just as easily have added that the road movie is its supreme emblem The contributors explore how the road movie has confronted and represented issues of nationhood sexuality gender class and race They map the generic terrain of the road movie trace its evolution on American television as well as on the big screen from the 1930s through the 1980s and finally consider road movies that go off the road departing from the US landscape or travelling on the margins of contemporary American culture Movies discussed include Road classics such as It Happened One Night The Grapes of Wrath The Wizard of Oz and the Bob Hope Bing Crosby Road to films 1960's reworkings of the road movie in Easy Rider and Bonnie and Clyde Russ Meyer's road movies from Motorpsycho to Faster Pussycat Kill Kill Contemporary hits such as Paris Texas Rain Man Natural Born Killers and Thelma and Louise The road movie Australian style from Mad Max to the Adventures of Priscilla Queen of the Desert

The Australian Film Revival Susan Barber, 2023-01-26 The Australian Film Revival 70s 80s and Beyond explores the matrix of forces artistic cultural economic political governmental and ideological that gave rise to shaped and sustained this remarkable film movement This engaging new study brings fresh perspectives insights and innovative approaches to a variety of films from a diversity of filmmakers Areas of focus include the complex and contentious subjects of masculinity femininity and feminism the maternal as well as the Indigenous road film and the protean Australian gothic During the formative years of the revival Australian films seemed to emerge from out of the blue in terms of global film history with many features including Picnic at Hanging Rock 1975 Caddie 1976 The Last Wave 1977 The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith 1978 and My Brilliant Career 1979 receiving international distribution and enthusiastic critical acclaim with strong box office results By the time the film revival was in full swing not only did Australian audiences flock to theaters to see homegrown films but the quantity of Australian films on overseas screens was so high that ardent critics declared this outpouring an Australian New Wave The eyes of the world had turned to a compelling and largely unknown culture Disabling

Diversity Katie Ellis, 2008 Cultural Policy Toby Miller, George Yudice, 2002-11-19 Hitherto cultural theory and empirical work on culture have outstripped cultural policy This book rectifies the peculiar imbalance in the field of Cultural Studies by offering the first comprehensive and international work on cultural policy Fully alive to the challenges posed by globalization it addresses a wide range of central topics including cinema television museums international organizations art public history drama and performance art The result is a landmark work in the emerging field of cultural policy Rigorous in its field of survey and astute in its critical commentary it enables students to gain a global grounding in cultural policy It will be essential reading for students of cultural studies and cultural sociology Nation, Culture, Text Graeme Turner, 2002-09-10 Nation Culture Text Australian Cultural and Media Studies is the first collection of cultural studies from Australia selected and introduced for an international readership Participating in the de centring of cultural studies considering what perspectives other than the European and the American have to offer the contributors raise important issues about the role of a national tradition of critical theory and about the cultural specificity of theory itself A key theme is the place of the postcolonial nation within contemporary cultural theory particularly those aspects of contemporary theory which see the category of contemporary theory which see the category of the nation as either outdated or suspect The writers tackle subjects ranging from the televising of the Bicentennial to the role of policy in film television and the heritage industry from the use of video technologies with remote Aboriginal communities to the role of ethnography in cultural studies

Australian Cultural Studies John Frow, Meaghan Morris, 1993 Cultural studies has emerged as a major force in the analysis of cultural systems and their relation to social power Rather than being interested in television or architecture or pinball machines themselves as industrial or aesthetic structures cultural studies tends to be interested in the way such apparatuses work as points of concentration of social meaning as media literally according to John Frow and Meaghan Morris Here two of Australia's leading cultural critics bring together work that represents a distinctive national tradition moving between high theory and detailed readings of localized cultural practices Ethnographic audience research cultural policy studies popular consumption bad aboriginal art landscape in feature films style form and history in TV miniseries and the intersections of tourism with history and memory these are among the topics addressed in a landmark volume that cuts across myriad traditional disciplines
