Growing Up with the Impressionists Julie Manet, 2017-08-24 Julie Manet the niece of Edouard Manet and the daughter of the most famous female Impressionist artist Berthe Morisot was born in Paris on 14 November 1878 into a wealthy and cultured milieu at the height of the Impressionist era Many young girls still confide their inner thoughts to diaries and it is hardly surprising that with her mother giving all her encouragement Julie would prove to be no exception to the rule At the age of ten Julie began writing her memoirs but it wasn't until August 1893 at fourteen that Julie began her diary in earnest no neat leather bound volume with lock and key but just untidy notes scribbled in old exercise books often in pencil the presentation as spontaneous as its contents Her extraordinary diary newly translated here by an expert on Impressionism reveals a vivid depiction of a vital period in France's cultural history seen through the youthful and precocious eyes of the youngest member of what was surely the most prominent artistic family of the time

The Impressionists Handbook Robert Katz, Dars Celestine, 1999 The two authors who are both knowledgeable writers with extensive background in the study of art and art history write engagingly about the history of impressionism and the life and works of Pissarro Manet Degas Monet Renoir and Sisley At 7x8.5 the book is compact but the format is large enough to accommodate decent reproductions of many of the paintings under consideration This is a thoughtfully prepared well written treatment of the subject with none of the ponderousness that handbook might imply It was originally published
