The Inner Adventure Conversations With Louis Calaferte:

The Inner Adventure Louis Calaferte, Jean-Pierre Pauty, 2003 Calaferte had recently been awarded the Grand Prix National des Lettres when he sat down with Jean Pierre Pauty a friend and movie director to discuss his life and work and the intimate intertwining of the two The Inner Adventure brings these interviews to an English speaking audience for the first time revealing the creative process and philosophies of a celebrated writer one whose work often challenged others because of his brutal honesty and his claim that only experience can be the basis of creativity thought and knowledge Calaferte addresses Good and Evil the oppressive nature of institutions prayer sex and spiritual birth He confirms his belief in the sacred but also his dedication to searching within himself rather than in the dogmas of established churches claiming true faith is a battle inside our selves an examination of our consciences
