The Lawmen Of Cherryville:

The Lawmen of Cherryville Anthony Longo, 2005-06-17 A strange and puzzling incident regarded as a high school prank presents an unusual dilemma for Mayor Barnes and the small restful town of Cherryville One morning the town awakens to find that their address numbers are mysteriously missing Every single one of them gone taken from private homes shops boutiques city buildings and industrial complexes and for no apparent reason Normally this kind of theft would be handled by the local law agency Sheriff Sam and Deputy Basil However at a Town Hall Meeting a meeting called to sooth the nerves of a rattled community Sheriff Sam becomes extremely frustrated over a number of things the Mayor s pettiness over jurisdictional responsibilities and the constant carping of the town hall people Sam resigns his post as does his trusted Deputy Basil Enter Max and Andy two high school students on summer break who offer their services to a very reluctant Mayor Given the opportunity the two eager temporary lawmen soon discover that the house number theft was not a mere prank but the prelude to a more sinister and complex case one involving a fifty year old gem theft infidelity deceit and an apparent murder Their odyssey begins when they investigate the strange and eerie noises emanating from a house referred to by the local community as haunted The house was abandoned and then totally neglected after the old eccentric owner was apparently kidnapped and never heard from again However once inside the house Max and Andy are startled when they hear creaking sounds coming from a room directly above them There are no footprints or smudge marks on the dusty floor below so Max asks the obvious How did they get up there Despite Max s fear which was bordering on panic Andy s stubborn curiosity convinces Max to pursue their dangerous voyage up the stairs to the second floor And although they pay dearly for their journey they do come away with a few pieces to an ever widening puzzle The puzzle which was eventually pieced together by the young sleuths established why the address plaques were stolen They also uncovered a murder made to look like suicide and developed an insight into a fifty year old jewel theft and the mystery of the haunted house
