The Monumental Argyro Loukaki,2025-03-14 The Monumental is an interdisciplinary collection of original cutting edge contributions by international researchers pursuing the epistemology and ontology of monuments over time and geography The contributors are specialists in geography architectural theory and history prehistoric Greek and Roman archaeology modern art Byzantine studies landscape theory and heritage reception Against the global climate of flux and uncertainty in the present turbulent world the durability of monuments as urban permanences emerges as one of the few remaining spatial and mental anchorages As such it is needed maintained enhanced imitated landscaped and even invented In particular the monumental a spatial and aesthetic phenomenon of perpetual importance has recently acquired major new meanings It now emerges as a key political spatial aesthetic symbolic architectural and archaeological manifestation or entity open to constantly new even contradictory forms and expressions This collection addresses the urgent need for relevant research on the monumental It breaks new ground by posing fresh questions on the ontology temporality purpose politics scale place contestations and aesthetics of and around the monumental from prehistoric time to the present as well as in both Eastern and Western geographies. Monuments are explored as bearers of the urban majestic extraordinary and sublime. The Monumental poses questions about changing perceptions, the evocative power of representation, identity construction, ideology and symbolism, the vital necessity for a communicative and active public space around monuments, imitation processes across geographical space time as well as the powers that construct, deconstruct or identify the monumental but also the anti-monumental as such. Geographies of reference are the European space, the United States and Asia. Wide-ranging theorizations alternate with in-depth analyses of paradigmatic cases. Conventional as well as alternative forms of the monumental in the present shifting world are also pursued. The Monumental is of great value and interest to scholars, students and professionals in the fields of architectural theory, history and design, archaeology, art theory and history, Byzantine studies, restoration, urban design and planning, human urban and cultural geography, cultural studies, social anthropology, Asian studies as well as those in wider subdisciplines.

Mark Rothko, Works on Paper Bonnie Clearwater, Mark Rothko, 1984. Mark Rothko, a monumental figure in twentieth-century American art and a founder of Abstract Expressionism, is universally known for his huge paintings depicting floating rectangles of glowing colors. Less well known are his works on paper; he held onto most of these and they were unavailable and largely unknown during his lifetime and during the long years of litigation that followed his death. Now the finest of them can at last be seen. Mark Rothko Works on Paper presents the intimate legacy of a giant of modern art. As author Bonnie Clearwater writes: "With the symmetry, tidy execution and minimal gesture, the small works on paper often seem to be more quintessential Rothko than many of his canvases. They should be appreciated for their subtlety, their directness and what they disclose about the artist's aesthetic."

AUTHOR Bonnie Clearwater is the former curator of the Mark Rothko Foundation. Dore Ashton is a noted art historian and critic. SELLING POINTS Includes 86 drawings and sketches reproduced in full color dating from the late 1920s through 1969. Two gatefolds, nearly three feet wide, make it possible to view studies of Rothko's work; many of them reproduced in their actual sizes. 98 colour, 26 b/w illustrations.

Agnes Martin: Her Life and Art Nancy Princenthal, 2015-06-16. The first biography of visionary artist Agnes Martin, one of the most original and influential painters of the postwar period. Over the course of a career that spanned fifty years, Agnes Martin's austere, serene work anticipated and helped to define Minimalism, even as she battled psychological crises and carved out a solitary existence in the American Southwest. Martin identified with the Abstract Expressionists but her commitment to linear geometry caused her to be associated in turn with Minimalist, feminist and even outsider artists. She moved through some of the liveliest art communities of her time while maintaining a legendary reserve. "I paint with my back to the world," she says both at the beginning and at the conclusion of a documentary filmed when she was in her late eighties. When she died at ninety-two in Taos, New Mexico, it is said she had not read a newspaper in half a century. No substantial critical monograph exists on this acclaimed artist, the recipient of two career retrospectives as well as the National Medal of the Arts who was championed by critics as diverse in their approaches as Lucy Lippard Lawrence Alloway and Rosalind Krauss Furthermore no attempt has been made to describe her extraordinary life The whole engrossing story told here for the first time Agnes Martin is essential reading for anyone interested in abstract art or the history of women artists in America Arts TV John Albert Walker,1993 From Monitor to The Late Show British television programs featuring the visual arts are profiled here The various types or genres of arts programs are identified including review programs strand series drama documentaries and artists profiles and a chronological account of their evolution from 1936 to the 1990s is provided Major series such as Civilization Ways of Seeing Shock of the New State of the Art and Relative Values are examined in detail Beyond Nola Terrington Calas,Steve Bachmann,2002-08 Essays by Calas and Bachmann which originally appeared in the New Orleans Art Review on the theme of art and artists from outside the New Orleans area Mark Rothko's Harvard Murals Mark Rothko,1988 The strange story of Harvard s Rothko murals has become part of the legend of contemporary art Staff at Harvard Art Museums Center for Conservation and Technical Research oversaw repairs and remounting of these large yet fragil works in preparation for a major exhibition at the Arthur M Sackler Museum in August 1988 They were removed from the dining room of Harvard s Holyoke Center where they had hung since 1963 a gift from the artist suffering from tears stains graffiti and severe color shifts from exposure to sunlight and instability in the artist s materials Harvard University Art Museums Film Noir Reader 2 Alain Silver,James Ursini,1999 In the wake of the remarkable success of Film Noir Reader this new collection further explores a genre of limitless fascination and one that continues to inspire and galvanise the latest generation of film makers Again heavily illustrated with close to 150 stills Film Noir Reader 2 is organised much like the earlier volume
