Morning Exercises for All the Year Joseph Charles Sindelar, 1914 This book aims at a systematic and orderly presentation of the morning or opening exercise in the elementary school The teaching of morals can usually be accomplished more effectively through an indirect method rather than by set lessons or formal teaching Character is largely a matter of habit with a daily emphasis on right attitude and right conduct When the birthdays of famous poets statesmen national heroes or national events occur the memory of their virtues naturally determines the topic of a lesson Through concrete examples presented in story and verse children learn to appreciate nobility of character and deed thus arousing their admiration and aspiration It is better to allow children to make their own inferences than to force the moral upon them
