The Life and Times of Augustus Rapp, the Small Town Showman Augustus Rapp,1991 The Life and Times of Augustus Rapp Augustus Rapp,1959 The Chautauqua Moment Andrew Chamberlin Rieser,2003-11-05 This book traces the rise and decline of what Theodore Roosevelt once called the most American thing in America The Chautauqua movement began in 1874 on the shores of Chautauqua Lake in western New York More than a college or a summer resort or a religious assembly it was a composite of all of these completely derivative yet brilliantly innovative For five decades Chautauqua dominated adult education and reached millions with its summer assemblies reading clubs and traveling circuits Scholars have long struggled to make sense of Chautauqua s pervasive yet disorganized presence in American life In this critical study Andrew Rieser weaves the threads of Chautauqua into a single story and places it at the vital center of fin de si cle cultural and political history Famous for its commitment to democracy women s rights and social justice Chautauqua was nonetheless blind to issues of class and race How could something that trumpeted democracy be so undemocratic in practice The answer Rieser argues lies in the historical experience of the white Protestant middle classes who struggled to reconcile their parochial interests with radically new ideas about social progress and the state The Chautauqua Moment brings color to a colorless demographic and spins a fascinating tale of modern liberalism s ambivalent but enduring cultural legacy Punch and Judy in 19th Century America Ryan Howard,2014-01-02 The hand puppet play starring the characters Punch and Judy was introduced from England and became extremely popular in the United States in the 1800s This book details information on nearly 350 American Punch players It explores the significance of the 19th century American show as a reflection of the attitudes and conditions of its time and place The century was a time of changing feelings about what it means to be human There was an intensified awareness of the racial cultural social and economical diversity of the human species and a corresponding concern for the experience of human oneness The American Punch and Judy show was one of the manifestations of these conditions Disappearing Tricks Matthew Solomon,2010 An anti spiritualist medium stage magic and the beginnings of cinema The death of magic presentational performance and early film Behind the curtain M li s at the Th tre Robert Houdin Up to date magic theatrical conjuring and the trick film Houdini s actuality magic escaping the ghost house with moving pictures Lost in transition sensational fiction and the limits of narrative integration Epilogue Catalog of Copyright Entries. Copyright Office,1961 Includes Part 1 Number 1 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January December Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association,1969 Theatre History Studies ,1998 The Films of Tod Browning Bernd Herzogenrath,2006 Known as the Edgar Allan Poe of cinema Tod Browning is the dark master of filmmaking However despite the commercial success he enjoyed during his lifetime he has never received the critical acclaim his work deserves The Films of Tod Browning at last pays tribute to his cinematic legacy With contributors including Vivian Sobchack

Bernd Herzogenrath and Nicole Brenez The Films of Tod Browning covers subjects including images of disability the body as spectacle the transition from silent to talkie films and theatrical illusion in Browning s films as well as analysing films such as Dracula Mark of the Vampire and the often overlooked Iron Man in detail An essential for film buffs and academics alike
