The Life And Work Of Jean Leon Gerome With A Catalogue Raisonne:

The Life and Work of Jean-Léon Gérôme Gerald M. Ackerman, 1986 Catalogue raisonné The Pygmalion Effect Victor I. Stoichita, 2008-06-15 Pygmalion's sculpture which the gods endowed with life marks according to this book perhaps the first instance in Western art of an image that exists on its own terms rather than simply imitating something else Stoichita delivers this image and its avatars from the shadow cast by art that merely replicates reality Masterpieces of European Painting, 1800-1920, in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kathryn Calley Galitz, 2007 Debussy and His World Jane F. Fulcher, 2001 Claude Debussy's Paris was factionalised politicised and litigious This text aims to capture the complexity of the composer's restless personal and artistic identity within the context of fin de siècle Paris Ovid on Screen Martin M. Winkler, 2020-01-30 The first study of Ovid especially his Metamorphoses as inherently visual literature explaining his pervasive importance in our visual media Landscape and Vision in Nineteenth-Century Britain and France Michael Charlesworth, 2017-07-05 A study of the ways landscape was perceived in nineteenth century Britain and France this book draws on evidence from poetry landscape gardens spectacular public entertainments novels and scientific works as well as paintings in order to develop its basic premise that landscape and the processes of perceiving it cannot be separated Vision embraces panoramic seeing from high places but also the seeing of ghosts and spectres when madness and hallucination impinge upon landscape The rise of geology and the spread of empires upset the existing comfortable orders of comprehension of landscape Reverie and imagination produced powerful interpretive actions while landscape in French culture proved central to the rejection of conservative classicism in favour of perceptual questioning of experience The experience of subjectivity proved central to the perception of landscape while the visual culture of landscape became of paramount importance to modernity during the period in question

Portraits by Ingres Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres, National Gallery (Great Britain), 1999 Om portrætter af den franske maler Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres 1780-1867 Colour in Sculpture Hannelore Hägele, 2013-09-11 This book introduces the reader to the art of sculpture across five millennia up to the present and from the Near East to the west In each of the eleven chapters a number of selected works are discussed to exemplify the circumstances and conditions for making pieces of sculpture objects peculiar to place time and context Within each cultural framework characteristics are observable that suggest various reasons for the use of colour in sculpture These encompass local preferences customs or cultural requirements and others point to an impulse to enhance the expression of the phenomenal Whether colour is really necessary or even essential to sculpted works of art is a question especially pertinent since the Renaissance Surface finishes of sculptural representations may allude to the sensory world of colour without even having pigment applied to them What makes polychromy so special is that it functions as an overlay of another dimension that sometimes carries further encoded meaning In nature the colour is integral to the given object What the present survey suggests is that the relationship between colour and sculpture is a matter of intentional expression even where the colour is intrinsic as in the sculptor's materials

The New York Market for French Art in the Gilded Age, 1867-1893 Leanne M. Zalewski, 2022-12-15 This transatlantic study analyses a missing chapter in the history of art collecting the first art market bubble in the United States In the decades following the Civil War French art monopolized art collections across the United States During this Gilded Age picture rush the commercial art system art dealers galleries auction houses exhibitions museums art journals press coverage art histories and collection catalogues established a strong foothold it has not relinquished to this day In addition a pervasive concern for improving aesthetics and providing the best contemporary art to educate the masses led to the formation not only of private art collections but also of institutions such as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and to the publication of art histories Richly informed by collectors and art dealers diaries letters stock books journals and hitherto neglected art histories The New York Market for French Art in the Gilded Age 1867 1893 offers a fresh perspective on this trailblazing era

Ovid's Poetics of Illusion Philip R. Hardie, 2002-02-07 Ovid's poetry is haunted obsessively by a sense both of the living fullness of the texts and of the emptiness of these insubstantial pageants This major study touches on the whole of Ovid's output from the Amores to the exile poetry and is an overarching treatment of illusionism and the textual conjuring of presence in the corpus Modern critical and theoretical approaches accompanied by close readings of individual passages examine the topic from the points of view of poetics and rhetoric aesthetics the psychology of desire philosophy religion and politics There are also case studies of the reception of Ovid's poetics of illusion in Renaissance and modern literature and art The book will interest students and scholars of Latin and later European literatures All foreign languages are accompanied by translations

Imagining Arab Womanhood A. Jarmakani, 2008-03-31 A fascinating demonstration of how U S representations of veils harems and belly dancers have operated as nostalgic and exotic symbols to help rationalize dominant U S narratives about power and progress

Oscar Wilde's Elegant Republic David Charles Rose, 2016-01-14 Why was Paris so popular as a place of both innovation and exile in the late nineteenth century Using French English and American sources this first volume of a trilogy provides a possible answer with a detailed exploration of both the city and its communities who forming a varied cast of colourful characters from duchesses to telephonists artists to beggars and dancers to diplomats crowd the stage Through the throng moves Oscar Wilde as the connecting thread Wilde exploratory Wilde triumphant Wilde ruined This use of Wilde as a central figure provides both a cultural history of Paris and a view of how he assimilated himself there By interweaving fictional representations of Paris and Parisians with historical narrative Paris of the imagination is blended with the topography of the city described by Victor Hugo as this great phantom composed of darkness and light This original treatment of the belle poque is couched in language accessible to all who wish to explore Paris on foot or from an armchair

European Painting and Sculpture, Ca. 1770-1937, in the Museum of Art, Rhode Island School of Design Rhode Island School of Design. Museum of Art, 1991 This documents the distinguished collection of

European art from the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries that forms a significant part of the collections belonging to the Museum of Art Rhode Island School of Design This book includes stunning canvases by Gericault Delacroix Degas Manet Monet Cezanne Renoir Picasso and Matisse What makes the collection so noteworthy are the extraordinary works by unknown artists and the unknown works by known artists

Italy in Early American Cinema Giorgio Bertellini, 2010 Giorgio Bertellini traces the origins of American cinema's century long fascination with Italy and Italian immigrants to the popularity of the pre photographic aesthetic the picturesque Once associated with landscape painting in northern Europe the picturesque came to symbolize Mediterranean Europe through comforting views of distant landscapes and exotic characters Taking its cue from a picturesque stage backdrop from The Godfather Part II Italy in Early American Cinema shows how this aesthetic was transferred from 19th century American painters to early 20th century American filmmakers Italy in Early American Cinema offers readings of early films that pay close attention to how landscape representations that were related to narrative settings and filmmaking locations conveyed distinct ideas about racial difference and national destiny

Banning Islamic Books in Australia Richard Pennell, Pam Pryde, Emmett Stinson, 2011-06-15 In 2005 the Australian Federal Police referred eight Islamic books to the Australian Classification Board The goal was to secure a ban of the books all of which were alleged to advocate terrorist acts After nearly a year of review and intense public debate two of the books were refused classification and effectively banned in a move that would have severe repercussions for librarians scholars authors and the state of free speech in Australia Banning Islamic Books in Australia examines the cultural and political contexts that led up to the ban and the content of the books themselves in an attempt to determine what it was that made them seem so dangerous It also documents the unintended consequences of the ban on library collections and academic freedom and how this in turn affects free speech in contemporary Australia Islamic Studies Series Volume 9

"Painting and Narrative in France, from Poussin to Gauguin " Nina Leen, 2017-07-05 Before Modernism narrative painting was one of the most acclaimed and challenging modes of picture making in Western art yet by the early twentieth century storytelling had all but disappeared from ambitious art France was a key player in both the dramatic rise and the controversial demise of narrative art This is the first book to analyse French painting in relation to narrative from Poussin in the early seventeenth to Gauguin in the late nineteenth century Thirteen original essays shed light on key moments and aspects of narrative and French painting through the study of artists such as Nicolas Poussin Charles Le Brun Jacques Louis David Paul Delaroche Gustave Moreau and Paul Gauguin Using a range of theoretical perspectives the authors study key issues such as temporality theatricality word and image relations the narrative function of inanimate objects the role played by viewers and the ways in which visual narrative has been bound up with history painting The book offers a fresh look at familiar material as well as studying some little known works of art and reveals the centrality and complexity of narrative in French painting over the course of three centuries Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century Rafael Cardoso Denis, Colin Trodd, 2000 Throughout the nineteenth century academies functioned as the main venues for the teaching promotion and display of art Contemporary scholars have for the most part denigrated academic art calling it formulaic unoriginal and repetitious The contributors to Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century challenge this entrenched notion and consider how academies worldwide have represented an important system of artistic preservation and transmission Their essays eschew easy binaries that have reigned in academia for more than half a century and that simply oppose the avant garde to academicism Jean-Léon Gérôme Gerald M. Ackermann, 1997 Jean Leon G r me has become a popular artist Progressively more young people are showing interest in his work and collectors worldwide are hunting down pieces of ever increasing value Lost works are appearing on the market and galleries are showcasing all they own This volume is a condensed presentation of his monographs together with a catalogue raisonné It comprises a complete overview of G r me s life and long career Art of Native America Gaylord Torrence, Ned Blackhawk, Sylvia Yount, 2018-10-01 This landmark publication reevaluates historical Native American art as a crucial but under examined component of American art history The Charles and Valerie Diker Collection a transformative promised gift to The Metropolitan Museum of Art includes masterworks from more than fifty cultures across North America The works highlighted in this volume span centuries from before contact with European settlers to the early twentieth century In this beautifully illustrated volume featuring all new photography the innovative visions of known and unknown makers are presented in a wide variety of forms from painting sculpture and drawing to regalia ceramics and baskets The book provides key insights into the art culture and daily life of culturally distinct Indigenous peoples along with critical and popular perceptions over time revealing that to engage Native art is to reconsider the very meaning of America
