The Lincoln Story The Postwar Years:

The Lincoln Story Thomas E. Bonsall, 2004 Lincoln's heritage is as rich as that of any car built anywhere in the world and more impressive than all but a few Generations of Americans have known it as the Car of Presidents since the days of Franklin Roosevelt the White House has exhibited a marked preference for Lincolns This comprehensive illustrated history describes in detail the successes and failures of the Lincoln from World War II up to the present day Aviator It discusses the forces in the market and in Ford Motor Company that have affected the Lincoln and is a must read for anyone interested in this classic marque The Long Reconstruction Frank J. Wetta, Martin A. Novelli, 2013-09-11 A century and a half after the Civil War Americans are still dealing with the legacies of the conflict and Reconstruction including the many myths and legends spawned by these events The Long Reconstruction The Post Civil War South in History Film and Memory brings together history and popular culture to explore how the events of this era have been remembered Looking at popular cinema across the last hundred years The Long Reconstruction uncovers central themes in the history of Reconstruction including violence and terrorism the experiences of African Americans and those of women and children the Lost Cause ideology and the economic reconstruction of the American South Analyzing influential films such as The Birth of a Nation and Gone with the Wind as well as more recent efforts such as Cold Mountain and Lincoln the authors show how the myths surrounding Reconstruction have impacted American culture This engaging book is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of Reconstruction historical memory and popular culture The Register of the Kentucky Historical Society, 2004 The ^ALincoln Enigma Gabor Boritt, 2001-02-08 In The Lincoln Enigma Gabor Boritt invites renowned Lincoln scholars and rising new voices to take a look at much debated aspects of Lincoln's life including his possible gay relationships his plan to send blacks back to Africa and his high handed treatment of the Constitution Boritt explores Lincoln's proposals that looked to a lily white America Jean Baker marvels at Lincoln's loves and marriage David Herbert Donald compares Lincoln and Jefferson Davis as Commanders in Chief Douglas Wilson shows us the young Lincoln not the strong leader of popular history but a man who struggles to find his purpose Gerald Prokopowicz searches for the military leader William C Harris for the peacemaker and Robert Bruce meditates on Lincoln and death In a final section Boritt and Harold Holzer offer a fascinating portfolio of Lincoln images in modern art Acute and thought provoking in their observations this all star cast of historians including two Pulitzer and three Lincoln Prize winners questions our assumptions of Lincoln and provides a new vitality to our ongoing reflections on his life and legacy Hinsonville, a Community at the Crossroads Marianne H. Russo, Paul Anthony Russo, 2005 Seeking to reconstruct the early community of Hinsonville from fragmentary archival materials and oral interviews Paul Russo together with his students at Lincoln University gradually unearthed information on Hinsonville's residents and their lives Marianne Russo has taken her late husband's extensive research and placed it in the context of nineteenth century African American history Jacket Lincoln's Smile and Other Enigmas Alan Trachtenberg, 2008-01-22 A new assemblage of masterly essays from a foremost scholar of American history and culture Alan Trachtenberg has always been interested in cultural artifacts that register meanings and feelings that Americans share even when they disagree about them Some of the most beloved ones like the famous last photograph of Abraham Lincoln taken at the time of his second inaugural are downright puzzling and it is their obscure riddlelike aspects that draw his attention in the scintillating essays of Lincoln's Smile and Other Enigmas With matchless authority Trachtenberg moves from the daguerreotypes that entranced Americans from the start and that Hawthorne made much of in The House of Seven Gables to literary texts of which he is a peerless interpreter Howell's novels Horatio Alger's stories Huckleberry Finn the cityscapes of Walt Whitman and Stephen Crane In his exploration of the ways that nineteenth and early twentieth century writers tried to make sense of the modern American city he also addresses subjects as diverse as Louis Sullivan's Auditorium Building the Brooklyn Bridge and the early works of Lewis Mumford The celebrated author of Reading American Photographs concludes his important new book with readings not only of the photographs of Walker Evans Wright Morris and Eugene Smith but of the city images of film noir

The Organization of American Historians and the Writing and Teaching of American History Richard S. Kirkendall, 2011-04-01 The field of American history has undergone remarkable expansion in the past century all of it reflecting a broadening of the historical enterprise and democratization of its coverage Today the shape of the field takes into account the interests identities and narratives of more Americans than at any time in its past Much of this change can be seen through the history of the Organization of American Historians which as its mission states promotes excellence in the scholarship teaching and presentation of American history and encourages wide discussion of historical questions and equitable treatment of all practitioners of history This century long history of the Organization of American Historians and its predecessor the Mississippi Valley Historical Association explores the thinking and writing by professional historians on the history of the United States It looks at the organization itself its founding and dynamic growth the changing composition of its membership and leadership the emphasis over the years on teaching and public history and pedagogical approaches and critical interpretations as played out in association publications annual conferences and advocacy efforts The majority of the book emphasizes the writing of the American story by offering a panorama of the fields of history and their development moving from long established ones such as political history and diplomatic history to more recent ones including environmental history and the history of sexuality
