Singing Away the Hunger Mpho 'M'atsepo Nthunya, 1997-10-22 this gem of a book deserves a wide audience. Appropriate for African and women's studies courses and a must for college and university libraries. Choice Mpho relates the story of her life with an integrity that makes for utterly compelling reading. The fortitude of this woman now in her late 60s is a lesson to us all. The Bookseller United Kingdom This is a fascinating autobiography. KLIATT a powerful autobiography of a Lesotho elder who tells her life as an African woman in South Africa. The focus on black culture and concerns as much as racism allows for an unusual depth of understanding of black concerns and lifestyles in Africa. Reviewer's Bookwatch An African woman's poignant and beautifully crafted memoir lyrically portrays the brutal poverty and reliance on ritual that shape the lives of her people the Basotho. A commanding and important work that will captivate readers with its unique voice narrative power and unforgettable scenes of life in Southern Africa. Kirkus Reviews a stunning autobiography of a remarkable woman. Nthunya's telling is eloquent. Although her voice is generally one of dignified emotional distance it is punctuated by her very human humor and pain. Publishers Weekly recommended for collections in African folklore. Library Journal I am telling my stories in English for many months now and it is a time for me to see my whole life. I see that things are always changing. I was born in 1930 so I remember many things which were happening in the old days in Lesotho and which happen no more. I lived in Benoni Location for more than ten years and I saw the Boer policemen taking black people and beating them like dogs. They even took me once and kept me in one of their jails for a while. Mpho M'atsepo Nthunya A compelling and unique autobiography by an African woman with little formal education less privilege and almost no experience of books or writing. Mpho's is a voice almost never heard in literature or history a voice from within the struggle of ordinary African women to negotiate a world which incorporates ancient pastoral ways and the congestion brutality and racist violence of city life. It is also the voice of a born storyteller who has a subject worthy of her gifts a story for all the world to hear. Deniable Contact Niall Ó Dochartaigh, 2021 Full length study of the use of back channels in repeated efforts to end the Troubles. This book provides a textured account that extends our understanding of the distinctive dynamics of negotiations conducted in secret and the conditions conducive to the negotiated settlement of conflict. It disrupts and challenges some conventional notions about the conflict in Northern Ireland offering a fresh analysis of the political dynamics and the intra party struggles that sustained violent conflict and prevented settlement for so long. It draws on theories of negotiation and mediation to understand why efforts to end the conflict through back channel negotiations repeatedly failed before finally succeeding in the 1990s. It challenges the view that the conflict persisted because of irreconcilable political ideologies and argues that the parties to conflict were much more open to compromise than the often intransigent public rhetoric suggested. The analysis is founded on a rich store of historical evidence including the private papers of key Irish Republican leaders and British politicians recently released papers from national archives in Dublin and London and the papers of Brendan Duddy the intermediary who acted as the primary contact between the IRA and the British government for two decades including papers that have not yet been made publicly available This documentary evidence combined with original interviews with politicians mediators civil servants and Republicans allows a vivid picture to emerge of the complex maneuvering at this intersection

Yemen: Fragile lives in hungry times Ashley Clements, 2011 Widespread hunger and chronic malnutrition have taken hold in Yemen A protracted political stalemate over much of the past six months has left the government in paralysis prompting a fuel crisis that has brought the economy to the verge of collapse A recent study by Oxfam found many communities to be on the brink of disaster In other parts of the country the United Nations has found that some vulnerable communities are now facing critical levels of malnutrition Donors remain deeply divided over their approaches to the region's poorest country thus delaying responses and hindering funding Hundreds of millions of dollars in assistance have been suspended As the crisis builds however inaction is no longer an option Interventions that address both immediate humanitarian needs and longer term structural concerns must be urgently scaled up

The Hunger Habit Judson Brewer, MD, PhD, 2024-01-30 A program proven to heal our relationship with food and our bodies from New York Times bestselling author of Unwinding Anxiety Sometimes it feels as if there are as many ways to struggle with food as there are foods to eat Craving habit emotions boredom stress anxiety or just the simple fact that a box of donuts seems to be omnipresent in the break room free food can lead to feeling out of control around food While anxiety feels like something that happens to us the pull of food seems like something we should be able to handle After all we have to eat But it's not that simple The result of this constant struggle and then giving in or giving up is a toxic cocktail of shame and self judgment that makes it feel like it is impossible to change our behavior The Hunger Habit is based on Judson Brewer's deeply researched plan proven to help us understand what is going on in our brains so that we can heal the guilt and frustration we experience around eating This is not a diet book pretending not to be a diet book The step by step program focuses on training our brains to tap into awareness to change our relationship with food and eating shifting it from fighting with ourselves to befriending our minds and bodies There is no willpower calorie counting or restricted eating Setbacks are a good thing The key is to learn how to work with our brains rather than resisting our impulses and to adopt an attitude of self kindness rather than self judgment Grounded in cutting edge neuroscience and Brewer's several decades of clinical practice as a psychiatrist The Hunger Habit is both accessible and compassionate It will finally help you break out of food jail and reclaim your life
