The Imaginary Reminiscences Of Sir Max Beerbohm:

The Imaginary Reminiscences of Sir Max Beerbohm Ira Grushow, 1984 The Imaginary Reminiscences of Sir Max Beerbohm Ira Grushow, 1984 Aestheticism and Sexual Parody 1840-1940 Dennis Denisoff, 2006-03-16 This original and provocative 2001 study discusses the work of a number of authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in order to argue that mainstream society was enabled to accept the non normative sexuality of the Aesthetic Movement chiefly through parody and self parody Highlighting Victorian popular culture Aestheticism and Sexual Parody adds an important dimension to the theorisations of parody as a combative strategy by which sexually marginalized groups undermine the status quo From W S Gilbert s drama and Vernon Lee and Christopher Isherwood s prose to George du Maurier s cartoons and Max Beerbohm s caricatures Dennis Denisoff explores the parodies interactions with the personae and texts of canonical authors such as Alfred Tennyson Walter Pater Algernon Swinburne and Oscar Wilde In doing so he considers the impact that these interactions had on modern ideas of gender sexuality taste and politics Facing the Late Victorians Margaret Diane Stetz, 2007 It examines too the portrait as a marker both of celebrity and of modernity in an age that ushered in the present by defining itself through advertising public relations and commodification BOOK JACKET Remembering Max Beerbohm Jacobus Gerhardus Riewald, 1991 Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies Self Impression Max Saunders, 2010-04-22 I am aware that once my pen intervenes I can make whatever I like out of what I was Paul Val ry Moi Modernism is often characterized as a movement of impersonality a rejection of auto biography But most of the major works of European modernism and postmodernism engage in very profound and central ways with questions about life writing Max Saunders explores the ways in which modern writers from the 1870s to the 1930s experimented with forms of life writing biography autobiography memoir diary journal increasingly for the purposes of fiction He identifies a wave of new hybrid forms from the late nineteenth century and uses the term autobiografiction discovered in a surprisingly early essay of 1906 to provide a fresh perspective on turn of the century literature and to propose a radically new literary history of Modernism Saunders offers a taxonomy of the extraordinary variety of experiments with life writing demonstrating how they arose in the nineteenth century as the pressures of secularization and psychological theory disturbed the categories of biography and autobiography in works by authors such as Pater Ruskin Proust Mark Rutherford George Gissing and A C Benson He goes on to look at writers experimenting further with autobiografiction as Impressionism turns into Modernism juxtaposing detailed and vivacious readings of key Modernist texts by Joyce Stein Pound and Woolf with explorations of the work of other authors including H G Wells Henry James Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford and Wyndham Lewis whose experiments with life writing forms are no less striking The book concludes with a consideration of the afterlife of these fascinating experiments in the postmodern literature of Nabokov Lessing and Byatt Self Impression sheds light on a number of significant but under theorized issues the meanings of autobiographical the generic implications of literary autobiography and the intriguing relation between autobiography and fiction in the period
