The Inland Ladies:

Flynn of the Inland Ion Idriess, 2018-10-01 The extraordinary story of a classic Australian Pioneer told by Australia's Boswell of the Bush Ion L Idriess Almost single handedly John Flynn of the Australian Inland Mission brought to the outback the Flying Doctor Service and the Bush Hospitals His magnificent vision formed as he travelled on the back of a camel across the vast space of Australia's outback took a lifetime of courageous commitment to bring to reality It is impossible to read this book and remain untouched by the greatness of John Flynn's inspiration Morning Post London Ion L Idriess celebrated Australia's exuberant history in over 50 books written in an easy conversational style that has made him lastingly popular In stories such as Flynn of the Inland Back O Cairns and Lasseter's Last Ride Idriess brings to life the wild beauty of the outback and the many colourful characters who people it The Ladies' Companion, and Monthly Magazine Webb

Loudon, 1852 The Ladies' Companion, 1852 The Honourable Ladies: Volume I Iain Dale, Jacqui Smith, 2018-09-04 FOREWORD BY PRIME MINISTER THERESA MAY When Constance Markievicz stood for election as MP for Dublin St Patrick's in 1918 few people believed she could win the seat yet she did A breakthrough in the bitter struggle for female enfranchisement had come earlier that year followed by a second landmark piece of legislation allowing women to be elected to Parliament and Markievicz duly became the first female MP A member of Sinn Féin she refused to take her seat She did however pave the way for future generations and only eleven months later Nancy Astor entered the Commons A century on from that historic event 491 women have now passed through the hallowed doors of Parliament Each one of these pioneers has fought tenaciously to introduce enduring reform and in doing so has helped revolutionise Britain's political landscape ensuring that women's contributions are not consigned to the history books Containing profiles of every woman MP from 1918 to 1996 and with female contributors from Mary Beard to Caroline Lucas Ruth Davidson to Yvette Cooper and Margaret Beckett to Ann Widdecombe The Honourable Ladies is an indispensable and illuminating testament to the stories and achievements of these remarkable women Women Workers And Technological Change In Europe In The Nineteenth And twentieth century Gertjan De Groot, Marlou Schrover, 2005-08-05 From the traditional stereotyped viewpoint femininity and technology clash This negative association between women and technology is one of the features of the sex typing of jobs Men are seen as technically competent and creative women are seen as incompetent suited only to work with machines that have been made and maintained by men Men identify themselves with technology and technology is identified with masculinity The relationship between technology technological change and women's work is however very complex Through studies examining technological change and the sexual division of labour this book traces the origins of the segregation between women's work and men's work and sheds light on the complicated relationship between work and technology Drawing on research from a number of European countries England Sweden Denmark and the Netherlands international contributors present detailed studies on women's work spanning two centuries The chapters deal with a variety of work environments office work textiles and pottery food production civil service and cotton and wool industries This work rejects the idea that women were mainly employed as unskilled labour in the industrial revolutions asserting that skill was required from the women but that both the historical record about women s work and the social construction of the concept of skill have denied this The Missionary Review of the World ,1883 the ladies treasury , Raising More Hell and Fewer Dahlias Autumn Stanley,2009 This book is the first biography of nineteenth century magazine editor and reformer Charlotte Smith Based on years of research and previously untapped sources it shows both why she should be remembered and why she was forgotten Her story is quintessentially American this daughter of Irish immigrants despite having only a grade school education and supporting two children alone became a force to be reckoned with first in journalism and then in reform Her first periodical the Inland Monthly was doubly rare edited by a woman but not a women s magazine and a profitable venture bringing a large sum when sold Ladies in the Laboratory III Mary R. S. Creese,Thomas M. Creese,2010-02-08 Published in 1998 Ladies in the Laboratory provided a systematic survey and comparison of the work of 19th century American and British women in scientific research A companion volume published in 2004 focused on women scientists from Western Europe In this third volume author Mary R S Creese expands her scope to include the contributions of 19th and early 20th century women of South Africa Australia New Zealand and Canada The women whose lives and work are discussed here range from natural history collectors and scientific illustrators of the early and mid years of the 19th century to the first generation of graduates of the new colonial colleges and universities Rarely acknowledged in publications of the British and European specialists the contributions of these women nonetheless formed a significant part of the natural history information about extensive previously unknown regions and their products Rather than a biographical dictionary or a collection of self contained essays on individuals from many time periods Ladies in the Laboratory III is a connected narrative tied into the wider framework of 19th century science and education A well organized blend of individual life stories and quantitative information this volume is for everyone interested in the story of women s participation in 19th century science The stories of these women make for fascinating reading and serve as a valuable source for the student of women s and colonial history Ladies for Liberty John Blundell,2011 In this 2nd Edition John Blundell gives a lively portrait of more than 25 American women who spoke out for liberty helping to shape the political and social fabric of the United States His subjects range from frontier novelists to suffragists to the inventor of life insurance for women and a tax collector who challenged the IRS Arranged chronologically the stories add up to a history of America Responses to the first edition were so positive that the author has added five more of the best stories in US Women s History namely Anne Hutchinson Clara Barton Alice Paul Rosa Parks and Mildred Loving Ladies for Liberty combats the myth that women want and benefit from big government In this new expanded edition of biographies of American women John Blundell shares further evidence that the spirit of independence has always been a strong impetus for America s leading ladies He shows that the underlying motivation of the women portrayed in these pages was self determination as a virtue and the conviction that individuals should be allowed to pursue their own ends free from the coercion of others His selection focuses on women of Conservative Libertarian views whether they were active in politics business owners writers or other cultural figures Black as well as white these women were revolutionary some directly influencing the colonial breakaway from great Britain some fighting for Abolition others breaking new ground professionally Each one not only made women s voices heard but made it clear that women have something to say that is both valid and valuable This book is intended for American and British readers alike high school and above and all who are interested in American history Conservative Libertarian politics or Women s Studies
