The Intellectual Hero Victor Brombert, 1964 The Intellectual Hero Victor H. Brombert, 1961 The Intellectual Hero Victor H. Brombert, 2003-01-01 The Intellectual as Hero in 1990s Ukrainian Fiction Mark Andryczyk, 2012-03-13 The 1990s were a period of tremendous artistic vigour experimentation and liberation for Ukrainian culture The artists who emerged at this time unleashed a tidal wave of creativity that deliberately and aggressively reshaped inherited models In this first English monograph on contemporary Ukrainian literature Mark Andryczyk provides an in depth analysis of the cultural explosion that engulfed Ukraine in its first decade of independence The Intellectual as Hero in 1990s Ukrainian Fiction weaves a fascinating narrative full of colourful characters by examining the prose of today's leading writers Andryczyk delves into the role of the intellectual in forging a post Soviet Ukrainian identity and follows these protagonists as they soar and stumble in pursuit of redefining their creative realm In addition to introducing readers to vibrant literary gems this book explores the artistic tendencies that determined the course of the Ukrainian cultural scene in the 1990s and continue to shape it today The Intellectual Species John Rodden, 2022-01-17 This book explores the prospects for survival of what we have come to know as the intellectual in the post Gutenberg age It addresses the contemporary history of this species spawned in the print age meditating on the precarious future of international intellectual life in the digital era of nanosecond soundbites fake news smart phones and clicks and scrolls in lieu of reading The book ponders these issues as it addresses the examples of a diverse group of British American French and German intellectuals of the post World War II era These case histories showcase concretely the state of the culture in the context of particular lives offering diverse intellectual portraiture featuring a wide range of writers across the ideological spectrum The key family resemblance of these figures is that most of them are contrarians regardless of whether they were freelance writers or academic intellectuals American or British or European and chiefly imaginative writers or non fiction writers and scholars Among the intellectuals discussed are George Orwell Dwight Macdonald Irving Howe Camille Paglia Albert Camus Robert Havemann and others Regardless of which intellectual domains occupied their energies the histories of all of them yield insight into the transformation of cultural life in recent decades and the contrasting challenges faced by intellectuals of earlier eras versus our own These issues are of paramount significance for all those who care about the life of the mind and the future of homo sapiens The Intellectual Hero Victor H. Brombert, 1962 The Russian Hero in Modern Chinese Fiction Mau-sang Ng, 1988-08-04 The Russian influence took root in the Chinese intellectual tradition that evolved after the Literary Revolution of 1917 When the Chinese communists turned to Russia for their inspiration they also accepted the Russian version of the novel's form and function in society However they did not accept it uncritically Chinese understanding of the arts goes back for thousands of years and thus Chinese intellectuals brought their own kinds of tradition and intelligence to these new arts and political solutions In this lucid study the author demonstrates how Chinese writers guided by Russian authors such as Chekhov Turgenev and Andreyev created works of art that are both original and Chinese. However, he also shows that the familiar heroes of such famous novelists as Lu Xun, Yu Dafu, Mao Dun, and Ba Jin have a strong Russian flavor linked to prototypes in the Russian literary tradition. The author depicts the fortune of Soviet literature and the fate of the intellectual hero in the People's Republic of China. He believes that the humanistic May Fourth intellectual tradition, which inspired enthusiasm for classical Russian literature, has been revived with the publication of works like Dai Houying's Man ah Man and Zhao Zhenkai's Waves.

French Intellectual Nobility Niilo Kauppi, 1996-11-26. French thinkers like Roland Barthes, Pierre Bourdieu, A.J. Greimas, Michel Foucault, and Claude Lévi-Strauss created the structuralist and poststructuralist movements. They succeeded Sartrean existentialism and formed a new aristocracy of culture. French Intellectual Nobility is the first study to examine the conditions for the creation of these movements. Through case studies in cultural history, sociology, semiology, and literature, the book discusses the processes that enabled the French intellectual nobility to reinvent itself. By developing a historical and comparative approach, Kauppi analyzes the challenges that an intellectual generation faced and he contributes to a context-sensitive analysis of culture and power.
