The Latchkey Kid Helen Forrester, 1985 The Latchkey Kid Helen Forrester, 1996 The Latchkey Kid Sepha De Leeuw, 2015-03-19 Hello I am Ovelia What a terrible name I think At first I didn't want to tell anyone my story It's quite private you know But then I realized that there are more children who like me are often alone and my story might prove helpful to them Sepha de Leeuw has published adult novels short stories and a biography The press has praised her original style and empathy The Latchkey Kid is her first children's book With this book she again proves her unique talent for writing This time she imagines the thoughts of a young headstrong girl The Handbook for Latchkey Children and Their Parents Lynette Long, Thomas J. Long, 1983 A guide offering parents and their children solutions for reducing problems and anxieties LATCHKEY KID MIKE. HUGHES, 2022 Latchkey Child Lynette Long, Thomas Long, 1983-08 The Latchkey Kid Brenda Alexis, Brenda Blake, 2019-05-07 My biography as a child I was filled with negative thoughts and emotions growing up on a council estate parents both working full time when I overheard an adult conversation that would impact my future spending time confused depressed and looking for answers my life became a search of looking for what was wrong with me I started to look at my thoughts and emotions to feel better Then an illness gave me time alone where I focused on what went on inside my head and feelings After continuing this exploration I started to discover things and had some dreams that came true the next day This change me I continued this way of exploring until a man Tony Crisp came into my life who taught me the value of my dreams and so much more I have led an interesting life I hope you find it interesting
