A Revised Consent Model for the Transplantation of Face and Upper Limbs: Covenant Consent James L.

Benedict, 2017-04-25 This book supports the emerging field of vascularized composite allotransplantation VCA for face and upper limb transplants by providing a revised ethically appropriate consent model which takes into account what is actually required of facial and upper extremity transplant recipients In place of consent as permission giving waiver or autonomous authorization the standard approaches this book imagines consent as an ongoing mutual commitment i e as covenant consent The covenant consent model highlights the need for a durable personal relationship between the patient subject and the care provider researcher Such a relationship is crucial given the recovery period of 5 years or more for VCA recipients The case for covenant consent is made by first examining the field of vascularized composite allotransplantation the history and present understandings of consent in health care and the history and use of the covenant concept from its origins through its applications to health care ethics today This book explains how standard approaches to consent are inadequate in light of the particular features of facial and upper limb transplantation In contrast use of the covenant concept creates a consent model that is more appropriate ethically for these very complex surgeries and long term recoveries Scripture and Ethics

Past Imperatives Louis E. Newman, 2012-02-01 Past Imperatives explores the nature and development of Jewish ethics by analyzing three important sets of issues the relationship between Jewish law and ethics the relationship between Jewish ethics and theology and the problems and prospects for constructing a contemporary Jewish ethic The penetrating and provocative essays are drawn from a number of fields including legal theory literary theory and theory of religion These studies illuminate many previously uninvestigated aspects of Jewish biomedical ethics covenant theology and textual interpretation in Judaism By exploring these issues within the larger context of historical and theoretical work in religious studies Past Imperatives moves beyond previous work in Jewish ethics which has largely sought to offer moral guidance from a Jewish perspective This volume boldly confronts the fact that Judaism encompasses many sometimes contradictory ethical perspectives and investigates their theological underpinnings how they have developed and how they differ from other moral and or religious perspectives

The Liberating Bond Wolfgang Roth, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Elizabeth L. McWhorter, 1978-06-01

"The Woman Will Overcome the Warrior" Nicholas John Ansell, 1994 This book is an analysis of and response to the feminist theology of Rosemary Radford Ruether It covers her theological methodology by focusing on her approach to tradition experience and normativity It also discusses her analysis of the origin nature and development of patriarchy and her approach to key topics in systematic theology such as anthropology evil mariology ecclesiology Christology nature eschatology and God The unifying focus of this wide ranging study is the relationship between Ruether's feminist and Christian commitments The author's ideas on what it means to develop a feminist theology in a distinctively Christian way and a Christian theology in a distinctively feminist way are worked out in the same areas of systematic philosophical and biblical theology in which Ruether's thought is analyzed Co published with the Institute for Christian Studies
