The Life And Times Of Christmas Calvert Assassin:

The Life and Times of Christmas Calvert-- Assassin John Wainwright,1996 It wasn't so much that Christmas Calvert liked killing people he was just very good at it A crack shot he also possessed an unnatural ability to distance himself from his actions shut off all emotion when vanishing his targets His exceptional shooting skills soon brought him to the attention of Colonel Dansey and when an RAF doctor classified Calvert as remarkably amoral Dansey was left in no doubt that he had found a new recruit for The Button Squad An elite team of highly trained killers The Squad were all RAF personnel but answered only to Dansey and his second in command Sergeant Pollard In the early years of World War II when Calvert joined their ranks the murkier realms of military intelligence occasionally had reason to call upon Dansey's team for a little discreet murdering and Calvert soon distinguished himself as one of the most reliable vanishers But murder soon takes its toll even for a natural killer like Calvert Now over fifty years later Calvert is an old man and weary with the ways of the world A man who's seen too much death too much deception
