Penders, 1974 Examines Sukarno's social and cultural background his educational career and achievements and his political development Discusses in detail Sukarno's rise to prominence in the nationalist movement his ideas failures and successes and his often controversial activities during the traumatic period of the Japanese occupation and the Indonesian revolution Illustrated Indonesia Taufik Abdullah, 2009 This book traces the beginning of the process of nation formation the struggle for independence the hopeful beginning of the new nation state of Indonesia only to be followed by hard and difficult ways to remain true to the ideals of independence In the process Indonesia with its sprawling archipelago and its multi ethnic and multi religious nation has to undergo various types of crisis and internal conflicts but the ideals that have been nurtured since the beginning when a new nation began to be visualized remain intact Some changes in the interpretation may have taken place and some deviations here and there can be noticed but the literal meaning of the ideals continues to be the guiding light In short this is a history of a nation in the continuing effort to retain the ideals of its existence Patriots and Tyrants Ross Marlay, Clark D. Moose,Alison Aves,1999-11 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual s life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual s place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Authoritarian Modernization in Indonesia's Early Independence Period Farabi Fakihi,2020-09-07 In Authoritarian Modernization in Indonesia s Early Independence Period Farabi Fakihi offers a historical analysis of the foundational years leading to Indonesia s New Order state 1966 1998 during the early independence period The study looks into the structural and ideological state formation during the so called Liberal Democracy 1950 1957 and Sukarno s Guided Democracy 1957 1965 In particular it analyses how the international technical aid network and the dominant managerialist ideology of the period legitimized a new managerial elite The book discusses the development of managerial education in the civil and military sectors in Indonesia The study gives a strongly backed argument that Sukarno s constitutional reform during the Guided Democracy period inadvertently provided a strong managerial blueprint for the New Order developmentalist state Sukarno John David Legge,2003 Sukarno was one of the great charismatic leaders of the post war world To some he was the architect of his nation to others a flamboyant and extravagant dictator Who's Who in Modern History Alan Palmer,2019-05-07 Who s Who in Modern History is a unique reference book which examines those individuals who have shaped the political world since 1860 Coverage is truly global including the most important figures in Europe Asia North America Latin America Africa and Australasia It provides an easy to use A Z layout authoritative detailed biographies of the most important figures since 1860 from Clemenceau and Chief Buthelezi to King Fahd and Benazir Bhutto bibliographical references for each entry to aid further research extensive cross referencing an essential guide for students researchers and the general reader alike The Life and Times of Sukarno Sunil Kumar Sen Gupta,1975 King of the Mountain Arnold M. Ludwig,2002-01-01 People may choose to ignore their animal heritage by interpreting their behavior as divinely inspired socially purposeful or even self serving all of which they attribute to being human but they masticate fornicate and procreate much as chimps and apes do so they should have little cause to get upset if they learn that they act like other primates when they politically agitate debate abdicate placate and administrate too from the book King of the Mountain presents the startling findings of Arnold M Ludwig s eighteen year investigation into why people want to rule The answer may seem obvious power privilege and perks but any adequate answer also needs to explain why so many rulers cling to power even when they are miserable trust nobody feel besieged and face almost certain death Ludwig's results suggest that leaders of nations tend to act remarkably like monkeys and apes in the way they come to power govern and rule Profiling every ruler of a recognized country in the twentieth century over 1 900 people in all Ludwig establishes how rulers came to power how they lost power the dangers they faced and the odds of their being assassinated committing suicide or dying a natural death Then concentrating on a smaller sub set of 377 rulers for whom more extensive personal information was available he compares six different kinds of leaders examining their characteristics their childhoods and their mental stability or instability to identify the main predictors of later political success Ludwig's penetrating observations though presented in a lighthearted and entertaining way offer important insight into why humans have engaged in war throughout recorded history as well as suggesting how they might live together in peace

China and the Shaping of Indonesia, 1949-1965 Hong Liu, 2011 The interactions and mutual perceptions of China and Indonesia were a significant element in Asia's postcolonial transformation but as a result of prevailing emphasis on diplomatic and political relations within a Cold War and nation state framework their multi dimensional interrelationship and its complex domestic ramifications have escaped scholarly scrutiny China and the Shaping of Indonesia provides a meticulous account of versatile interplay between knowledge power ethnicity and diplomacy in the context of Sino Indonesian interactions between 1949 and 1965 Taking a transnational approach that views Asia as a flexible geographical and political construct this book addresses three central questions First what images of China were prevalent in Indonesia and how were narratives about China construed and reconstructed Second why did the China Metaphor the projection of an imagined foreign land onto the local intellectual and political milieu become central to Indonesians' conception of themselves and a cause for self criticism and rediscovery Third how was the China Metaphor incorporated into Indonesia's domestic politics and culture and how did it affect the postcolonial transformation the fate of the ethnic Chinese minority and Sino Indonesian diplomacy Employing a wide range of hitherto untapped primary materials in Indonesian and Chinese as well as his own interviews Hong Liu presents a compelling argument that many influential politicians and intellectuals among them Sukarno Hatta and Pramoedya utilized China as an alternative model of modernity in conceiving and developing projects of social engineering cultural regeneration and political restructuring that helped shape the trajectory of modern Indonesia The multiplicity of China thus constituted a site of political contestations and intellectual imaginations The study is a major contribution both to the intellectual and political history of Indonesia and to the reconceptualization of Asian studies it also serves as a timely reminder of the importance of historicizing China s rising soft power in a transnational Asia

Growing with the Grain Patricia A. Emison, 2005 Sukarno L.J. Giebels, 2015-08-01

Sukarno a biography is the first English language biography on Sukarno 1901 1970 the founding father and first president of Indonesia The book is both a biography of Sukarno and an account of the birth and ascent of the state of Indonesia The author reveals many little known facts and events He makes the reader realize that to understand the character of its first president is to understand today s Indonesia Sukarno was born in 1901 as the son of a schoolteacher in a country that had been a Dutch colony for almost three centuries For most of his life he was a subject of The Netherlands at least formally Although he never set foot in The Netherlands towards the end of his life he could still recite the names of all the Frisian waterways or all the train stations between major Dutch towns Sukarno once confessed that he dreamt prayed and swore in Dutch But he loathed the colonizer As soon as he became the president he banned the speaking of Dutch His charisma oratorical talent intelligence and ruthlessness eventually allowed this former architecture student to become the leader of the nationalist movement known as Indonesia Merdeka which means Indonesia Independent Although it took another four bloody years until the Dutch would accept Indonesia s independence for Indonesians today Merdeka became a reality after August 17 1945 But the departure of the Dutch in the 1950s didn t mean that president Sukarno was suddenly without enemies At least four attempts were made on his life between 1957 and 1962 The Indonesian president was convinced that the CIA saw him as a communist threat and was behind at least one of the assassination attempts Today s Indonesia still bears the mark of its first president Sukarno developed the five pillars of Pancasila the official philosophical foundation of the Indonesian state belief in God nationalism international humanism consensus democracy and social justice For example the fifth pillar social justice still requires the Indonesian government to allocate a substantial part of the national income to social security provisions such as unemployment health and disability insurance as well as pensions Sukarno s main constitutional heritage is the fact that Indonesia has become a unitary state Indonesia is an archipelago that is as wide as the distance between Ireland and the Caucasus it is the fourth most populous nation in the world Countries of similar size and diversity all have adopted federal forms of governance But in Indonesia federation is still a loaded concept one that many see as a betrayal of the fight against the colonial power This attests to how certainly Sukarno will remain a vital part of his nation s history About the author Dr Lambert J Giebels 1935 2011 was a Dutch politician and writer who was renowned in the Netherlands for his political biographies His two volume biography of Sukarno written in Dutch originally consisted of 1 100 pages The English translation Sukarno A biography is an abridged version of those two volumes The translation is a collaboration between the Indonesian American Raden M Gatot Kusuma Sujanto and Geert van der Linden a former vice president of the Asian Development Bank in Manila
