The Life-Giving Myth A. M. Hocart, 2013-11-05 Myths are the expression of a form of knowledge essential to life Including mainly previously unpublished work by A M Hocart the book examines such issues as Why a queen should not have been married before why a guest is sacred why people are believed to have been turned into stone how money originated These issues are considered as part of a socio religious complex embraced in many parts of the world both East and West There are chapters on the UK India Sri Lanka Africa Fiji Egypt and Ancient Greece The Life-giving Myth and Other Essays Lord Raglan, 19?? Approaches to Greek Myth Lowell Edmunds, 2014-10-06 Segal on psychoanalytic interpretations Giving Life, Giving Death Lucien Scubla, 2016-09-01 Although women alone have the ability to bring children into the world modern Western thought tends to discount this female prerogative In Giving Life Giving Death Lucien Scubla argues that structural anthropology sees women as objects of exchange that facilitate alliance building rather than as vectors of continuity between generations Examining the work of Lévi Strauss Freud and Girard as well as ethnographic and clinical data Giving Life Giving Death seeks to explain why in constructing their master theories our greatest thinkers have consistently marginalized the cultural and biological fact of maternity In the spirit of Freud's Totem and Taboo Scubla constructs an anthropology that posits a common source for family and religion His wide ranging study explores how rituals unite violence and the sacred and intertwine the giving of death and the giving of life Sotades Herbert Hoffmann, 1997 In this book the author explores the work of the fifth century BC Athenian vase painter Sotades one of the most familiar names in vase painting Previous scholarship has dealt mainly with questions of attribution style and iconographic interpretation but Dr Hoffman concentrates on inherent meaning what does the imagery of these decorated vases really signify He argues that contrary to widely held conceptions there is an underlying unity of meaning in Greek vases and their imagery a unity rooted in the religious beliefs and ritual practices of the society from which they spring Each chapter discusses a specific aspect of the artist's iconology placing it in the context of fifth century BC Greek philosophical and religious thought Who Is the Dreamer, Who Dreams the Dream? James S. Grotstein, 2013-06-17 In Who Is the Dreamer Who Dreams the Dream A Study of Psychic Presences James Grotstein integrates some of his most important work of recent years in addressing fundamental questions of human psychology and spirituality He explores two quintessential and interrelated psychoanalytic problems the nature of the unconscious mind and the meaning and inner structure of human subjectivity To this end he teases apart the complex tangled threads that constitute self experience delineating psychic presences and mystifying dualities subjects with varying perspectives and functions and objects with different often phantasmagoric properties Whether he is expounding on the Unconscious as a range of dimensions understandable in terms of nonlinear concepts of chaos complexity and emergence theory modifying the psychoanalytic concept of psychic determinism by joining it to the concept of autochthony comparing Melanie Klein's notion of the archaic Oedipus complex with the ancient Greek myth of the labyrinth and the Minotaur or examining the relationship between the stories of Oedipus and Christ Grotstein emerges as an analyst whose clinical sensibility has been profoundly deepened by his scholarly use of mythology classical thought and contemporary philosophy The result is both an important synthesis of major currents of contemporary psychoanalytic thought and a moving exploration of the nature of human suffering and spirituality The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Ritual Risto Uro, Juliette Day, Rikard Roitto, Richard E. DeMaris, 2019 The Handbook provides an indispensable account of the ritual world of early Christianity from the beginning of the movement up to the end of the sixth century Animism in Southeast Asia Kaj Arhem, Guido Sprenger, 2015-11-19 Animism refers to ontologies or worldviews which assign agency and personhood to human and non human beings alike Recent years have seen a revival of this concept in anthropology where it is now discussed as an alternative to modern Western naturalistic notions of human environment relations Based on original fieldwork this book presents a number of case studies of animism from insular and peninsular Southeast Asia and offers a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon its diversity and underlying commonalities and its resilience in the face of powerful forces of change Critically engaging with the current standard notion of animism based on hunter gatherer and horticulturalist societies in other regions it examines the roles of life forces souls and spirits in local cosmologies and indigenous religion It proposes an expansion of the concept to societies featuring mixed farming sacrifice and hierarchy and explores the question of how non human agents are created through acts of attention and communication touching upon the relationship between animist ontologies world religion and the state Shedding new light on Southeast Asian religious ethnographic research the book is a significant contribution to anthropological theory and the revitalization of the concept of animism in the humanities and social sciences Anthropologists and Their Traditions Across National Borders Regna Darnell, Frederic W. Burridge and Robin Ridington among others These essays examine myriad themes such as the pedagogical context of the anthropologist as a teller of stories about indigenous storytellers the colonial context of British anthropological theory and its projects outside the nation state the legacies of Claude L. Lévi-Strauss's structuralism regarding culture specific patterns cognitive universals reflected in empirical examples of kinship myth language classificatory systems and supposed universal mental structures and the career of Marshall Sahlins and his trajectory from neo evolutionism and structuralism toward an epistemological skepticism of cross cultural miscommunication Shifting Images of Identity in the Pacific Toon van Meijl, 2021-10-25 This book examines how identities emerge persist and change in various Pacific societies The shifting images of identity are explored in pre colonial colonial as well as post colonial circumstances All the essays in this volume address both continuity and discontinuity in the construction of identities in the rapidly changing Pacific region A region increasingly characterized by state formation processes and global influences The introduction provides a theoretical analysis of the changing paradigm in the study of identity over recent decades This is exemplified with a comparative overview of the emergence of a constructivist approach of culture tradition and identity in Pacific studies Nine ethnographic contributions subsequently address the central question from a variety of different angles Some chapters focus on classic topics such as migration and myth while others deal with indigenous peoples in modern nation states tourism economic development global consumerism or electronic communication The societies in question range from relatively isolated groups to communities living dispersed around the globe Each chapter provides valuable insights into the processes of identity in the Pacific over time An epilogue provides a comparative reading of the different theoretical solutions that have been proposed to make sense of the shifting images of identity in the contemporary increasingly transnational Pacific

Frederic II of Germany 1229 Alphonse XI of Castile 1328 Peter IV of Aragon 1332 and Charles III of Navarra 1390 Aurell draws on history anthropology ritual studies liturgy and art history to explore royal self coronations as privileged sites at which the frontiers and limits between the temporal and spiritual politics and religion tradition and innovation are encountered On Kings Marshall Sahlins, David Graeber, 2017-12-15 In anthropology as much as in popular imagination kings are figures of fascination and intrigue heroes or tyrants in ways presidents and prime ministers can never be This collection of essays by two of the world's most distinguished anthropologists David Graeber and Marshall Sahlins explores what kingship actually is historically and anthropologically As they show kings are symbols for more than just sovereignty indeed the study of kingship offers a unique window into fundamental dilemmas concerning the very nature of power meaning and the human condition Reflecting on issues such as temporality alterity and utopia not to mention the divine the strange the numinous and the bestial Graeber and Sahlins explore the role of kings as they have existed around the world from the BaKongo to the Aztec to the Shilluk and beyond Richly delivered with the wit and sharp analysis characteristic of Graeber and Sahlins this book opens up new avenues for the anthropological study of this fascinating and ubiquitous political figure Images from Paradise Eszter Salgó, 2017-08-01 Drawing upon the disciplines of politics anthropology psychoanalysis aesthetics and cinema studies Salg presents a new way of looking at the art of European unification The official visual narratives of the European Union constitute the main object of inquiry the iconography of the new series of euro banknotes and the videos through which the supranational elite seek to generate collective effervescence allow for a European carnival to take place and prompt citizens to pledge allegiance to the sacred dogma of the ever closer union thereby strengthening the mythical sources of the organization's legitimacy The author seeks to illustrate how and why the federalist utopia turned into a political soteriology after the outbreak of the 2008 crisis One Hundred Years of Argonauts Chris Hann, Deborah James, 2024-06-01 Malinowski's Argonauts of the Western Pacific was a major contribution to anthropological theory and method while simultaneously establishing the sub field of economic anthropology Even a century after its publication Malinowski's pioneering work remains critical for anthropology in a postcolonial age This volume uses ethnographic studies from around the world to contextualize the work politically and intellectually examining its gestation and influence from multiple perspectives It critically explores the meaning of economy for Malinowski from his formation in the Austro Hungarian Empire to his path breaking fieldwork in Melanesia and ensuing career in London From a Shattered Sun Susan McKinnon, 1991 Among a growing number of ethnographies of eastern Indonesia that deal with cosmology exchange and kinship From a Shattered Sun is the first to address squarely issues originally broached by Edmund Leach and Claude Lévi Strauss concerning the relation between hierarchy and equality in asymmetric systems of marriage On the basis of extensive fieldwork in the Tamimbar islands Susan McKinnon analyzes the simultaneous presence of both closed asymmetric cycles and open asymmetric pathways of alliance of both egalitarian and hierarchical configurations In addition Tamimbarese society is marked by the existence of multiple differentially valued forms of marriage affiliation and residence. Rather than seeing these various forms as analytically separable types, McKinnon demonstrates that it is only by viewing them as integrally related in terms of culturally specific understandings of houses, gender, and exchange that one can perceive the processes through which hierarchy and equality are created.
