Ethics in the Presence of Christ Christopher R. J. Holmes, 2012-02-02 An exploration of how the truth love and power of God revealed in Jesus Christ are contemporary to and transformative of human life

Scattered and Gathered Sadiri Joy Tira, Tetsunao Yamamori, 2020-07-31 The twenty first century is marked by mass migration Massive population movements of the last century have radically challenged our study and practice of mission Where the church once rallied to go out into the regions beyond Christian mission is currently required to respond and adapt to missions around As a result leaders in this field have been developing diaspora missiology to provide a missiological framework for understanding and participating in God's redemptive mission among peoples living outside their places of origin In this volume experts in diaspora missiology from across the globe analyze the development of missions to migrants and add to our understanding of the contemporary church's opportunities and responsibilities for mission amongst diaspora groups

Humble Confidence Paul Weston, 2025-01-30 Lesslie Newbigin's development of a fresh paradigm of missionary theology and cultural engagement has solidified his reputation as not just one of the most important missionary theologians of the twentieth century but as continually relevant in the twenty first Paul Weston focusses on how the engagement with Michael Polanyi's understanding of personal knowledge illuminates Newbigin's work and contributes to its ongoing significance Interlinking themes of Revelation Knowing and Story and tracing through Newbigin's engagements with modernity and post modernity Weston suggests how the logic of Newbigin's approach continues to provide insight to mission theologians and practitioners It is Weston s conviction that Humble Confidence presents Newbiggin s thinking in a way that can serve the continuing mission of the church

Of Seeds and the People of God Michael P. Knowles,2015-02-06 Preachers mount the pulpit steps terribly burdened by the conviction that they are somehow responsible for the growth and spiritual well being of their congregants How they ask themselves can mere words communicate the reality of God bring life to a congregation or foster spiritual growth This study argues that effective sermons function much like Jesus parables by bearing witness to divine power Parables and preaching both testify to something beyond themselves to a life giving dynamic that far outstrips the force of words alone Preachers are not go betweeners or gatekeepers for the kingdom of heaven rather they imitate Jesus by dying to themselves in the very act of proclamation relying directly on God for their sermons to bear fruit As well as offering a novel interpretation of Jesus agricultural parables Of Seeds and the People of God presents a Christ shaped theology of preaching Beyond exegesis or rhetoric alone faithful proclamation is a question of spirituality of preachers and listeners together yielding to God s gift of new life

The Spirit Says Ronald Herms,John R. Levison,Archie T. Wright,2021-10-25 The Spirit Says offers a stunning collection of articles by an influential assemblage of scholars all of whom lend considerable insight to the relationship between inspiration and interpretation They address this otherwise intractable question with deft and occasionally daring readings of a variety of texts from the ancient world including but not limited to the scriptures of early Judaism and Christianity The thrust of this book can be summed up not so much in one question as in four o What is the role of revelation in the interpretation of Scripture o What might it look like for an author to be inspired o What motivates a claim to the inspired interpretation of Scripture o Who is inspired to interpret Scripture More often than not these questions are submerged in this volume under the tame rubrics of exegesis and hermeneutics but they rise in swells and surges too to the surface not just occasionally but often Combining an assortment of prominent voices this book does not merely offer signposts along the way It charts a pioneering path toward a model of interpretation that is at once intellectually robust and unmistakably inspired Theological Education in Contemporary Africa Grant LeMarquand,D. Galgalo,2004-12-29 Part One addresses Theological Foundations The five essays in this section deal with the Bible Theology and Ecumenism The subjects of theological methods contextual hermeneutics and appropriate curriculum are given special attention Of course even foundational issues cannot be discussed in a vacuum and so each of the essays addresses these foundational subjects in the light of African realities Part Two deals with Contemporary Issues It is particularly in this section that the traditional themes in African theology have been somewhat displaced by concerns which are today very pressing indeed Three essays are devoted to the question of HIV AIDS This disease which has devastated the African continent demands a theological and practical response from those who claim to follow Jesus Christ If the churches do not respond to this crisis with energy and determination we should not be surprised if the next generation wonders whether the Gospel has the power which we claim that it has Two essays address the question of Islam and Muslim Christian Relations in Africa The resurgence of Islam in the world today is a concern of many For those who believe in Jesus this is a challenge which demands much wisdom and love How should we respond to our Muslim neighbours What are appropriate and thoughtful ways to share the love of Christ Two further essays appear under the title of The Marginalized This could of course be a much large section Those who suffer from AIDS could be included in this number and one might have expected to see at least one essay on the place of women In this volume however the disabled and youth are highlighted Both groups are clearly in need of the attention of the churches and both groups are clearly misunderstood and neglected The final section of Part Two contains essays which focus attention on Theological Paedagogy All of the other contributions to this volume make suggestions and arguments about curriculum resources and issues of concern for theological educators The causal aim of this book is that these essays may help us to reflect in an intentional way on the implications of contemporary realities for the future of theological education

Portraits of God Allan Coppedge, 2009-09-20 What is God like Answering this is the great quest of human existence Because God is so different from us we struggle to describe him While doctrinal statements about God certainly have their place in Christian understanding the Bible more often uses God's actions and roles to help us know him better Indeed some of the most helpful insights in Scripture arise when God is compared to something else a rock an eagle or a tower And many human metaphors metaphors taken from the world of actions and relationships bring us even closer to understanding of God In Portraits of God Allan Coppedge suggests we look carefully at God as our Father Redeemer King Judge Priest and Creator These portraits taken together give us an understanding of the Holy One for which no single category is adequate These images work their way through the whole of Scripture They are the doorway allowing us into the mysteries of God's very being In Portraits of God Coppedge offers a comprehensive survey picturing a God who wants to be known personally and who has profoundly communicated himself Coppedge finds the inexhaustible nature of God to be one of holiness reflected in and best described by the language of diverse roles Approaching God in this way transforms us as churches and individuals to reflect God's own holy character This is a book for students pastors and churchgoers alike Anyone desiring to know more deeply and wholly the Christian God revealed in the Bible will find in Portraits of God a treasure of scholarship and truth

The Story That Chooses Us George R. Hunsberger, 2015-04-15 Receptive Ecumenism As Transformative Ecclesial Learning Paul D. Murray, Gregory A. Ryan, Paul Lakeland, 2022 Receptive Ecumenism asks not what other churches can learn from us but what can we learn and receive with integrity from our ecclesial others The chapters in this volume by academics church leaders and ecumenical practitioners show how Receptive Ecumenism has grown and matured over the past two decades

Where Mortals Dwell Craig G. Bartholomew, 2011-09-01 Place is fundamental to human existence However we have lost the very human sense of place in today's postmodern and globalized world Craig Bartholomew a noted Old Testament scholar and the coauthor of two popular texts on the biblical narrative provides a biblical theological and philosophical grounding for place in our rootless culture He illuminates the importance of place throughout the biblical canon in the Christian tradition and in the contours of contemporary thought Bartholomew encourages readers to recover a sense of place and articulates a hopeful Christian vision of placemaking in today's world Anyone interested in place and related environmental themes including readers of Wendell Berry will enjoy this compelling book

Bearing the Witness of the Spirit George R. Hunsberger, 1998 What are the theological implications of today's multicultural world What does cultural plurality mean for the life and mission of the church George Hunsberger finds the answers to these and other questions in the missionary theology of Lesslie Newbigin which he brings into clear view in Bearing the Witness of the Spirit
