Slavery In The Arab World:

Slavery in the Arab World Murray Gordon, 1998-04-21 A comprehensive portrait of slavery in the Islamic world from earliest times until today Arab Book World Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis, 1990 From the days before Moses up through the 1960s slavery was a fact of life in the Middle East But if the Middle East was one of the last regions to renounce slavery how do we account for its and especially Islam's image of racial harmony How did these long years of slavery affect racial relations In Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis explores these questions and others examining the history of slavery in law social thought practice and literature and art over the last two millennia

Slavery in the Modern Middle East and North Africa Elena Andreeva, Kevin McNeer, 2024-05-30 What is the nature of slavery as practiced and at times reintroduced over the past two centuries in the Middle East and North Africa In spite of the rich regional diversity of the areas studied from Morocco to the Indian Ocean to Iran this anthology demonstrates clear commonalities across the super region These include the regulation of slavery by Islam and local traditions the absence of a rigid racial hierarchy as in North American slavery the management of the sexuality and reproductive capacity of female slaves and views on identity and heritage among descendants of slaves Authors also examine the economic and theological underpinnings of contemporary slavery and human trafficking The book is among the first to focus on slavery across the Islamic world from the 19th century to the present a period constituting the endgame of institutionalized slavery in the region but also the persistence of forms of de facto enslavement Each chapter scrutinizes from a different vantage point institutions economics the abolitionist movement literature folklore and the moving image creating a multi dimensional picture of the phenomenon The authors have mined government archives and statistics memoirs interviews photographs drawings songs cinema and television Not only are Arabic Persian and Turkish sources leveraged but a variety of materials in minor and endangered languages such as Soqotri Balochi and Sorani Kurdish in addition to European languages

Sexuality in the Arab World Samir Khalaf, John Gagnon, 2014-05-13 Arab cultural discourse has been slow to respond to changing sexual behaviour The contributors to this collection pick up the slack ranging across such disciplines as literature history sociology and psychology Is Damascus the chastity capital of the Middle East where perceptions of wealth and class fuel female rivalries How do gay men cruise in Beirut How do young women in Tunis cope with both social pressures to become thin and family pressures to gain weight What do Lebanese creative writing students write about sexual practices versus public behaviour The fresh compelling research topics covered include masculinity and migration colonialism and sexual health fantasy and violence and domestic workers and sexual tensions Other people's sex lives have always been a source of fascination and nowhere more so than in the Middle East Ground breaking New Statesman Slavery in the Islamic World Mary Ann Fay, 2018-11-17 This edited volume determines where slavery in the Islamic world fits within the global history of slavery and the various models that have been developed to analyze it To that end the authors focus on a question about Islamic slavery that has frequently been asked but not answered satisfactorily namely what is Islamic about slavery in the Islamic world Through the fields of history sociology literature women s studies African studies and comparative slavery studies this book is an important contribution to the scholarly research on slavery in the Islamic lands which continues to be understudied and under represented in global slavery studies Narratives of Dislocation in the Arab World Nadeen Dakkak,2023-03-08 This monograph explores and investigates narratives of physical psychological and emotional dislocation that take place within the Arab world approaching them as manifestations of the Arabic word ghurba or estrangement as a feeling and state of being Distancing itself from the centrality of the West in postcolonial and Arabic literary studies the book explores experiences of migration displacement and cosmopolitanism that do not directly ensue from the encounter with Europe or the European other Covering texts from the Levant Egypt the Arabian Peninsula and beyond from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries the book grounds narratives of dislocation in the political social and cultural structures that affect the everyday lived experiences of individuals and communities An analysis of Arabic Turkish and English texts encompassing fiction memoirs and translations highlights less visible narratives of ghurba specifically amongst ethnic minorities and religious communities Ultimately the chapters contribute to a picture of the Arab world as a place of ghurba where mobile and immobile subjects foreigners and local inhabitants alike encounter alienation Bringing together a diverse range of academic perspectives the book will be of interest to students and scholars in postcolonial and comparative literary studies history and Arabic and Middle East studies Unveiling the Harem Mary Ann Fay,2012-08-27 A history of elite women who were concubines and wives of powerful slave soldiers known as Mamluks who dominated Egypt both politically and militarily in the eighteenth century The Sultan's Shadow Christiane Bird,2010 A dramatic account of the slave trade in the early 19th century Indian Ocean is presented through the stories of the Omani Sultan Said and his daughter Princess Salme offering insight into the Arabian Peninsula kingdom s lucrative growth and ties to America Slavery and Abolition in the Ottoman Middle East Ehud R. Toledano,2012-02-01 In the Ottoman Empire many members of the ruling elite were legally slaves of the sultan and therefore could technically be ordered to surrender their labor their property or their lives at any moment Nevertheless slavery provided a means of social mobility conferring status and political power within the military the bureaucracy or the domestic household and formed an essential part of patronage networks Ehud R Toledano s exploration of slavery from the Ottoman viewpoint is based on extensive research in British French and Turkish archives and offers rich original and important insights into Ottoman life and thought In an attempt to humanize the narrative and take it beyond the plane of numbers tables and charts Toledano examines the situations of individuals representing the principal realms of Ottoman slavery female harem slaves the sultan s military and civilian kuls court and elite eunuchs domestic slaves Circassian agricultural slaves slave dealers and slave owners Slavery and Abolition in the Ottoman Middle East makes available new and significantly revised studies on nineteenth century Middle Eastern slavery and suggests general approaches to the study of slavery in different cultures Captives and Companions Justin Marozzi, 2025-10-21 The definitive history of the slave trade in the Islamic world a story that has been overshadowed by its notorious but shorter lived Atlantic counterpart Slavery in the Islamic world has a long complex and controversial history In the earliest days of Islam Arab Muslims enslaved men women and children as the spoils of war In the following centuries young boys were imported to imperial Islamic courts in enormous numbers Some were castrated to serve as eunuch guardians of sacred spaces from the imperial harem of Istanbul to the Prophet s Mosque in Medina Others were harvested by the Ottomans to serve as Janissaries the sultan s elite infantry unit Some even rose to the highest levels of political and military command making a mockery of their slave status For women leading concubines became powerful figures in their own right In the ninth century Golden Age of Baghdad the most beautiful and accomplished courtesans were among the richest most celebrated figures of their day In the twentieth century more than a thousand years later their cosmopolitan counterparts were still entertaining Ottoman sultans Yet it was Africa which bore the brunt of the Islamic world s insatiable demand for slave labour Slavers plied its Mediterranean Atlantic and Indian Ocean coasts traders raided inland for human cargo and millions of enslaved Africans trudged across the Sahara into captivity Meanwhile North African corsairs turned the Mediterranean into a slaving free for all between Muslims Christians and Jews The sheer longevity of slavery was no less surprising Arab Muslims adapted and regulated this practice within an Islamic context Sanctioned by the Prophet Mohammed legitimated by the Quran and holy law slavery endured for fifteen centuries Abolition had few champions and came late in the day hereditary slavery continues even today in Mali and Mauritania Captives and Companions takes the reader on an extraordinary historical journey across deserts continents and oceans from Baghdad to Bamako Tripoli to Timbuktu Istanbul to the Black Sea and reveals a hidden but vital chapter in our understanding of world civilization
