stationed in Teheran a Mancunian of Lebanese descent who spoke frankly about Arab hopes and fears a Home Officer advisor sent to Moscow to inspect its fire watching arrangements and a Polish countess forcibly transported to a collective farm in Siberia among others Secrecy surrounded these lectures many of the scripts were marked Secret or Confidential they were not published in the Society's Journal and the audience was warned not to reveal the topics discussed outside the Clarges Street premises The discussions which followed the lectures were held in the knowledge that frank views could be freely expressed and are included in this volume Although so much has changed in the international arena these seventy year old lectures only recently rediscovered in the Society's Archives have a peculiar poignancy and relevance in understanding today's unquiet Middle East and how war time events and strategies were to shape post war policy with regard to Arab nationalism and Arab unity
