50 Water Dreams Siwar Masannat, 2015 Poetry Middle Eastern Studies As critic Jacqueline Rose says of Mahmoud Darwish here is a poetry that writes back Fragmentary by nature this innovative dream sequence speaks across borders interrogating the language of power relationships and singing toward a longed for home These clips of language beg for recovery for coherence in a world

unlikely to cohere What is causality for x to lead to y What is loss of land asks Masannat in 50 WATER DREAMS her essential debut Sally Keith How rare and exhilarating it is in our time to find a book that is both wildly inventive and daring in its style and incredibly compelling in its content 50 WATER DREAMS takes us on a book long journey of Fadia and Ishmael and a mysterious horse that keeps the house company horse that humanizes the house horse that may keep the house from dying The romance here is this Fadia s father was a dead man forced to go home on foot Ishmael s mother exiled What happens in this book Cruelty and passion and heartbreak become a myth for our times of conflict How lucky we are to find a poetry debut that isn t afraid of ideas of mysteries of politics of passion How brave she is to say I saw nobody coming so I went instead And to dare us I want to put you in my revolution Like Zbigniew Herbert this poet wants to hide you in my eyelids the nation like Venus Khoury Ghata she makes a mythological pastoral a book of voices that speak for more than one person Ilya Kaminsky 50 WATER DREAMS beckons us into a mysterious world of broken tesserae a dispersed mosaic the reader must puzzle over to reconstruct What we discover as the pieces begin to fit is that Siwar Masannat subversively flips the script of scripture and invites us to re read what we thought we knew as the story of a land called holy In her words Fadia I say I dare not blink If I could hide you in my eyelids the nation too If peace is to come between Israelis and Palestinians it may require this sort of utter recasting and frame breaking An auspicious and unblinking debut Philip Metres
