Flying the Southern Cross Michael Molkentin, 2012 In 1928 Charles Kingsford Smith and Charles Ulm made the first trans Pacific flight in the Southern Cross an aircraft constructed largely of wood and fabric They made the trip from Oakland California in nine days during which they faced electrical storms torrential rain equipment failure and fuel shortages Navigational aids were primitive contact with the outside world was by Morse code only and safety measures were non existent After many close calls they triumphantly landed in Brisbane where a crowd of 15 000 welcomed them as heroes Throughout this extraordinary journey Ulm kept a logbook in which he recorded his raw impressions of the flight Using Ulm s logbook plus contemporary newspaper accounts and official documents Flying the Southern Cross tells the gripping tale of this history making flight and the aviators who made it happen A World War 1 Adventure House of Harkness,2014-06-25 A deeply personal and revealing eyewitness narrative of one airmans life as a bomber pilot in England s RNAS Royal Naval Air Service in WWI It is a true story an adventure and a war memoir carefully constructed from Captain Donald E Harknesss unpublished diaries letters sketches and photographs only recently uncovered nearly a century later that documented his remarkable experiences and military adventures over England France and Belgium The first book written by a highly decorated WWI flyer from New Zealand that captures the behind the scenes life of RNAS pilots as well as the surprises terrors traumas humor and sheer excitement of an aerial form of combat never before experienced by anyone anywhere and only eleven short years after the Wright Brothers historic flight at Kitty Hawk With a talent for writing Don begins an epic journey at a major turning point in history when the world is poised at the dawn of flight and bracing itself for unknown dangers of unprecedented sophistication and savagery Dons journal reveals unique insights and vivid imagery of another time and experience to wit the terror and devastation of a Zeppelin bombing raid in London the training regimen of early flying schools and their serious and much much more In a Sunburned Country Bill Bryson,2012-05-15 Deliciously funny fact filled and adventurous In a Sunburned Country takes us on a grand tour of Australia It s a place where interesting things happen all the time from a Prime Minister lost yes lost while swimming at sea to Japanese cult members who may entirely unnoticed have set off an atomic bomb on their 500 000 acre property in the great western desert Australia is the only island that is also a continent and the only continent that is also a country Its aboriginal people a remote and mysterious race with a tragic history have made it their home for millennia And despite the fact that it is the most desiccated infertile and climatically aggressive of all inhabited continents it teems with life In fact Australia has more things that can kill you in extremely nasty ways than anywhere else sharks crocodiles the planet s ten most deadly poisonous snakes fluffy yet toxic caterpillars sea shells that actually attack you and the unbelievable box jellyfish don t ask The dangerous riptides of the sea and the sun baked wastes of the outback both lie in wait for the unwary Australia is an immense and fortunate land and it has found in Bill Bryson its perfect guide In a Sunburned Country offers the best of all possible introductions to what may well be the best of all possible nations Even with those jellyfish No Empty Chairs Ian Mackersey,2012-05-10 The 1914 18 conflict narrated through the voices of the men whose combat was in the air This moving book uses letters and diaries to evoke the terrible cost of such warfare Sleepless nights separated lovers and grieving parents are recalled with painful immediacy in this meticulously researched tribute to those who died or were lucky enough to survive DAILY MAIL The empty chairs belonged all too briefly to the doomed young First World War airmen who failed to return from the terrifying daily aerial combats above the trenches of the Western Front The edict of their commander in chief was the missing aviators were to be immediately replaced Before the new faces could arrive the departed men's vacant seats at the squadron dinner table were sometimes poignantly occupied by their caps and boots placed there in a sad ritual by their surviving colleagues as they drank to their memory Life for most of the pilots of the Royal Flying Corps was appallingly short If they graduated alive and unmaimed from the flying training that killed more than half of them before they reached the front line only a few would for very long survive the daily battles they fought over the ravaged moonscape of no man's land Their average life expectancy at the height of the war was measured only in weeks Parachutes that began to save their German enemies were denied them Fear of incarceration and the daily spectacle of watching close colleagues die in burning aircraft took a devastating toll on the nerves of the world's first fighter pilots Many became mentally ill As they waited for death or with luck the survivable wound that would send them back to Blighty they poured their emotions into their diaries and streams of letters to their loved ones at home Drawing on these remarkable testimonies and pilots memoirs Ian Mackersey has brilliantly reconstructed the First Great Air War through the lives of its participants As they waited to die the men shared their loneliness their fears triumphs and squadron gossip with the families who lived in daily dread of the knock on the door that would bring the War Office telegram in its fateful green envelope

Docherty,2010-04-01 The last continent to be claimed by Europeans Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere the British were not Australia's original populace The first inhabitants of Australia the Aborigines are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60 000 years ago This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world's most successful immigrant nations The A to Z of Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world Through a detailed chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets author James Docherty provides a much needed single volume reference on Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal tolerant democracy it is today You'll be Sorry Ann Howard,2016-02-05 Honouring grandmothers and mothers in a superb account of women's participation in the Services during World War II and their ensuing battle for equal opportunity that set the foundation for the Women's Liberation Movement of the 70s Women in British Imperial Airspace Liz Millward,2007-12-18 The romance of flying the airways that developed above the British empire between the two world wars seduced young women with the promise of independence glamour and adventure Thunder over the Desert Peter Mageros,2025-04-25 Filmmakers and footsloggers It's not often you hear these two words together but they perfectly capture the story of Australia's film industry revealed in this compelling book Since the early 20th century Australia's local screen industry has fought a fierce battle against the overwhelming dominance of Hollywood striving to keep homegrown feature films on Australian cinema screens This is a story of resilience and cultural pride where the struggles of the nation's filmmakers have been metaphorically aligned with the heroic narrative of the Anzac soldier Much like the first Anzacs at Gallipoli heroes even in the face of devastating defeat Australia's cinema has a celebrated history of seeing itself as valiant even when the odds were stacked against it Peter Mageros delves into the deep historical connections between myth and cinema exploring how filmmakers such as Longford Chauvel Weir and Beresford have drawn inspiration from the iconic images of the Diggers on screen The book reveals how the theme of the heroic film industry persists in contemporary times with Australian filmmakers portrayed as going into the trenches alongside the legendary soldiers This is a story of true heroism not always one of triumphant conquest but of unwavering determination to protect and preserve a uniquely Australian cinematic voice Australian Documentary Trish FitzSimons, Pat Laughren, Dugald Williamson, 2011-01-31 Australian Documentary brings to life over a century of documentary making Taking Flight Kristen Alexander, 2016-03-01 From her first taste of the air when she joined Bert Hinkler in the cockpit for a joy ride in 1928 Lores Bonney was hooked With her aviation licence and the support of her husband she took to Australian and international skies and braved the challenge of long distance flying Taking Flight draws from the National Library of Australia's rich archives and manuscript collection to present the tale of Lores Bonney the first woman to circumnavigate the Australian continent by air the first woman acknowledged to fly from Australia to England and the first solo pilot to fly from Australia to Cape Town South Africa Aviation writer Kristen Alexander intimately illuminates the woman behind the audacious pilot exploring her highs and lows and struggle to gain and maintain her place as one of Australia's great aviation pioneers Australia's Greatest Disasters John Miller, 2010 Disasters have always occurred in Australia even before European settlement began in 1788 Such is the geography and climate of the Great South Land that disasters such as bushfires cyclones storms floods drought and heat waves are natural phenomena They also tend to be seasonal and can be successive bushfires follow periods of drought
