The Arab World Halim Barakat,1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world

Leopoldo Zea Solomon Lipp,2006-01-01

The author analyzes Mexican national identity in the context of the philosophy of Leopoldo Zea contemporary Mexican thinker He attempts to establish national character traits peculiar to Mexico using sociological psychological historical and philosophical approaches He then shows how Zea deals with the problem of Mexican identity and how he relates specifically Mexican concepts to universal philosophic and historic thought Ranging widely over many disciplines this scholarly study will be particularly valuable to readers familiar with philosophy sociology and psychology

Armies of Sand Kenneth Michael Pollack,2019 Since the Second World War Arab armed forces have consistently punched below their weight They have lost many wars that by all rights they should have won and in their best performances only ever achieved quite modest accomplishments Over time soldiers scholars and military experts have offered various explanations for this pattern Reliance on Soviet military methods the poor civil military relations of the Arab world the underdevelopment of the Arab states and patterns of behavior derived from the wider Arab culture have all been suggested as the ultimate source of Arab military difficulties Armies of Sand Kenneth M Pollack s powerful and riveting history of Arab armies from the end of World War Two to the present assesses these differing explanations and isolates the most important causes Over the course of the book he examines the combat performance of fifteen Arab armies and air forces in virtually every Middle Eastern war from the

Jordanians and Syrians in 1948 to Hizballah in 2006 and the Iraqis and ISIS in 2014 2017 He then compares these experiences to the performance of the Argentine Chadian Chinese Cuban North Korean and South Vietnamese armed forces in their own combat operations during the twentieth century The book ultimately concludes that reliance on Soviet doctrine was more of a help than a hindrance to the Arabs In contrast politicization and underdevelopment were both important factors limiting Arab military effectiveness but patterns of behavior derived from the dominant Arab culture was the most important factor of all Pollack closes with a discussion of the rapid changes occurring across the Arab world political economic and cultural as well as the rapid evolution in war making as a result of the information revolution He suggests that because both Arab society and warfare are changing the problems that have bedeviled Arab armed forces in the past could dissipate or even vanish in the future with potentially dramatic consequences for the Middle East military balance Sweeping in its historical coverage and highly accessible this will be the go to reference for anyone interested in the history of warfare in the Middle East since 1945

Arabs in the Mirror Nissim Rejwan, 2009-02-17 What is an Arab Though many in the West would answer that question with simplistic stereotypes the reality is far more complex and interesting Arabs themselves have been debating Arab identity since pre Islamic times coming to a variety of conclusions about the nature and extent of their Arabness Likewise Westerners and others have attempted to analyze Arab identity reaching mostly negative conclusions about Arab culture and capacity for self government To bring new perspectives to the question of Arab identity Iraqi born scholar Nissim Rejwan has assembled this fascinating collection of writings by Arab and Western intellectuals who try to define what it means to be Arab He begins with pre Islamic times and continues to the last decades of the twentieth century quoting thinkers ranging from Ibn Khaldun to modern writers such as al Ansari Haykal Ahmad Amin al Azm and Said Through their works Rejwan shows how Arabs have grappled with such significant issues as the influence of Islam the rise of nationalism the quest for democracy women s status the younger generation Egypt s place in the Arab world Israel s role in Middle Eastern conflict and the West s cultural invasion By letting Arabs speak for themselves Arabs in the Mirror refutes a prominent Western stereotype that Arabs are incapable of self reflection or self government On the contrary it reveals a rich tradition of self criticism and self knowledge in the Arab world

Leadership Training in the Hands of the Church Joseph Nehemiah, 2020-12-31 The church is a contextualized reality and if it is to flourish its leaders must be raised up to serve their own communities Yet our very techniques for teaching and learning are culturally defined If the church is to be effective in developing the leaders it needs our approach to training must be informed by its local context In this immensely practical text Joseph Nehemiah combines sound pedagogical research with rich cultural insight to provide a framework for training leaders in an Arab context Examining principles of adult education in light of Arab cultural dynamics Nehemiah offers a paradigm for experiential learning that is biblically rooted and contextually appropriate Informed by the experience of professors in the Arab Gulf along with extensive interviews from local church leaders Leadership Training in the Hands of the Church seeks to place the development teaching and training of leaders into the hands of the local church Jesus in an Age of Terror James G. Crossley, 2014-12-18 New Testament and Christian origins scholarship have historically been influenced by their political and social context Jesus in an Age of Terror applies the work of critical and media theorists to contemporary Christian origins and New Testament scholarship Part one examines the influence of the mass media on the writing of contemporary biblical scholars whose political views as demonstrated in their biblio blogging are shown to have striking similarity to the media's depiction of the war on terror and conflict in the Middle East Part two argues that the Anglo American cultural misrepresentation of Islam as the great enemy has led New Testament and Christian origins scholarship to collude with intellectual defences of the war in Iraq Part three examines the influence of the media's approach to Palestine and Israel on biblical studies exploring the shift towards widespread support for Israel in contemporary scholarship

People and Politics in the Middle East: The Arab-Israeli Conflict-Its Background and the Prognosis for Peace Michael Curtis, 1971-01-01 Eighteen eminent contemporary scholars on the Middle East clarify the historical background of the Arab Israeli conflict present careful analyses of the economic social and demographic aspects of the area and lay the foundation for a better understanding of the relevant political problems on which a peaceful settlement rests No 1 in the series Contents Introduction Michael Curtis PART ONE ARABS AND JEWS IN THE MIDDLE EAST Israel and Palestine The Political Use of Ethics Ben Halpern Intergroup Relations in Israel Hugh M Smythe and Sandra Weintraub Ethnic Relations in Israel Yochanan Peres The Palestine Arabs A National Entity Don Perer Who Are the Palestinians Marie Syrkin DISCUSSION PART TWO ECONOMIC HISTORICAL AND GEOGRAPHICAL PERSPECTIVES Economic Aspects of the Arab Israeli Conflict Eliyahu Kanovsky The Ba'ath In Syria Sylvia G Haim Arab Refugees and the Arab Israeli Dilemma Fred Khouri The Second Arab Awakening Jon Kimche Demography and Geography in Palestine Samuel Merlin DISCUSSION PART THREE POLITICAL DYNAMICS AND THE ARAB ISRAELI CONFLICT Political Systems of the Middle East Opening Remarks Irving Louis Horowitz The Fiasco of Anglo American Middle East Policy Amos Perlmutter The Middle East and the Great Powers F H Hinsley Ending the Arab Israeli Conflict Yehoshafat Harkabi Clashing Horizons Arabs and Revolution Abdul Aziz Said The New Left and Israel Shlomo Avineri Closing Horizons Israelis and Nationalism Gil Carl Alroy DISCUSSION Arab Attitudes to Israel Yehoshafat Harkabi, 2017-09-08 Because of recent changes in the explicitly declared goals of Arabs in the Palestinian conflict this book is of singular importance and no scholar or expert on Middle East affairs can afford to ignore it This work by a scholar described as the doyen of Israeli Arabists is the result of vast research into the attitude of the Arabs toward Israel manifested both in their declared explicit aims and in ideological exegeses on the roots of the Palestinian problem Approximately one hundred twenty books written by Arabs and the Arab press and radio are herein analyzed Harkabi's searching examination is objective His detection of consistent patterns in what at first seems amorphous is convincing If there is such a thing as a science of political psychology Harkabi is its master
