The Theology of Hathor of Dendera Barbara A. Richter, 2016-04-15 The Ptolemaic period witnessed an enormous increase in the number of hieroglyphic signs and iconographic elements composite crowns scepters and cult objects The ancient scribes exploited this complexity when composing the reliefs used in temple decoration selecting particular words hieroglyphic signs and iconographic elements in order to create interconnected multiple layers of meaning forming a tapestry of sound and sight The Theology of Hathor of Dendera examines these techniques on both micro and macro levels from their smallest details to their broadest thematic connections foregrounding individual techniques to determine the words and phrases singled out for emphasis By synthesizing their use in the three dimensional space of the most important cult chamber in the Temple of Hathor at Dendera this new method of analysis not only reveals the most essential characteristics of the local theology but also shows how the ancient scribes envisioned the universe and the place of humankind within it

Lady of the Temple:

Ancient Hymns for Nephthys Chelsea Luellon Bolton, Temples of Ancient Egypt Dieter Arnold, 1997 Five distinguished scholars here summarize the state of current knowledge about ancient Egyptian temples and the rituals associated with their use The first volume in English to survey the major types of Egyptian temples from the Old Kingdom to the Roman period it offers a unique perspective on ritual and its cultural significance The authors perceive temples as loci for the creative interplay of sacred space and sacred time They regard as unacceptable the traditional division of the temples into the categories of mortuary and divine believing that their functions and symbolic representations were at once too varied and too intertwined Both informative to scholars and accessible to students the book combines descriptions of specific temples with new insights into their development and purposes
