The Genius of America Eric Lane, Michael Oreskes, 2010-08-10 Due to a combination of heightened frustration moves to skirt the constitutional process and a widespread disconnect between the people and their constitutional conscience Lane and Oreskes warn us our longstanding Democracy is at risk Together they examine the Constitution s history relative to this current crisis from its framing to its centuries long success including during some of the country s most turbulent and contentious times and challenge us to let this great document work as it was designed valuing political process over product They hold our leaders accountable calling on them to stop fanning the flames of division and to respect their institutional roles In the final assessment The Genius of America asks us to lean on the framers and their experience to secure our country s wellbeing

Political Institutions Josep M. Colomer, 2001-02-01 The role of institutions is to establish the domains of public activity and the rules to select leaders Democratic regimes organize in simple institutional frameworks to foster the concentration of power and alternative successive absolute winners and losers They favour political satisfaction of relatively small groups as well as policy instability In contrast pluralistic institutions produce multiple winners including multiparty co operation and agreements They favour stable moderate and consensual policies that can satisfy large groups interests on a great number of issues The more complex the political institutions the more stable and socially efficient the outcome will be This book develops an extensive analysis of this relationship It explores concepts questions and insights based on social choice theory while empirical focus is cast on more than 40 democratic countries and a few international organizations from late medieval times to the present The book argues that pluralistic democratic institutions are judged to be better than simple formula of their higher capacity of producing socially satisfactory results
