I Will Always Remember Charles Manns, 2008 Celia's Story Through the Eyes of Texas Grandma Kathryn

Allen, 2014-10-03 Celia's story came about after the death of her daddy Being that Texas Grandma lost her daddy as a child also and that there was no one to tell his story Texas Grandma gained a strong desire to write all my memories of Celia from birth to now and tell all my memories of our son so his children would at least have memories of their daddy to help keep his memory alive and real to us all As I started Texas Grandpa started adding his memories also These are memories of events and sayings from both Celia and Kyle throughout their lives We want Celia to share this story with Asha and especially with Ephraim since he was so small for them at least have these words down to help him know the father who was so proud of all three of them and for them to know that we will be here for them as long as we live The love we have for them and the love we had for our son never dies

Remember God Annie F. Downs, 2018-10-02 I know God is loving I know He is good I believe He is big and powerful But sometimes I wonder if He is really kind really deeply always kind Is He Christians love to talk about how God is in control but that's harder to grasp when things aren't going like you thought they would when your life looks quite different than you imagined For centuries God's people have been building altars to Him to remind themselves and the people around them of His work His goodness His kindness Stacks of stones Altars Temples Cathedrals Why Because they believed God and wanted to remember Him In the back of my mind God reminds me that He is the same trustworthy God the One who always finishes the stories he starts And this is my story of wrestling with our God who gives a limp and a blessing A God who is always kind even when my circumstances feel the opposite God is who He says He is He is kinder than you imagine In a world where it is easy to forget who He is we will not We will remember God Remember the Dragonflies Kathy Rhodes, 2013-10-15 Kathy Rhodes writes about grief and fear and denial and pain and she does it well She crafts scenes that make us feel like we're in the room with her Highly recommended Neil White author of In the Sanctuary of Outcasts At some point life boils what's in your crucible down to the salt of you Everything she had depended on her husband job income identity companionship future hopes and dreams even her house and then suddenly he died Kathy Rhodes staggers onto the grief road and navigates her way through the fog of disorientation decisions death duties the dreaded firsts and basic daily survival She lands a new job loses it when the company fails gets another job loses her mother and her childhood home then sells her own house and buys a smaller one Five years down the road she realizes she has journeyed from our to my She has built a whole new life Her journey parallels the metamorphosis of the dragonfly Dragonflies start out in the water submerged in the dark then gradually in time find their way to the skies Rhodes survives the darkest time of her life and makes her way onward and upward She finds the well place in her heart The Journal of Proceedings and Addresses of the National Educational Association National Educational Association (U.S.), 1889 There Are Places I Remember Rick Houser,2016-05-18 Anytime I have been to a family gathering or get together with friends much of the time becomes devoted to telling tales of days gone by These stories I listened to as a child and throughout my life Those of my family and friends that arent here in person now are still here in the stories about them and people places and events that we all seem to never forget However Ive noticed a flaw to the telling of our memories When those who can recall and tell the stories are about to pass away almost always so does all that they remembered So I decided that as I myself love to tell the stories I am not going to let that happen to me So I have been writing short stories so my children and grandchildren will be able to always have them to read Since I began writing Ive gained interest from my cousins and old friends who also want to read them As time has moved forward the number of memories continues to grow and I write more memories to keep I hope that reading this compilation of short stories will give you some opportunity to recall Life should have smiles and a laugh or two and I hope you find them within The Black Women Oral History Project.
