Tensions In Moral Theology:

Tensions in Moral Theology Charles E. Curran, 1988 Tensions in Moral Theology Charles E. Curran (sac.), 1988 A Call to Fidelity James J. Walter, Timothy E. O'Connell, Thomas A. Shannon, 2002-10-17 A Call to Fidelity seeks to thoughtfully examine and critically evaluate the contributions that Charles E Curran has made to the field of Catholic moral theology over the past forty years It also seeks to assess the development of specific topics in contemporary moral theology to which Curran has made his unique mark particularly in fundamental ethics sexual and medical ethics social and political ethics and topics related to dialogue with other traditions and approaches to Catholic ethics Reviewing the many years of his influential writings thought and scholarship fourteen distinguished scholars examine his contributions and the current state of the topics under discussion which are as far ranging as academic freedom birth control gay and lesbian relationships and feminism Each contributor also provides a critical evaluation of Curran s work and outlines how these areas will hold or undergo transformation as the church looks toward its relationship with society and culture in the coming decades Moral Theology James Keating, 2004 Gathers together some of the top moral theologians to recognize and honour the work of James P Hanigan and to present their own personal visions on the present state and future direction of fundamental moral theology

The Development of Moral Theology Charles E. Curran, 2013-11-08 Charles Curran in his newest book The Development of Moral Theology Five Strands brings a unique historical and critical analysis to the five strands that differentiate Catholic moral theology from other approaches to Christian ethics sin and the manuals of moral theology the teaching of Thomas Aquinas and later Thomists natural law the role of authoritative church teaching in moral areas and Vatican II Significant changes have occurred over the course of these historical developments In addition pluralism and diversity exist even today as illustrated for example in the theory of natural law proposed by Cardinal Ratzinger In light of these realities Curran proposes his understanding of how the strands should influence moral theology today A concluding chapter highlights the need for a truly theological approach and calls for a significant change in the way that the papal teaching office functions today and its understanding of natural law In a work useful to anyone who studies Catholic moral theology The Development of Moral Theology underscores in the light of the historical development of these strands the importance of a truly theological and critical approach to moral theology that has significant ramifications for the life of the Catholic church Oliver O'Donovan's Moral Theology Samuel Tranter, 2020 Groundwork the natural ethic Topography Resurrection and moral order the objective reality Contour Resurrection and moral order the subjective reality Territory The desire of the nations The ways of judgment Remapping ethics as theology A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it is adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

Social Ethics in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2011-04-06 In the early 1880s proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics This ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics one that began with the distinctly modern idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice Charts the story of social ethics the idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day Discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy church and general public Looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics from academics and self styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists Set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics Recipient of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 award

Loyal Dissent Charles E. Curran, 2006-05-01 Loyal Dissent is the candid and inspiring story of a Catholic priest and theologian who despite being stripped of his right to teach as a Catholic theologian by the Vatican remains committed to the Catholic Church Over a nearly fifty year career Charles E Curran has distinguished himself as the most well known and the most controversial Catholic moral theologian in the United States On occasion he has disagreed with official church teachings on subjects such as contraception homosexuality divorce abortion moral norms and the role played by the hierarchical teaching office in moral matters Throughout however Curran has remained a committed Catholic a priest working for the reform of a pilgrim church His positions he insists are always in accord with the best understanding of Catholic theology and always dedicated to the good of the church In 1986 years of clashes with church authorities finally culminated in a decision by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith headed by then Cardinal Josef Ratzinger that Curran was neither suitable nor eligible to be a professor of Catholic theology. As a result of that Vatican condemnation he was fired from his teaching position at Catholic University of America and since then no Catholic university has been willing to hire him. Yet Curran continues to defend the possibility of legitimate dissent from those teachings of the Catholic faith not core or central to it that are outside the realm of infallibility. In word and deed he has worked in support of more academic freedom in Catholic higher education and for a structural change in the church that would increase the role of the Catholic community from local churches and parishes to all the baptized people of God. In this poignant and passionate memoir Curran recounts his remarkable story from his early years as a compliant pre-Vatican II Catholic through decades of teaching and writing and a transformation that has brought him today to be recognized as a leader of progressive Catholicism throughout the world.

Missional Ecclesiologies in Creative Tension Joon-Sik Park, 2007. In this masterful study of the critical issues in missional ecclesiology Joon Sik Park reflects on two prominent twentieth-century theologians: H. Richard Niebuhr (1894–1962) and John Howard Yoder (1927–1997) and integrates the insights of their respective traditions. Although ecclesiology was a major concern to both Niebuhr and Yoder, their views on the nature and calling of the church were distinct. Whereas Niebuhr, a theologian in the Evangelical and Reformed tradition, was concerned with defining the church in relation to a universal community, Yoder, standing within the Mennonite tradition, was interested in representing the church as an alternative community. Although Niebuhr was reluctant to distinguish the church sharply from the world, Yoder stressed the distinctiveness of the church from the world and considered the Christian faith a decisive difference between believing and unbelieving communities. Seeking to construct an integral missional ecclesiology, Joon Sik Park carefully engages Niebuhr and Yoder and proposes a critical synthesis of their strengths. He holds in creative tension the contradistinctive ecclesiologies of Niebuhr and Yoder by means of Lesslie Newbigin's logic of election, providing a way to overcome an impasse between the two theologians.
