Tenured Bosses And Disposable Teachers Writing Instruction In The Managed University:

Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers Marc Bousquet, Tony Scott, Leo Parascondola, 2004 Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers Writing Instruction in the Managed University exposes the poor working conditions of contingent composition faculty and explores practical alternatives to the unfair labor practices that are all too common on campuses today. Editors Marc Bousquet, Tony Scott, and Leo Parascondola bring together diverse perspectives from pragmatism to historical materialism to provide a perceptive and engaging examination of the nature, extent, and economics of the managed labor problem in composition instruction, a field in which as much as ninety-three percent of all classes are taught by graduate students, adjuncts, and other disposable teachers. These instructors enjoy few benefits, meager wages, little or no participation in departmental governance, and none of the rewards and protections that encourage innovation and research. And it is from this disenfranchised position that literacy workers are expected to provide some of the core instruction in nearly everyone's higher education experience. Twenty-six contributors explore a range of real-world solutions to managerial domination of the composition workplace, from traditional academic unionism to ensemble movement activism and the pragmatic rhetoric of accommodations and resistances practiced by teachers in their daily lives. Contributors are Leann Bertoncini, Marc Bousquet, Christopher Carter, Christopher Ferry, David Downing, Amanda Godley, Robin Truth Goodman, Bill Hendricks, Walter Jacobsohn, Ruth Kiefson, Paul Lauter, Donald Lazere, Eric Marshall, Randy Martin, Richard Ohmann, Leo Parascondola, Steve Parks, Gary Rhoades, Eileen Schell, Tony Scott, William Thelin, Jennifer Seibel Trainor, Donna Strickland, William Vaughn Ray Watkins, and Katherine Wills.

Parascondola Steve Parks Gary Rhoades Eileen Schell Tony Scott William Thelin Jennifer Seibel Trainor Donna Strickland William Vaughn Ray Watkins and Katherine Wills Keywords in Writing Studies Paul Heilker, John

Vandenbergh, 2015-02-15 Keywords in Writing Studies is an exploration of the principal ideas and ideals of an emerging academic field as they are constituted by its specialized vocabulary A sequel to the 1996 work Keywords in Composition Studies this new volume traces the evolution of the field's lexicon taking into account the wide variety of theoretical educational professional and institutional developments that have redefined it over the past two decades Contributors address the development transformation and interconnections among thirty six of the most critical terms that make up writing studies Looking beyond basic definitions or explanations they explore the multiple layers of meaning within the terms that writing scholars currently use exchange and question Each term featured is a part of the general disciplinary parlance and each is a highly contested focal point of significant debates about matters of power identity and values Each essay begins with the assumption that its central term is important precisely because its meaning is open and multiplex Keywords in Writing Studies reveals how the key concepts in the field are used and even challenged rather than advocating particular usages and the particular vision of the field that they imply The volume will be of great interest to both graduate students and established scholars How the University Works Marc Bousquet, 2008

Uncovers the labor exploitation occurring in universities across the country As much as we think we know about the modern university very little has been said about what it's like to work there Instead of the high wage high profit world of knowledge work most campus employees including the vast majority of faculty really work in the low wage low profit sphere of the service economy Tenure track positions are at an all time low with adjuncts and graduate students teaching the majority of courses This super exploited corps of disposable workers commonly earn fewer than 16 000 annually without benefits teaching as many as eight classes per year Even undergraduates are being exploited as a low cost disposable workforce Marc Bousquet a major figure in the academic labor movement exposes the seamy underbelly of higher education a world where faculty graduate students and undergraduates work long hours for fast food wages Assessing the costs of higher education's corporatization on faculty and students at every level How the University Works is urgent reading for anyone interested in the fate of the university Rewriting Resistance to Social Justice Pedagogies Wilton S. Wright, 2024-08-19 Resistance to feminist queer and antiracist pedagogies can take many forms in the composition class silence during class discussion tepid bland writing that fails to engage with course content refusal to engage with feminist and queer ideas open and direct challenges to professors authority Rewriting Resistance to Social Justice Pedagogies argues that composition studies has not adequately addressed the complex and deeply local contexts and causes of resistance Therefore the author argues that resistance research must first understand the origins and purpose for a student's resistance interrogating the language used to name and describe students who resist Composition instructors must then give students the tools to uncover and investigate their reasons for resistance themselves challenging students to continually interrogate their resistances This book utilizes feminist composition pedagogies masculinity studies and queer pedagogies to engage student resistance in the writing classroom First Semester Jessica Restaino,2012-02 Using a three part theoretical construct labor action and work as defined in Hannah Arendt s work of political and social theory The Human Condition and rich qualitative data gathered from course observations interviews and correspondence Jessica Restaino looks at the experiences of four new graduate students who are first year writing teachers at Public U a large state university Transforming English Studies Lori Ostergaard,Jeff Ludwig,2009-02-23 Transforming English Studies provides a uniquely interdisciplinary view of English studies crises both real and imagined and works toward resolving the legitimate pathologies that threaten the sustainability of the discipline A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators 2e Rita Malenczyk,2016-09-01 A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators 2nd Edition presents the major issues and questions in the field of writing program administration The collection provides aspiring new and seasoned WPAs with the theoretical lenses terminologies historical contexts and research they need to understand the nature history and complexities of their intellectual and administrative work Entertaining Fear Catherine Chaput,Mary Jean Braun,Danika Margo Brown,2010 At the heart of how citizens governments and the media interact is the communication process a process that is undergoing tremendous change Never has there been a time when confronting the complexity of these evolving relationships has been so important to the maintenance of civil society This series seeks books that advance the understanding of this process from multiple perspectives and as it occurs in both institutionalized and non institutionalized political settings Working Conditions in a Marketised University System Krista Bonello,Lena Wånggren,2023-11-24 This book provides an in depth qualitative report on casualised academic staff in the UK mapping shared experiences and strategies for resistance Bringing together testimonial data spanning seven years it offers evidence of how precarious labour conditions have persisted shifted and intensified The book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars in the fields of education human resources management labour studies and sociology as well as trade unionists and university policymakers
