Ireland on Show Fintan Cullen,2017-07-05 Looking past the apparent lack of a sustainable Irish display culture this book demonstrates that there is a very full story to tell of the way Ireland displayed its art from the late eighteenth to the early twentieth century Ireland on Show analyzes the impact of the display of art as a significant political and cultural feature in the make up of nineteenth century Ireland and in how Ireland was viewed beyond its own shores in particular in Great Britain and the United States Fintan Cullen directs much needed critical attention and analysis to a subject that has been largely overlooked from an Irish perspective This study moves beyond museums to address the range of art institutions in Irish cities that displayed art from the Royal Hibernian Academy founded in the 1820s to Hugh Lane s Municipal Art Gallery opened in Dublin in 1908 Throughout the book explores the battle between the display of a unionist ethos and a nationalist point of view a constant that resurfaces over the period By highlighting the tension between unionist and nationalist viewpoints Cullen uses the display of art to investigate the complexities of Irish cultural life before the founding of the Free State

Willie Doherty Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev,Caoimhín Mac Giolla Léith,Willie Doherty,2002 Published to accompany the exhibition Willie Doherty false memory held at the Irish Museum of Modern Art Dublin 31 October 2002 2 March 2003

"Exhibiting Outside the Academy, Salon and Biennial, 1775-1999 " Andrew Graciano,2017-07-05 In recent years there has been increasing scholarly interest in the history of museums academies and major exhibitions There has been however little to no sustained interest in the histories of alternative exhibitions single artwork solo artist artist mounted entrepreneurial privately funded ephemeral etc with the notable exception of those publications that deal with situations involving major artists or those who would become so for example J L David s exhibition of Intervention of the Sabine Women 1799 and The First Impressionist Exhibition of 1874 despite the fact that these sorts of exhibitions and critical scholarship about them have become commonplace and no less important in the contemporary art world The present volume uses and contextualizes eleven case studies to advance some overarching themes and commonalities among alternative exhibitions in the long modern period from the late eighteenth to the late twentieth centuries and beyond These include the issue of control in the interrelation and elision of the roles of artist and curator and the relationship of such alternative exhibitions to the dominant modes structures of display and cultural ideology
