"New" Exoticisms , 2022-04-19 All civilisations have both feared and been fascinated by what lies beyond their limits and have to a greater or lesser extent construed their others as exotics Given that even in its most consumerist fashion the adoption of the exotic goes back a long way what then if anything is new in contemporary versions of exoticism This volume attempts to offer some answers to this question The first of its three sections serves as an extended introduction to the concept and practice of exoticism considering the phenomenon from a number of theoretical and critical positions explicitly examining sometimes via significant examples the particular attributes of exoticism The second and third sections are more strictly text based relying on the analysis of specific instances of film in the former and literature in the latter in order to tease out some specific uses of the exotic whether ethnic gendered sexual or other This volume will be of interest to scholars and students working in the fields of representation cultural theory postcolonialism gender ethnicity sexuality cinema and literature

The Pretender of Pitcairn Island Tillman W. Nechtman, 2018-09-13 Pitcairn a tiny Pacific island that was refuge to the mutineers of HMAV Bounty and home to their descendants later became the stage on which one imposter played out his influential vision for British control over the nineteenth century Pacific Ocean Joshua W Hill arrived on Pitcairn in 1832 and began his fraudulent half decade rule that has until now been swept aside as an idiosyncratic moment in the larger saga of Fletcher Christian s mutiny against Captain Bligh and the mutineers unlikely settlement of Pitcairn Here Hill is shown instead as someone alert to the full scope and power of the British Empire to the geopolitics of international imperial competition to the ins and outs of naval command the vicissitudes of court politics and as such to Pitcairn s symbolic power for the British Empire more broadly

Facing the Pacific

Jeffrey A. Geiger, 2007-04-30 The enduring popularity of Polynesia in western literature art and film attests to the pleasures that Pacific islands have over the centuries afforded the consuming gaze of the west connoting solitude release from cares and more recently self-renewal away from urbanized modern life Facing the Pacific is the first study to offer a detailed look at the United States' intense engagement with the myth of the South Seas just after the First World War when at home a popular vogue for all things Polynesian seemed to echo the expansion of U.S. imperialist activities abroad Jeffrey Geiger looks at a variety of texts that helped to invent a vision of Polynesia for U.S. audiences focusing on a group of writers and filmmakers whose mutual fascination with the South Pacific drew them together and would eventually drive some of them apart Key figures discussed in this volume are Frederick O'Brien author of the bestseller White Shadows in the South Seas filmmaker Robert Flaherty and his wife Frances Hubbard Flaherty who collaborated on Moana director W.S. Van Dyke who worked with Robert Flaherty on MGM's adaptation of White Shadows and Expressionist director F.W. Murnau whose last film Tabu was co-directed with Flaherty

Migrations Rod Edmond, 2013 Traces the journeys of his Scottish forebears as they separately made their way to New Zealand The migration story begins with Charles Murray leaving Aberdeenshire in 1884 to become a missionary on the island of Ambrym On the other side of Scotland Catherine McLeod and her family had already abandoned their small coastal croft and sailed for Tasmania Back cover

Happiness Across Cultures Helaine Selin, Gareth Davey, 2012-02-29 Different cultures experience happiness differently Traditionally the West is considered

materialistic and happiness is said to come from achievement and acquisition The East is said to be more people oriented where happiness is a result of deep personal interactions Thus poor people can be happier in the East than the West because they are not so concerned with possession and more with society This book considers happiness and quality of life in non Western countries and cultures Its coverage is diverse and spans the breadth of the non Western world revealing unique perspectives of happiness and life quality embedded in rich cultural traditions and histories Tales from the Torrid Zone Alexander Frater,2011-06-15 Alexander Frater was born to a family of Scottish expatriates on the tiny island of Irikiki in the South Seas Following his dreams of being a writer Frater left home but the call of the tropics compelled him to return again and again Join him as he dines with the Queen of Tonga makes his way through two civil wars visits the spots where surfing and bungee jumping originated and expresses his love for the region where he is at once a tourist explorer adventurer and native son From Tahiti to Thailand Mexico to Mozambique Frater gives us a richly described endlessly surprising picture of this diverse feverish languorously beautiful world Sea Kayaking John Dowd,2015-04-20 Sea Kayaking covers the basics of equipment and technique including types of paddles and strokes as well as such essential skills as how to read the weather and the water how to navigate with and without GPS and how to travel with a group Still regarded as the bible for both new and experienced kayakers after more than thirty years in print Drawing on his many years of experience paddling in all climates John Dowd presents practical advice on dealing with potential hazards from surf to sea ice to sharks carrying out rescues and planning for long distance expeditions New for this edition are hints about digital technologies for planning and navigating while kayak touring as well as lots of tips for outfitting boats adapting equipment and finessing fishing technique while kayak angling whether casting and jigging for fun on a day trip or trolling for dinner on a longer expedition Also fully updated are the sections on managing risk and the inspiring stories of adventure including Freya Hoffmeister s record breaking circumnavigation of Australia and Japanese paddlers increasingly challenging trips around the islands and beyond As a sport sea kayaking continues to evolve Once the sport of a very few long distance paddlers embarking on international expeditions then the recreational pursuit of many weekend tourers sea kayaking is now popular with many day trippers as well As more and more paddlers take to the water for the day the weekend or many months this classic guide continues to be required reading for those seeking adventure on the open ocean Travel Writing from Black Australia Robert Clarke,2015-11-19 Over the past thirty years the Australian travel experience has been Aboriginalized Aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the Australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand This is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many Aboriginal people in Australian society On the one hand Aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation On the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing Aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of Aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored For many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing Aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in Australia Travel Writing from Black Australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with Aboriginality Concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on Aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to Black Australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement swords Bertil Lintner offers a fascinating look at organized crime in the Asia Pacific Both Western and Asian pundits assert that shady deals are an Asian way of life Some argue that corruption and illicit business ventures gambling prostitution drug trafficking gun running oil smuggling are entrenched parts of the Asian value system Yet many Asian leaders maintain that their cities are safer than Sydney Amsterdam New York and Los Angeles Making use of expertise gained from twenty years of living in Asia Lintner exposes the role crime plays in the countries of the Far East In Blood Brothers he takes you inside the criminal fraternities of Asia examining these networks and their past histories in order to answer one question How are civil societies all over the world to be protected from the worst excesses of increasingly globalised mobsters The South Sea Island Frits Andersen, 2024-02-07 When the first European explorers ventured into the unknown Pacific Ocean their minds were filled with tales of remote paradisiacal islands Hopeful ideas of noble savages ecological balance and immense riches gave them the courage to search for a new world even when faced with the unimaginable The South Sea Island A Geography of Pleasure is a journey through the history of ideas and literature over three centuries of European and American narratives about islands oceans and archipelagos Literary scholar Frits Andersen reads and analyses travel accounts paintings films and novels from the 18th century up until the present day by visual artists and authors including Paul Gauguin Herman Melville Robert Louis Stevenson Jules Verne and Thor Heyerdahl These readings combined with Andersen's eye for pleasure sense and longing give rise to a novel literary history of the disappearing Pacific islands At the same time the book offers historical models that we can use today to enhance our understanding of and find new answers to global political and climate related challenges Frits Andersen is a professor of Comparative Literature at Aarhus University Denmark His previous works include The Dark Continent Images of Africa in European Narratives about the Congo 2016 The Danish edition of this book entitled Sydhavs en Nydelsens geografi received the Georg Brandes Prize Endless Summer Michael Frankel, 2007 In celebration of the approaching 21st century the author joined the 46 foot ketch Hornblower II in a round the world rally The British sponsored Millennium Odyssey started in 1998 with a flame lighting ceremony in the Old City of Jerusalem and ended on Easter Day 2000 at the Vatican There rally organizer Jimmy Cornell presented Pope John Paul II a lantern with the flame carried around the world from the Church of the Holy Sepulchre The author recounts his east west voyage along the coconut milk run through the Panama Canal across the Pacific Indian and South Atlantic oceans then back to the Caribbean and Florida Along the way he reflects on the marine ecosystem globalization and the history of exploration starting with Marco Polo Ibn Battuta Zheng He Magellan to Cook Islands Steven Roger Fischer, 2013-02-15 When Lost's Oceanic Airlines Flight 815 crashed the survivors found themselves on a seemingly deserted island In Defoe's novel Robinson Crusoe spends twenty eight years on a remote tropical island near Trinidad while in the movie Castaway Tom Hanks survives over four years on a South Pacific island And Jurassic Park kept its dinosaur population confined to an island off the coast of Central America Islands often find themselves at the center of imagined worlds secluded and sometimes mystical locales filled with strange

Mysterious Islands Oliver Scott,AI,2025-03-06 Mysterious Islands explores often overlooked landmasses arguing they re crucial to understanding human history These isolated locales serve as unique laboratories where cultural evolution and adaptation are dramatically accelerated and preserved The book posits that islands far from being insignificant offer a microcosm for larger historical trends showcasing human resilience and the interplay between societies and their environments For instance the unique cultural formations and historical puzzles found on islands challenge our understanding of the past while the absence of mainland influences creates unique cultural traits The book delves into island exploration analyzing cultural development and ecological impact within island societies It presents historical records archaeological findings and ethnographic studies to support its thesis referencing islands like Easter Island with its enigmatic Moai statues or the cultural impact of Pitcairn Island The book progresses from introducing geographical and cultural features to examining the interplay between isolation and cultural development and finally to exploring the ecological impact of human colonization This approach connects fields like anthropology and environmental studies enriching the exploration of historical events
