The Harlem Renaissance Literature Thought:

Remembering the Harlem Renaissance Cary D. Wintz, 2013-08-21 This volume tracks the many surveys of black literature created during the Harlem Renaissance. Noted works by such authors as Sterling Brown, Benjamin Brawley, and Langston Hughes are covered. Retrospectives also appeared in the journal Phylon and many of those also appear in this collection.

W. E. B. Du Bois: International Thought W. E. B. Du Bois, 2022-11-17 Highlights W. E. B. Du Bois's sustained engagement with empire and internationalism through essays and speeches spanning the years 1900-1956. The Harlem Renaissance Stuart A. Kallen, 2009-05-29 Author Stuart A. Kallen provides a fascinating overview of the African American cultural movement that began in the 1920s and was centered in Harlem, New York. Readers will learn about the important events and accomplishments during the struggle for human and civil rights. The art, theater, jazz, and literary genius of the Harlem Renaissance will thrill you, readers. A History of American Thought 1860-2000 Daniel Wickberg, 2023-09-07 This book is a comprehensive overview of the history of modern American thought and examines a wide range of modern thought and thinkers from 1860, when Charles Darwin's Origin of Species was published in the United States, to the end of the twentieth century. The focus of this volume is on the destabilizing effects of modern challenges to notions of fixed order and absolute truths and the contradictory consequences for philosophical, political, social, and aesthetic thought. The intellectual response to the unprecedented changes of this era produced visions of both liberation from the hierarchies of the past and new forms of control and constraint. One of the central contradictions in modern thought was between biological and cultural ideas of social, psychological, and moral order. This is the first work to provide an interpretive vision of the entire period under consideration. Topics covered include evolutionary thought, philosophical Pragmatism, ideas of race and gender, pluralism, and cultural relativism. Cold War Liberalism, science, and religion, feminist thought, evolutionary psychology, and the late twentieth century Culture Wars. Thinkers from William James and Charlotte Perkins Gilman through Judith Butler and Cornel West are analyzed as historical figures. This volume is an ideal resource for a general audience as well as undergraduate and graduate students in the field of American intellectual history. The Harlem Renaissance in Black and White George Hutchinson, 1995 By restoring interracial dimensions left out of accounts of the Harlem Renaissance or blamed for corrupting it, George Hutchinson transforms our understanding of black and white literary modernism, interracial literary relations, and twentieth-century cultural nationalism in the United States. New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement Lisa Gail Collins, Margo Natalie Crawford, 2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s, a cadre of poets, playwrights, visual artists, musicians, and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art. This charged chapter in the history of African American culture, which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement, has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics. New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well-known figures such as Amiri Baraka, Larry Neal, Gwendolyn Brooks, Sonia Sanchez, Betye Saar, Jeff Donaldson, and Haki Madhubuti. In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its critique

The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

Narratives of African American Women's Literary Pragmatism and Creative Democracy Gregory Phipps, 2018-11-02 This book charts an interdisciplinary narrative of literary pragmatism and creative democracy across the writings of African American women from the works of nineteenth century philosophers to the novels and short stories of Harlem Renaissance authors The book argues that this critically neglected narrative forms a genealogy of black feminist intersectionality and a major contribution to the development of American pragmatism Bringing together the philosophical writings of Maria Stewart Anna Julia Cooper and Mary Church Terrell and the fictional works of Jessie Fauset Nella Larsen and Zora Neale Hurston this text provides a literary pragmatist study of the archetypes tropes settings and modes of resistance that populate the narrative of creative democracy Above all this book considers how these philosophers and authors construct democracy as a lived experience that gains meaning not through state institutions but through communities founded on relationships among black women and their shared understandings of culture knowledge experience and rebellion

Voices from the Harlem Renaissance Nathan Irvin Huggins, 1995 Nathan Irvin Huggins showcases more than 120 selections from the political writings and arts of the Harlem Renaissance Featuring works by such greats as Langston Hughes Aaron Douglas and Gwendolyn Bennett here is an extraordinary look at the remarkable outpouring of African American literature and art during the 1920s

Dark Thoughts Charles Lemert, 2013-10-18 In Dark Thoughts eminent sociologist Charles Lemert dares to say and explain what everyone already knows that the modern world was built on the need of white people to pretend they are not as dark as the next person Delving poignantly into the history and literature of domination Lemert retells key moments of the twentieth century by profiling figures like W E B DuBois Charlotte Perkins Gilman Anna Julia Cooper Nella Larson Malcolm X and Muhammad Ali In a rare and unflinching look at his own complicated history Lemert also explores his own racism his struggle with the suicide of his oldest son as well as growing up as the virtual son of a black mother and his life now as the real father of an African American daughter DarkThoughts speaks to the most urgent social issues at the beginning of the twenty first century race relations multiculturalism and social justice

Thinking in Public Celucien L. Joseph, 2017-04-25 Thinking in Public provides a probing and provocative meditation on the intellectual life and legacy of Jacques Roumain As a work of intellectual history the book investigates the intersections of religious ideas secular humanism and development within the framework of Roumain s public intellectualism and cultural criticism embodied in his prolific writings The book provides a reconceptualization of Roumain s intellectual itineraries against the backdrop of two public spheres a national public sphere Haiti and a transnational public sphere the global world Second it remaps and reframes Roumain s intellectual circuits and his critical engagements within a wide range of intellectual traditions cultural and political movements and philosophical and religious systems Third the book argues that Roumain s perspective on religion social development and his critiques of religion in general and of institutionalized Christianity in particular were substantially influenced by a Marxist philosophy of history and secular humanist approach to faith and human progress Finally the book advances the idea that Roumain s concept of development is linked to the theories of democratic socialism relational anthropology distributive justice and communitarianism Ultimately this work demonstrates that Roumain believed that only through effective human solidarity and collaboration can serious social transformation and real human emancipation take place

Thinking Through Crisis James Edward Ford, 2019-11-05 Winner 2020 William Sanders Scarborough Prize Modern Language Association Honorable Mention MSA First Book Prize In Thinking Through Crisis James Edward Ford III examines the works of Richard Wright Ida B Wells W E B Du Bois Zora Neale Hurston and Langston Hughes during the 1930s in order to articulate a materialist theory of trauma Ford highlights the dark proletariat s emergence from the multitude apposite to white supremacist agendas In these works Ford argues proletarian modernist and surrealist aesthetics transform fugitive slaves sharecroppers leased convicts levee workers and activist intellectuals into protagonists of anti racist and anti capitalist movements in the United States Thinking Through Crisis intervenes in debates on the 1930s radical subjectivity and states of emergency It will be of interest to scholars of American literature African American literature proletarian literature black studies trauma theory and political theory

Reading Multiple Consciousness Komla M. Avono, 2024-12-15 For over a century the intellectual debate of scholars from African descent has been dominated by the idea of double consciousness spearheaded by W E B DuBois Interestingly with many years of vexatious issues of the encounter between the West and Africa many scholars approached the debate on the basis of the consciousness of the Self and the Other However this idea seems to overlook the multiplicities of being black white Reading

Multiple Consciousness Exploring the Complexity of Postmodern Identity suggests a different approach to the issue by taking more steps beyond double consciousness. It enriches the debate over race literature and colonization as it offers another way of reading texts. This book proposes that the complexity of postmodern identity is more accurately described by a theory of multiple consciousness. This study arises out of the necessity of a more nuanced theoretical framework for a younger generation of researchers on both sides of the Atlantic: a conceptual approach that does justice to the complexity of their experience.
