The Hearing Trumpet:

The Hearing Trumpet Leonora Carrington, 2021-01-05 An old woman enters into a fantastical world of dreams and nightmares in this surrealist classic admired by Björk and Luis Buñuel Leonora Carrington painter playwright and novelist was a surrealist trickster par excellence and The Hearing Trumpet is the witty celebratory key to her anarchic and allusive body of work The novel begins in the bourgeois comfort of a residential corner of a Mexican city and ends with a man made apocalypse that promises to usher in the earth's rebirth In between we are swept off to a most curious old age home run by a self improvement cult and drawn several centuries back in time with a cross dressing Abbess who is on a quest to restore the Holy Grail to its rightful owner the Goddess Venus Guiding us is one of the most unexpected heroines in twentieth century literature a nonagenarian vegetarian named Marian Leatherby who as Olga Tokarczuk writes in her afterword is hard of hearing but full of life Surrealism, Feminism, Psychoanalysis Natalya Lusty, 2017-03-02

How did women Surrealists such as Leonora Carrington and Claude Cahun take up the question of female identity in terms of their own aesthetic and intellectual practice What was the response of women analysts such as Joan Riviere to Freud's psychoanalytic construction of femininity These are among the questions that Natalya Lusty brings to her sophisticated and theoretically informed investigation into the appropriation of the feminine by the Surrealist movement Combining biographical and textual methods of analysis with historically specific discussions of related cultural sites such as women's magazines fashion debutante culture sexology modernist lesbian subculture pornography and female criminality the book examines the ambiguities and blind spots that haunt the work of more central figures such as André Breton Georges Bataille Jacques Lacan Walter Benjamin and the Surrealist photographer Hans Bellmer Lusty's examination of a series of psychoanalytic Surrealist themes including narcissism fantasy masquerade perversion and the double illuminates a modernist preoccupation with the crisis of subjectivity and representation and its ongoing relevance to more recent work by Cindy Sherman and Judith Butler Her book is an important contribution to modernist studies that will appeal to scholars and students working across a diverse range of fields including literary studies gender studies visual culture cultural studies and cultural history The Hearing Aid

Kenneth Berger, 1974 The Edinburgh Encyclopædia Sir David Brewster, 1830 The medium of Leonora Carrington Catriona McAra, 2022-11-29 Before her death the artist and writer Leonora Carrington 1917-2011 had already garnered a cult following with numerous creative people making the pilgrimage to meet her at her home in Mexico City Since then her fame has only increased Thinking across contemporary art media this book demonstrates how Carrington has posthumously become a medium in her own right critically haunting the creative intellectuals who met or knew her It explores the work of a remarkable variety of individuals and organisations including the artists Lucy Skaer Samantha Sweeting and Lynn Lu the actress Tilda Swinton the novelists Chloe Aridjis and Heidi Pitlor and the ensemble Double Edge Theatre This long awaited study provides essential reading for both new and established members of the burgeoning Carrington fan club

Re-reading the Monstrous-Feminine Nicholas Chare, Jeanette Hoorn, Audrey Yue, 2019-10-08 This book provides a critical reappraisal of Barbara Creed's ground-breaking work of feminist psychoanalytic film scholarship The Monstrous Feminine which was first published in 1993. The Monstrous Feminine married psychoanalytic thinking with film analysis in radically new ways to provide an invaluable corrective to conventional approaches to the study of women in horror films with their narrow emphasis on women's victimhood. This volume which will mark 25 years since the publication of The Monstrous Feminine brings together essays by international scholars working across a variety of disciplines who take up Creed's ideas in new ways and fresh contexts or more broadly explore possible futures for feminist and/or psychoanalytically informed art history and film theory.

Technified Muses Sara A. Potter, 2024-10-08 In this volume Sara Potter uses the idea of the muse from Greek mythology and the cyborg from posthuman theory to consider the portrayal of female characters and their bodies in Mexican art and literature from the 1920s to the present examining genres including science fiction, cyberpunk and popular fiction.

Beyond Given Knowledge Harri Veivo, Jean-Pierre Montier, Françoise Nicol, David Ayers, Benedikt Hjartarson, Sascha Bru, 2017-12-18 The effort to go beyond given knowledge in different domains artistic, scientific, political, metaphysical is a characteristic driving force in modernism and the avant-gardes. Since the late 19th century artists and writers have frequently investigated their medium and its limits, pursued political and religious aims and explored hitherto unknown physical, social and conceptual spaces often in ways that combine these forms of critical inquiry into one and provoke further theoretical and methodological innovations. The fifth volume of the EAM series casts light on the history and actuality of investigations, quests and explorations in the European avant-garde and modernism from the late 19th century to the present day. The authors seek to answer questions such as: How have modernism and the avant-garde appropriated scientific knowledge, religious dogmas and social conventions, pursuing their investigation beyond the limits of given knowledge and conceptions? How have modernism and avant-garde created new conceptual models or representations where other discourses have allegedly failed? In what ways do practices of investigation, quest or exploration shape artistic work or the formal and thematic structures of artworks?

The Literature of Hell Margaret Kean, 2021 Essays considering the representation and perception of hell in a variety of texts. Narratives of a descent to the underworld of the sights to be seen and the punishments meted out there have kept a hold on the popular imagination for millennia. The legacy from doctrinal warnings and the deep-set literary markers that identify a place of suffering and alienation continue to stimulate creative exchange and critical thinking. Such work takes risks, it braves the dark and questions the past. The contributions in this volume reflect on the exigency of hell in the stories that we tell. They consider the transfer and repurposing of motifs across genres and generational divides and acknowledge the sustained immediacy of physical and psychological landscapes of hell The essays span a wide chronological range and apply various contemporary critical approaches including cognitive science performance studies and narratology This cross period analysis is complemented by interviews with three creative practitioners Jeya Ayadurai director of Hell s Museum in Singapore the actor Lisa Dwan who is acclaimed for her dramatisation of Samuel Beckett s late works and the writer David Almond From ancient myth and early English sermons to mid twentieth century surrealism and current responses to terrorist activities and environmental damage the literature of hell engages with issues of immediate relevance and asks its audiences to reflect on their cultural history the meaning of social justice and the nature of embodied existence Elements of Natural Philosophy, Etc Alonso GRAY,1850

Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism s mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille s theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille s dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille s theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège s thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre
