The Helden:

The Helden Deborah Bickmore, 2013-11-23 THE LAW OF THE TRIBE Revised Edition Held law had been called Senea along with the other firstborn of her tribe was summoned to the Held fortress there to train as a Helden warrior The firstborn would never see family or home again Their lives would be to fight to become the silent unseen guardians of their people Sena trained with Vayhawk the greatest warrior of the Held and this training was in earnest For other warriors from other lands were coming to claim Senea's tribe's lands for their own And the greatest threat came from the Ja sid who carried a power within them a blackness that could destroy the soul Senea realized that they were playing a dangerous game it was apparent that there was no defense against the foul Ja sid Only an ancient forbidden Held practice promised any hope but it was this very power that made the tribes people fear Helden even though their lives depended on the Held's protection Senea and Vayhawk soon realized they must discover their own kind of battle magic even as they defended their backs from intrigues within the Held

H. Evans (London), 1836 The Problem of Christ in the Work of Friedrich Hölderlin Mark Ogden, 1991

This study sets out to challenge the usual approach to the question of Holderlin's response to Christ which focuses on no more than two or three late hymns by tracing through each major stage of Holderlin's work a series of latent Christological debates. These debates in which philosophy, theology and poetry converge represent Holderlin's engagement with the urgent intellectual issues of his day. Bibliotheca Heberiana ; Catalogue Of The Library Of The Late Richard Heber, Esq

Richard Heber, 1836 Historical Destiny and National Socialism in Heidegger's Being and Time Johannes

Fritzsche, 2023-04-28 There has been much debate over the relationship of Heidegger's philosophy in particular his book Being and Time to his practical involvement with National Socialism. Yet the question has never been addressed through a comparison of Being and Time with other texts on history and politics written at the time. Johannes Fritzsche does this providing a detailed interpretation of the relevant passages in Being and Time especially sections 72-77 on fate, community and society. He analyzes for comparison two other authors who explicitly regarded themselves as rightists: Adolf Hitler's Mein Kampf and Max Scheler's Formalism in Ethics and other writings and two authors on the left: Georg Lukács's History and Class Consciousness and Paul Tillich's The Socialist Decision. Fritzsche concludes that Being and Time is a brilliant summary of right-wing politics in general which proposes the destruction of liberal society in order to regenerate an idealized community. In addition, Heidegger rejects positions on the right such as Scheler's that enabled their authors to distance themselves from the most extreme political rightists and thus he paves the way for National Socialism. Being and Time, Fritzsche demonstrates, must be seen as a clear case for the National Socialists and their project of revitalization of the Volksgemeinschaft, the community of the people. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates the University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1999. There has been much debate over the relationship of Heidegger's philosophy in particular his book Being and Time to his practical involvement with National Socialism. Yet the question has never been addressed through a comparison of Being and Time and The Publishers Weekly, 1994. On Nations and the Churches: Ecumenical Responses to Nationalisms and Migration / Nationen und Kirchen: Ökumenische Antworten auf Nationalismus und Migration Jelle Creemers, Ulrike Link-Wieczorek, 2020-11-01 Kirchen in Europa haben eine spezifische Erfahrungsgeschichte mit ihrer Verhältnissenbestimmung zur Nation. Obwohl im Prinzip darüber einig, dass der christliche Glaube in seiner Grundtendenz von einem internationalen ja universalistischen Charakter geprägt ist, wird spätestens seit dem 19. Jahrhundert immer wieder gefragt, ob nicht doch Nation und nationale Identität zur Schöpfung Gottes gehören. Gegenwärtig wird das in den Kirchen Europas kontrovers diskutiert, eng verbunden mit Erfahrungen von Migration. Nation klingt anders für protestantische Minderheitskirchen als für orthodoxe oder römisch-katholische Kirche in ehemals kommunistischen Staaten und wieder anders für deutsche Kirchen, die ihre Verquickung mit dem Nationalsozialismus
